From Fr. Mike's Desk

Wouldn't it be nice if we could always feel safe and warm and know that someone is watching over us? Wouldn't it be nice to know that there is someone guiding us and keeping us away from evil? Some may say that only happens in fairy tales, or in the movies, not in real life. Well actually, it does happen in real life. In fact, it is happening right now because there is someone watching over and guiding us. We certainly have our Guardian Angel, the Saints, and, of course, Jesus the Good Shepherd, who has been given His sheep by the Father. Jesus is the Good Shepherd who calls His sheep and they respond and follow Him. He will never abandon His flock and He has given all of His sheep the gift of eternal life. No one can take His sheep from His hand unless the sheep seek to leave His grasp, unless we turn away from Him and refuse to listen to His voice, and follow where He wants to lead us. This unhappy situation comes about because we have free will and that freedom gives us the ability to ignore the Shepherd's call. It also allows us to follow the call of bad shepherds who can and will lead us astray and make us believe that what they have to say is better and more important than the voice of Jesus.

Each of us may have a bad shepherd in our life (or a place in our life where we know we are not acting as a true Christian) who tries to control us, but there is nothing to fear. For thanks to the continual call of the Good Shepherd to His sheep we can overcome the bad shepherd's call, all we need to do is listen. However, in order for us to listen, we have to learn to be quiet, calm ourselves and get rid of all outside distractions, for some of us if not most of us, this is the hardest thing to do. Nonetheless, we have to try and we must help others to try; and one way to do this is to respect the quiet atmosphere that we try to create in the Church building, especially right before the celebration of the sacraments. Please do your best to maintain the right atmosphere in the Church and please remember to turn off your cell phones, tablets or anything else that will distract others or yourself. In addition, please if the phone rings, please do not answer the phone and have a conversation with the caller, the Church is not the proper place to do this. Thank you!

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is always called Good Shepherd Sunday because the Gospel Reading speaks about Jesus being the Good Shepherd, it has also traditionally been a day we pray for Vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate, and Religious Life. These people follow the footsteps of Jesus and in the name of Jesus minister to His Church. We also pray for Priestly Vocations during the month of November and we are in need for young people to follow Jesus as a priest or a woman or man in religious life as a sister or brother, or becoming a deacon in the Church. All these roles are necessary, and all help build the Church and the Kingdom of God. Is God calling you or someone you know to this particular service and way of life? If so, or you might think so, talk to me, or Deacon Jim or Barry, or a Sister of Mercy or St. Dominic, and you can always call the vocation director for the Diocese. Any of us would be happy to talk to you about the life God has chosen for us.

We close with the prayer for Priestly Vocations written by Pope Benedict XVI;

O Father, raise among Christians numerous and holy vocations to the priesthood, to keep the faith alive and guard the gracious memory of your Son Jesus through the preaching of His Word and the administration of the sacraments with which you continually renew your faithful. Amen

Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike
