Lord, send out your Spirit,

The Readings for Pentecost Sunday

Reading 1 - Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Responsorial Psalm – Psalms 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.
or:
R. Alleluia.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!
O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!
How manifold are your works, O LORD!
the earth is full of your creatures.
R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.
or:
R. Alleluia.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
may the LORD be glad in his works!
Pleasing to him be my theme;
I will be glad in the LORD.
R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.
or:
R. Alleluia.

If you take away their breath, they perish
and return to their dust.
When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.
R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.
or:
R. Alleluia.

Reading 2 – 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters:
No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Gospel – John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

From Fr. Mike's Desk

“And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues; as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.”

These words from the Acts of the Apostles tell us the event that occurred in Jerusalem fifty days after Jesus rose from the dead and ten days after Jesus, the Risen Lord, ascended into heaven, as they tell us about the first Pentecost Sunday. Pentecost gets its name from the Jewish Festival of Weeks, also known as the Harvest or Pentecost. It was a festival of joy and thanksgiving celebrating the completion of the harvest season. It was the second major feast in which all able-bodied Jewish males were required to attend at least once in Jerusalem. It got its name, The Feast of Weeks, because it was used to describe the time from the grain harvest to the barley harvest to the wheat harvest. The days involved, plus some additions, brought it to a total of fifty days. This feast was to occur fifty days after the first fruits; therefore, it was given the name Pentecost which means fifty. As mentioned above, this was a feast all males were required to attend and thus be in Jerusalem. That is why Luke tells us that there were Jews from every nation present in Jerusalem on that day. On that day they were all attracted to the Upper Room when they heard the great noise of the power of the Holy Spirit coming upon the Apostles and the Blessed Mother. When the Apostles came out, they were boldly speaking about Jesus in all the different languages of the assembled crowd. Of course, all who heard them, asked, “how is it we hear these men speaking in our own languages?” After all these men are from Galilee and they cannot possibly know all these languages. Some in the crowd thought the Apostles might have had too much wine, but it was early in the morning. The crowd could not have known that they were filled with the Spirit of God. God, the Holy Spirit, came inside them, and He replaced fear with courage, weakness with strength, ignorance with knowledge and wisdom, and He removed any obstacle the Apostles might have had in spreading the Good News.

As mentioned last week, Pentecost is the birthday of the Church and we are happy to celebrate its 2021st birthday. Pentecost is called the Church's birthday because it is on this day that the promised Holy Spirit was sent by the Father and the Son upon the Church so that we could carry out the mission Jesus gave to us. Christ had come into the world to fulfill the promise God made of sending us a Messiah. He preached the Good News and suffered and died for us so all sin, spiritual death and darkness could be destroyed. Christ rose from the dead and ascended into Heaven to lead us all to the Kingdom of Heaven, and now we come to the next stage of fulfillment with the coming of the Holy Spirit.

Now it is up to us to do our part and continue the work of our Savior. We are to evangelize the world and share the gifts of the Holy Spirit (given to us first at Baptism and then even more so in Confirmation, and in the constant outpouring of Divine Grace). We are also to carry out the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. Happy Birthday and just like any Birthday celebration we are getting gifts, and they are the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit and so many more.

Today is also the last day of the Easter Season and when we come here on Monday or next Sunday we will once again be in Ordinary Time. However, we must remember that after receiving the gifts of the Holy Spirit and having the Spirit act in our lives, what could ever be ordinary. And now for the last time this year.

Happy Easter and Happy Birthday!

Fr. Mike

Fr. Mike's Letter for Week 61 of the Corona Virus Crisis

The following letter was posted last week, prior to the Seventh Sunday of Easter, on the St. Edward's website as well as on Flocknote.

