Fifth Sunday of Easter

Reading 1 - Acts 14:21-27

After Paul and Barnabas had proclaimed the good news to that city and made a considerable number of disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. They strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith, saying, "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." They appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord in whom they had put their faith. Then they traveled through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. After proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia. From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now accomplished. And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

Responsorial Psalm – 145:8-9, 10-22, 12-13

R/ I will praise your name for ever,
my king and my God.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R/ I will praise your name for ever,
my king and my God.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R/ I will praise your name for ever,
my king and my God.

Let them make known your might to the children of Adam, and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.
Your kingdom is a kingdom for all ages, and your dominion endures through all generations.

R/ I will praise your name for ever,
my king and my God.

Reading 2 - Revelation 21:1-5a

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away."

The One who sat on the throne said,
"Behold, I make all things new."

Gospel - John 13:31-33a, 34-35

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and God will glorify him at once. My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Next Week's Gospel Question

To prepare for next Sunday's Mass, read the Gospel and think about what Jesus is saying to you, "Whoever loves me will keep My Word and the Father and I will come and dwell with him." What are you doing to open yourself completely to receive God?

Next Week's Readings

Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 22, 2022

First Reading - Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Psalms 67:2-3, 5, 6-8

Second Reading - Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

Gospel - John 14:23-29

From Fr. Mike's Desk

"I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race... and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away.'" The one who sat on the throne said, 'Behold I will make all things new...'"

These words of promise, which will be fulfilled when the Kingdom of God is realized in its full glory, are given to us now to help us know that the world is a different place. The world is no longer a place of darkness, spiritual death, and sin. Now you may say, what world are you living in; this is not the world that I am living in! Unfortunately, this is not the world I am living in either, but it is the world I am looking forward to coming and it is the world that is slowly appearing right here and now. How can I say this? I can because of Jesus. Jesus has and is changing the world because He has changed us! We, the members of the Church, are to make the world look more like what is described above from the Book of Revelation. We are supposed to be working on this every day and we cannot stop until we are called home to heaven, or Christ returns in His full glory.

We grasp that this recreation is possible, for if it were not, Christ would not have called us to accomplish it. God does not call us to do anything we cannot do, but we must keep in mind that it is not my job, or your job; it is everybody's job, to do this together and we do all with the untiring help and love of the Good Shepherd. While evil seems to be winning, and we are moving backwards, we must never forget that evil, will never win because you cannot defeat the power of the Holy Spirit. So, how do we not allow setbacks and the fact that so many will not listen to us to get us down? How do we not lose hope? Part of the answer, in fact, a large part, is in today's Gospel, when Jesus gives us His new commandment, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." This is a more serious commitment to love, it means to do what Jesus did for us, even unto giving up our lives for Him. This does not mean we all have to become martyrs, but it does mean we must always be ready to put Jesus and the Gospel first. We should live our lives totally dedicated to our families, our community and each other. This is what love is all about!

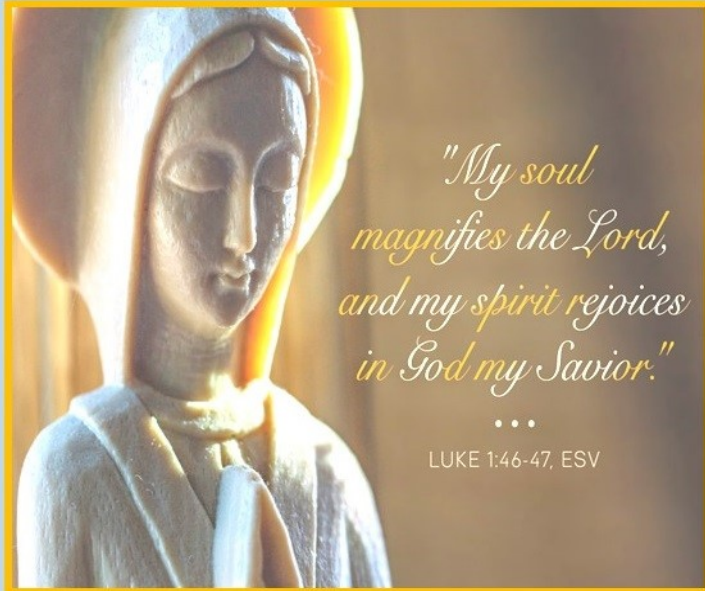

As we get back to the Gospel account, notice how Jesus waits for Judas to leave the Upper Room before He gives this commandment of perfect love. That is because Judas, even after seeing all that Jesus could do and hearing all that Jesus said, was still thinking only about what he wanted. Judas was still thinking with the wisdom of the world and not the wisdom of God, who was right in front of him. Now the question during this Easter Season and beyond is do you want to be like Judas and betray Jesus, or do you want to assemble before the throne of the Lamb. As God tells us in the Book of Deuteronomy, I give you all these things so you may have life. So choose life!

Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Parish May Crowning

All are welcome!

Sunday, May 22nd

at the 9:30 am Mass

We especially invite all of our First Holy Communion children to join in our traditional May Crowning Procession.

We ask that our First Communicants wear their First Communion outfits and gather at 9:15 am in the Church lobby for the Procession line up. The May Crowning will take place at the beginning of the 9:30am Family Mass. All other children are invited to wear their Sunday best.

On this Mothers' Day, come join with your parish family, as we gather to crown Mary, our Heavenly Mother, Queen of Heaven and Queen of our Hearts.

The Saint Joseph's Prayer Group

This May, start small with simple prayers. Praying can ease your pain, and help you find direction in life while drawing closer to God.

Come to the church on Thursday night at 7:30 PM and join others in praying the Rosary and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. By your example become a beacon of light and hope to your spouse, your children, your friends and those in your community.

The first Promise (of 15 imparted to Saint Dominic) was: "Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall receive signal graces". Want to learn what a 'signal grace' is? Care to find out the other 14 promises? Come and pray.

Catholic Ministries Appeal

We are extremely grateful to all of our parishioners who have continued their generosity towards St. Edward's but we are still falling short of meeting our obligations. Your participation in the Catholic Ministries Appeal will not only help the tens of thousands of people who are helped through the diocese but you will be helping St. Edward's as well. We welcome and appreciate every donation... large or small. Please consider making a pledge to support the various ministries of the Diocese.
