The Readings for the Fifth Sunday of Easter

Reading 1 - Acts 9:26-31

When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him to the apostles, and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus. He moved about freely with them in Jerusalem, and spoke out boldly in the name of the Lord. He also spoke and debated with the Hellenists, but they tried to kill him. And when the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him on his way to Tarsus.

The church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalms 22:26-27, 28, 30, 31-32

R. I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

R. Alleluia.

I will fulfill my vows before those who fear the LORD.

The lowly shall eat their fill;

they who seek the LORD shall praise him:

“May your hearts live forever!”

R. I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

or:

R. Alleluia.

All the ends of the earth

shall remember and turn to the LORD;

all the families of the nations shall bow down before him.

R. I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

or:

R. Alleluia.

To him alone shall bow down

all who sleep in the earth;

before him shall bend

all who go down into the dust.

R. I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

or:

R. Alleluia.

And to him my soul shall live;

my descendants shall serve him.

Let the coming generation be told of the LORD that they may proclaim to a people yet to be born

the justice he has shown.

R. I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Reading 2 – 1 John 3:18-24

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth.

Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us.

Gospel – John 15:1-8

Jesus said to his disciples:

“I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Talk is cheap, and actions speak louder than words, or perhaps you would prefer, you can talk the talk, but can you walk the walk? Or maybe, "Children let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth." Saint John in his First Letter is really telling us that the true cost of being a disciple of Jesus is not a person who just talks or pays the Lord lip service. No, a true disciple must put the Gospel into practice. So it means we must love one another, forgive each other, and do our best to help people in need whether their need is physical, emotional, or spiritual. This is what it means to keep Jesus' commandment of loving one another just as He loves us.

But as we know, this is not easy to do. Sometimes we cannot help others in need. Perhaps we find it hard to forgive those who have hurt us, or, sometimes, we find it hard to love others or a particular person or group of persons. So how can we do these things, how can we follow Jesus' commandment of love, and not just give Him lip service? The answer is seen in today's Gospel Passage, as we must remember the unique relationship that we as members of the Body of Christ share with our Risen Lord. Jesus tells us that our relationship is like a branch and its relationship to the vine. This imagery is one that was very familiar to the people of the Ancient World. If you have ever seen grape vines grow, you would see how the branches are so totally dependent upon the vine for food, water and life itself. The vine also connects the branches to each other and to the roots. In the same way, without Jesus we cannot truly survive or to be able to act in His Holy name. Without Jesus to feed us, water us, and give us spiritual strength and grace we can never walk the walk with Him.

Jesus is not asking us to act in His Name without Him guiding and helping us. Remember, God never asks us to do anything we cannot do; and He never asks us to do it by ourselves. We must also keep in mind, that as branches connected to the same vine, Christ also gives us the help and support of each other so we can speak in truth and in deed. This is the reason why Christ founded the Church in the first place, so that His Living Body can change the world.

During this Easter Season, our young people in grade/level two will receive Jesus in His Body and Blood for the first time. This is indeed a joyful event for the children, their families, and for all of us here at St. Edward's. Please keep them in your prayers as they receive Jesus for the first time, that it will not be the last time. Pray that their families and friends will support them and help them to see the true beauty of the Sacrifice of the Mass and the joy of being a participating member of this wonderful community we call St. Edward's.

Next Sunday is also Mother's Day and we will have the Crowning of the Blessed Mother at the 9:30 AM Mass, please see the bulletin for more details. And keep in mind to have our mothers (living and deceased) remembered in a special way during the Month of May, please use the envelope found in your packet to enroll these special women in the Novena of Masses.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike

Gospel - John 15:9-17

Fr. Mike's Letter for Week 58 of the Corona Virus Crisis

The following letter was posted last week, prior to the Fourth Sunday of Easter, on the St. Edward's website as well as on Flocknote.

This weekend we mark the Fourth Sunday of Easter, also known as Good Shepherd Sunday. We call this Sunday Good Shepherd because every year the Gospel Reading stress Jesus as the Good Shepherd or has Jesus telling us He is the Good Shepherd. Now in Jesus' time, and in every society or place where sheep are raised, the title Good Shepherd meant a great deal. In Israel it was often thought that God was the shepherd of His people and He watched over them and took care of them. So, Jesus is making a great statement when He tells them that He is the Good Shepherd. But Jesus also includes the following. He knows His sheep and they know Him and respond only to the sound of His voice. He also tells them that He will lay down His life for His sheep, as He did on the Cross 2021 years ago and as He does for us every day.

This Good Shepherd has been watching over and caring for us before, during and after we get through this totally disrupting virus. All we need do, is tune our ears and our hearts to hear His voice. We must continue to trust in Him (which is a major theme of the Easter Season). As I mentioned in this week's bulletin letter, this weekend has traditionally been directed to and praying for vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate, and Religious Life. We most certainly need more people to walk in the footsteps of the Good Shepherd. The Sacramental Life of the Church depends on Priests and Deacons to celebrate the Sacraments and the other great ministries of the Church need the dedication, sacrifice, and service of the women and men who are called to Religious Life. We need all of us to pray for vocations and to encourage them. We all remember last year, when we were not able to publicly celebrate the Sacraments because of the lockdown. We all remember how for so many of us this was a very sad time. None of us wants to go back to those days, but they can become a reality again for many parishes if we do not encourage people to answer the call of the Holy Spirit to serve in Ordained Ministry or Consecrated Religious Life.

While we certainly need people to respond to the call for vocations, we also should remember that since we are Baptized into the Body of Christ, we are also to act like Christ, and we are to shepherd one another. As I have said many times, people must see Christ alive in us, and we must do the best we can to make Chris present by what we say and what we do. Learn to listen to His voice and put His words into action.

God Bless You Always and Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike

Catholic Ministries Appeal

2021
MINISTRIES

ROCKVILLE CENTRE

One Family in Mission
Creating Pathways to Faith

Pope Francis calls each of us to be instruments of Jesus' love and compassion to those in need. Journeying together with Long Island's faithful, we have the opportunity to act on this call through our support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). When we support the CMA, we are working together to create pathways of love and compassion by providing programs that serve disadvantaged families, our senior citizens, those struggling with substance abuse and those in need of housing. Additionally, the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps lay paths of evangelization through the formation of our priests, deacons and lay leaders. It assists in training our religious education catechists and adult faith formation leaders who educate our youth and parish families, and programs that promote the sanctity of life at all stages. Working together, we are all enriching the lives of all Long Island.

As of April 26, 2021 the Parishioners of St. Edwards have pledged $85,995, and we are now at 81.5% of our annual goal. Please consider making a pledge to support the various ministries of the Diocese.

A Blessing for our Communicants

Blessings to you on your First Communion. Through receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ for the first time, may you feel your union with Jesus today and every day as you live a life of faith dedicated to Him. By receiving the Eucharist for the rest of your life, you will be one with Jesus and live with Him one day in eternity. Congratulations!
