From Fr. Mike's Desk

*“The community of believers was of one heart and mind...” “With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus...”
“On the evening of the first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews...”*

Oh, what a contrast we see in our two readings from today's Gospel and from the Acts of the Apostles as we celebrate this Second Sunday of Easter also known as Divine Mercy Sunday. In the Acts, we hear that all of the believers are acting as one, and at the heart of this community are the Apostles who have such great power and fearlessly bear witness to the Risen Lord. They gave their all to preach the good news, and they converted many to the faith. However, on that first Easter Sunday Night and the Sunday that followed, they were behind locked doors and windows fearing that they too would be arrested and executed. Likewise, they were frightened and confused because of the other events that happened on that first Easter Morning, when Mary told them that Jesus' body was taken. The confusion continued when she later told them that she spoke to the Risen Lord.

How do we get from John's Gospel account to the account found in the Acts? The answer is none other than Jesus. For locked doors and windows and even hearts could not keep out the Risen Lord. He does not appear to them to frighten them, no He comes to give them comfort when they needed it the most! He appears to them and tells them, “Peace be with you...As the Father has sent me so I send you.” Then He breathes upon them and tells them to receive the Holy Spirit. What wonders Christ has done for them! He forgives them and gives them the power to go out and preach the good news all in one action. Fear is useless, what is necessary is Trust, these are Jesus' words from the Gospel, and this is what Jesus was telling them that night. All who saw Him rejoiced and believed, except Thomas who was not present, because he could not deal with the events of Holy Thursday and Good Friday. Thomas refused to believe even after all of those gathered told him the same story, but seven days later he did believe and what came out of his mouth is the greatest proclamation of faith and the most proper identification of Jesus ever uttered in the New Testament: “My Lord and My God!”

Thomas sees and his fear disappears, and while Jesus accepts his praise, He tells him that he believed because he saw, but blessed are those who believe without seeing. Blessed are they who see Jesus not with their eyes, but with their hearts and souls through the power and grace of the Holy Spirit. I hope that blessed are we, for the Lord is speaking about us, and all who have followed Him for the past 2,019 years. However, our faith in Him cannot be lukewarm, and it cannot be on our terms. It must be on fire and we must listen to what He wants for us, after all, He only wants what is good and right.

The Risen Lord is able to come through locked doors and windows, and if we allow Him our hearts. Fear is the dead bolt that locks our hearts so we are to remove it with Trust. That is what is important for us to contemplate on this Divine Mercy Sunday. This day's theme is why St. John Paul II declared this day Divine Mercy Sunday. Jesus told St. Faustina that this was to be the day that we should rejoice over all that the Father has given us through His Divine Son. Christ knows our struggles, our hardships, and even the terrors we experience living in this world. Christ is here to assure us, as He did for the Apostles in the locked room, that we can trust in Him. As He told St. Faustina, “I am offering people a vessel with which they are to keep coming for graces to the fountain of mercy. That vessel is this image with the signature: ‘Jesus, I trust in you!’ I desire that this image be venerated, first in your chapel, and [then] throughout the world.” With all this and all that God has given us through our Risen Lord, let us put away all fear and shout out just as St. Thomas did, My Lord and My God!

Last Saturday Night at the Easter Vigil, we welcomed into the Church Vivian and her daughter Anya who were Baptized, Confirmed and received Jesus in the Eucharist for the first time. Today we welcome to St. Edward's the Most Rev. John O. Barres, Bishop of Rockville Centre. Bishop Barres will celebrate the 11:30 Mass and dedicate our new stained glass windows that were fully completed earlier this year. We welcome our dear Bishop to our parish on this day, which also marks the 16th Anniversary of the dedication of our Church building what a wonderful event to celebrate on this Divine Mercy Sunday

Happy Divine Mercy Sunday and Happy Easter

BEREAVEMENT GROUP

The St. Edward Bereavement Support Group is for anyone who has lost a loved one. When you lose a parent, spouse, sibling, child, friend or anyone close to you, working through the loss and grief can be confusing and overwhelming. During these meetings you will learn about the different types and stages of grief so that you can better understand, and cope with your particular set of circumstances.

The next set of meetings will start on Tuesday, May 7th, and will continue for 8 weeks, ending on June 25th. The meetings will take place in the Cenacle Room. Please sign up by May 1st by contacting:

Mikki Graeber / Tel: 516-921-4821

A LOVE STORY

Pope Francis tells us that it is by seeing Jesus’ wounds that the disciples of all time know that we have been forgiven because we “contemplate the boundless love flowing from his heart” – a heart that beats for each person. When Thomas touched the Lord’s wounds, Jesus became “My Lord and my God.” Pope Francis describes the appropriation of God as mine as a “love story.” The uncertain, wavering disciple then falls in love with the Lord telling him: “You became man for me, you died and rose for me and thus you are not only God; you are my God, you are my life. In you I have found the love that I was looking for, and much more than I could ever have imagined,” Pope Francis said.