On Thursday May 13th, we celebrated the Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord into heaven. According to tradition, this occurred 40 days after Easter Sunday. During those 40 days, we are told by the Gospels and by various other traditions, that Jesus visited with the Apostles and continued to teach them. As we see in John's Gospel, Jesus appeared to the Apostles one very early morning on the shore of the sea of Galilee. At first, they did not recognize Him, and He asked them if they caught anything? The answer was no, so Jesus told them to cast the net over the side of the boat, and they caught so many fish that the net was about to rip. With that, John yells out, "It is the Lord." Peter cannot control himself, so he jumps into the water to get to the shore to greet Jesus. On the shore Jesus had prepared a fire and he had fish on it, He told the Apostles to bring over some of the fish they caught. Our Lord had more than just food on His mind. While there, He asked Peter three times if he loved Him. Peter answered, yes three times, and Jesus gave him instructions to tend, feed and take care of His sheep. As we have heard many times, Jesus asked Peter, "Do you love me?" three times to make up for the three times Peter denied Jesus on Holy Thursday Night.

Now this brings us to that Thursday when Jesus is about to say goodbye! He tells them in Matthew's Gospel, that full authority has been given to Him by the Father, and they are to go out to every nation and preach the Gospel and baptize in the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. With that, He was taken into heaven and vanished from their eyes. Suddenly (as Luke tells us in the Acts) angels appeared and told them to stop looking in the sky that Jesus would indeed come back, and they are to go out as Jesus commanded them (after they received the Holy Spirit). Jesus also promised before He ascended that He would be with them always and these words were not just for the Apostles but for the Church, for us!

Over this past year, we have seen so many terrible things. We have seen so much violence and misunderstandings. Likewise, we have seen sickness and death, fear, and darkness. We might start to believe that God has abandoned us, or He just does not care. Nothing could be further from the truth. Yes, we have seen darkness, but we have also seen a great light. We have seen God working everyday through the hard-working medical community. We have seen them working hard to come up with better treatments for those who come down with the virus and we have seen them develop a vaccine to help prevent the spread. We have recently seen a relaxing of the restrictions, which started last June when we were able to publicly celebrate the Sacraments and that is growing more and more. Yet there is still more to come, and we still have work to do as we resurrect the fire of faith in people's hearts, and we must help others and ourselves to know that God is always with us.

Remember that Easter and Ascension are not the end of the story, these two days just bring us to the end of one volume. The next volume is the one which we are living in now. It begins with Pentecost and it will continue till Our Lord comes again.

God bless you always and Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike

Harvest Houses - Residences for Independent Living

This weekend Sister Jeanne and Sister Mary will be speaking at each of the Masses about Harvest Houses, which have been serving independent Seniors on Long Island for 35 years. If you know of a senior, or family member of a senior who is looking for an independent living situation, please pass the information along.

Harvest House located in Syosset, NY.

Harvest Park located in Floral Park, NY.

Harvest Houses, Residences for Independent Seniors - A New Option for Senior Living!

Established 35 years ago by Sister Jeanne A. Brendel, O.P., Harvest Houses, home for eight (65+) seniors offers family-like, relational living in a life-giving, supportive environment.

Harvest Houses provides residents with:

- Private bedroom
- Nutritious meals
- Beautiful private grounds
- Social and recreational services
- Connection to community resources
- Non-institutional family environment
- Stimulating independence
- Mutual daily support, security & safety

DO YOU KNOW AN INDEPENDENT SENIOR WHO WOULD BENEFIT AND ENJOY LIVING IN A LIFE-GIVING RESIDENCE?

Here we believe in the Gift of Life and that later life is particularly significant to the whole of life and can be the most fulfilling years to reap the harvest!

Sister Jeanne Brendel, OP & Sister Mary Butler, OP received the 2021 Women of Distinction for their ministry at Harvest House.

Recently named 2021 Women of Distinction, the Office of Legislator Joshua A. Lafazan Nassau County 18th District Shared: "It is my distinct privilege to honor Harvest Houses Sisters of St. Dominic Jeanne A. Brendel, O.P. and Mary E. Butler, O.P with the Women of Distinction Award. You have brought pride, warmth, safety, dignity and independence to the residents. They look forward to each day, because you provide them with a loving and positive outlook on life. It is apparent you bring light to those around you and that is a very special thing. The impact you have on Harvest House will surely live on for years to come."

At the present time there are openings in both locations. For more information, visit <http://harvesthouses.org>. To inquire about living in Harvest House, please contact Sister Jeanne A. Brendel, O.P., CSW at (516) 496-9796 or jabharvest@yahoo.com.