SEC WOMEN'S GROUP

Please join us for our next meeting on Thursday, May 16, 2019 at 10:00 am in the Holy Family Room as we welcome Jayne Galgano, Nurse Educator at Plainview Hospital, who will introduce us to aromatherapy for the management of stress. If you experience chronic stress or anxiety, relax and try destressing with aromatherapy and mindfulness.

All are welcome.

BISHOP'S DEDICATION OF ST. EDWARD'S STAINED GLASS WINDOWS

Most Reverend John O. Barres will be dedicating the Stained Glass Windows of St. Edward's Church during the 11:30 am Mass this weekend. This date will also be the 16th Anniversary of the dedication of our new church. After the Mass and dedication there will be a reception in the Gathering Area of the church for all those who wish to attend.

Respect Life News

If you are pro-life, pro-choice, or not sure of your position on abortion, our Respect Life Group would like to encourage you to go see the movie "Unplanned", now playing at theaters on Long Island. "Unplanned" tells the true story of Abby Johnson who went from Planned Parenthood clinic director to becoming a leading advocate for life. This movie is an outstanding film which tells the truth about Planned Parenthood and abortion. The movie "Unplanned" is changing hearts across America! Check it out! God bless!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Divine Mercy Sunday is a very special Sunday when the Divine Floodgates from Heaven are wide-opened and Jesus offers us the total forgiveness of all sins and punishment to any soul, who goes to Confession and receives Him in Holy Communion, on that day .

Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul help those who are poor and hungry to “see and believe” in the forgiveness that Jesus offers each one of us.

LIVE 4-D Ultrasounds on Times Square Jumbo Screen: 'No Way a Person's Going to Be Able to Say That's Not a Child'

The 'Alive From New York' event is sponsored by -
Focus on the Family and will be held on:
Date: May 4th, 2019
Time: from 2:30 to 4:30 pm

WASHINGTON – In a bold response to the decision of New York and other states to legalize abortion up until the moment of birth, Focus on the Family is gearing up to blast live ultrasounds on monitors and screens across Times Square.

Focus on the Family announced the May 4 event Tuesday on CBN News' "Faith Nation."

"We'll have great speakers. We're going to have music, but we're also going to do a live ultrasound of a third-trimester baby," Focus on the Family President Jim Daly explained.

"And with the 4-D technology that we have, it looks like a picture of a 1-year-old," he noted. "There is no way a person is going to be able to say, 'That is not a child.' It is a child and we want everybody to see it."

This pro-life project comes as states like New York roll back restrictions on late-term abortion, permitting the procedure up until the point of delivery.

How to Help Our Kids Cope with the Stresses of Today's World

Presentation by Dr. Ray Shelton

Dr. Raymond D. Shelton is an author, consultant, international conference presenter, workshop and seminar leader. He has been a member of the Emergency Service community for 40 years, serving as a fire fighter and EMS educator. As co-author of the book Comprehensive Acute Traumatic Stress Management, he develops programs in the hospital, corporate, government, mental health, religious and emergency service communities to safely and effectively manage the stress of crisis and catastrophe.

Tuesday, April 30th at 7:00 PM in the Holy Family Room

Helping Our Children Manage the Stress of Their Over Committed Schedules

Stress – It's a knotted feeling in your stomach...a headache that won't go away...anxiety that you can't escape even at the end of an exhausting day. You feel overwhelmed, frazzled, burned out, and it's only just begun!

This workshop explores the nature of children's stress in today's overscheduled and overcommitted world.. We will explore how stress impacts your child's ability to maintain good health, relationships and connection with other children and family members. In this thought-provoking program you will learn the importance of balance in your child's daily life, helping your child maintain their physical and mental and emotional well-being.

Youth Ministry meets two Sundays a month from 4:00 to 5:30 PM in the Youth Office (located next to the Religious Education Office). Youth Ministry is a great opportunity to meet other young parishioners, learn more about our faith, and give back to the community. All in Middle and High School are welcome!

Vision is our teen choir, composed of students ages 11 through 23. We currently rehearse on Sunday evenings in the Church from 6:00 PM to 6:45 PM, prior to singing at the 7:00 PM Mass. Our group sings pop and current Christian music and are constantly adding new music to our repertoire. We need soloists, background singers, technical assistants and volunteers to help with various events.

All in Middle and High School are welcome to get involved at the 7pm Mass!

Lectors help to proclaim the Word at Mass through the first and second readings. They read once to twice a month, and practice their public speaking while helping us all to pray. Grade 8+

Ushers help with the collection at mass. Ushers ask a family to bring up the gifts, pass the collection baskets, and make sure the doors are open or closed at the right times. Grade 6+

To sign up to be an usher or Lector, contact Mary at mmullan@st-edwards.org.

Choir members, Vision. Vision helps us all to pray more deeply by leading us in music during the 7pm mass! All are welcome to share their voice! Contact Michelle to get involved at msena@st-edwards.org. Grade 6+