Projects and Landscaping on the Parish Grounds

As many of you may have already noticed, the area surrounding the statue of St. Edward the Confessor was redone as part of an Eagle Scout project, undertaken by Michael Albrecht, son of Vincent Albrecht, the Principal of St. Edward's School. Over the course of several months, Michael designed and created a scope of work, obtained estimates, and submitted a proposal to our Pastor. The work was to include clearing the existing shrubbery, removing old slates and grading the area for the installation of new pavers, trees and other plantings, new lighting and benches. Once approved, Michael began his fundraising efforts, organized a volunteer workforce and ordered the materials. Michael was successful in raising the funds, and the project was completed last week. This beautiful new space, which can be enjoyed by all Parishioners, is a demonstration of what one motivated individual can achieve. Thank you Michael for all your hard work, and congratulations on achieving the rank of Eagle Scout!!

Projects and Landscaping on the Parish Grounds

In addition to the recent beautification work recently accomplished around the St. Edward's statue, other areas of the grounds have been improved with plantings and mulch. These areas include the flower bed surrounding the commemorative plaque for Nicholas J. Bartilucci, and the area just outside the Rectory. We want to thank Kevin and Barbara Moran for all their hard work and dedication to improving and maintaining these garden beds.

Additionally, one of our many generous parishioners, John Rooney, donated all of the sod which was placed on the front lawn of the church, which goes a long way to making St. Edward's Church such a beautiful place to sit, mediate and enjoy the smell of fresh flowers.

Thank you again to all who made possible these beautification projects without St. Edwards incurring any expense.

DIOCESE OF
ROCKVILLE CENTRE

One Family in Mission
Creating Pathways to Faith

Pope Francis calls each of us to be instruments of Jesus' love and compassion to those in need. Journeying together with Long Island's faithful, we have the opportunity to act on this call through our support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). When we support the CMA, we are working together to create pathways of love and compassion by providing programs that serve disadvantaged families, our senior citizens, those struggling with substance abuse and those in need of housing. Additionally, the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps lay paths of evangelization through the formation of our priests, deacons and lay leaders. It assists in training our religious education catechists and adult faith formation leaders who educate our youth and parish families, and programs that promote the sanctity of life at all stages. Working together, we are all enriching the lives of all Long Island.

As of May 17, 2021 the Parishioners of St. Edwards have pledged $90,970, and we are now at 86.2% of our annual goal. Please consider making a pledge to support the various ministries of the Diocese.

A Blessing for our Communicants

Blessings to you on your First Communion. Through receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ for the first time, may you feel your union with Jesus today and every day as you live a life of faith dedicated to Him. By receiving the Eucharist for the rest of your life, you will be one with Jesus and live with Him one day in eternity. Congratulations!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Today as we celebrate Pentecost the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God's presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able bring the love of God to the poor by assisting families, providing food and help with utility and rent bills, etc. Thank You!

Thank you to all who donated to our Clothing Drive! It was a success!

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION

Do you know someone who is looking to become a Catholic?

Do you know a baptized adult Catholic who was never catechized – that is, never participated in the Church, or received First Holy Communion?

Do you know a Catholic who was never confirmed? They were baptized, and made first Holy Communion, but never continued learning more about their faith.

Do you know someone who is aching to belong to a loving church community?

Is this person you??

Wonderful News

As many of you know, and as previously listed in the bulletin, our friend and fellow parishioner Mike Ferrari was in need of a kidney. Mike's wife Caroline has shared with us the wonderful news that Mike will now be receiving a kidney from his brother. Caroline wishes to extend her heartfelt thanks for the concern shown by the Parish, and for all the prayers that were offered, and continue to be offered on Mike's behalf. In her own words,

Praise the Lord!

Knight of Columbus

As the St. Edward's Parish begins to reopen our local Council of the KofC is beginning to plan for projects and events, and we're looking for Catholic men of all ages who wish to aid the church and their fellow parishioners.

Joining the Knights is easy, and you can decide on which projects and events you want to be involved with. If you're curious but don't want to make a commitment, just come to our next Social Meeting on Tuesday, May 25th at 8:00 PM. Weather permitting, we will meet on the St. Edward's ball field for a BBQ. If it rains, we will meet in the Holy Family Room. If you have questions, send an email to John O'Connor at:
