From Fr. Mike's Desk

St. Paul tells us in today's Letter to the Ephesians to watch carefully how we live, and to be wise making the most of every opportunity to be with God and look always to do good because the power of evil is always present. The reading from the Book of Proverbs tells us to come and rest in the house that Wisdom has built and eat the food that Wisdom has prepared carefully and lovingly. Forsake all foolishness so you may live with God and do what is good. Wisdom, using her gifts and opportunities is what we should contemplate this weekend as we continue the Bread of Life Discourse in John's Gospel.

We pick up the gospel account where last weeks ended with the people quarreling among themselves as to how can Jesus give them His flesh to eat? Again, if you do not realize who is offering His flesh and blood, and do not have faith in Him, this would indeed seem impossible. In fact, detractors of the faith used this statement by Our Lord during the time of the Roman Empire to accuse Christians of being cannibals (as they accused the Church of eating the flesh of others and seeking human sacrifices). Many of the Church Fathers, who were called apologists (those who explain the faith to those outside of it), would write how these words were misunderstood, and they explained that what was eaten at the Mass was the Body and Blood of Jesus given to us in real food. Real food and drink, which keeps its appearance of bread and wine, but now has become the Body and Blood of Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. The real food that Jesus gives us is unlike any other food we will ever eat. This food leads us to the Father and Eternal Life. As Jesus said, "Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

Wisdom sets her table and invites us to come and not to remain foolish. Be wise and take advantage of this opportunity that God gives us, eat the food that gives true life, and do not let the wisdom of this world tell you how to live. There is only one true wisdom, it comes from God and is given freely to us by the Father through the Son, and the working of the Holy Spirit.

Please remember our beautiful Saint Edward's School if you are looking for a wonderful place to send your children or grandchildren to learn all they can about this world and the world that is to come. There are still spaces available in every grade, so call our school and speak to our Principal Mrs. LoManto at (516) 921-7767 to set up an appointment to tour our school. You will not regret it.

God bless you always!

Second Reading - Ephesians 5:21-32

Gospel - John 6:60-69

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel we will hear the grumbling of Jesus' followers who state "This saying is hard; who can accept it" after listening to His teachings that He "is the bread of life came down from heaven". Some of these followers could not bring themselves to believe and departed from Jesus.

As we listen to Jesus' words we too are being challenged as to whether we believe if Jesus is, as His disciples stated, "the Holy One of God".

The Hail Mary Prayer - Did You Know...?

Part 2...A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE ROSARY -

The Hail Mary Prayer

The Hail Mary prayer came together slowly. It took more than a thousand years. The earliest version simply added Mary's name to the message delivered by the angel Gabriel to Mary: "Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee". Around 1050 AD, the words Elizabeth used to greet Mary during the Visitation were added: "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb". In 1261, Pope Urban IV added the name Jesus to the end of Elizabeth's words.

St. Peter Canisius published the Hail Mary in his 1555 Catechism with almost the entire final petition: "Holy Mary, Mother God, pray for us sinners." Eleven years later, the Catechism of the Council of Trent (a work that Canisius was instrumental in creating) included, for the first time, the entire final petition, concluding with the words "now and at the hour of death. Amen." The version of the hail Mary we pray today was given official approval in 1568.

The Meaning of Rosary Beads: While the exact origin of prayer beads is unknown, men and women of many faiths and cultures have (and do) use beads to pray. In fact, the word bead in English is actually derived from an Old English word 'bede' that means prayer. While praying with the beads certainly wasn't an original idea, it's a powerful reminder that everything before the coming of Jesus was preparing for that moment that God yearns to transform everything into something holy, even something as ordinary as a small rope with some beads on it.

It is widely believed that in 1214 St. Dominic had a vision of Mary. She is said to have presented him with the rosary, both the beads and the prayers to be prayed. Dominic had tremendous devotion to Mary and the rosary, which he promoted wherever he traveled to preach. He encouraged Catholics to gather in small groups to pray what was an early form of the rosary together. These were quite possibly the first expressions of the prayer groups and small group communities that are still having a powerful impact today.

St. Louis de Montfort was ordained a priest in 1700. He was known not only as a preacher, but especially for his devotion to Mary and his practice praying the rosary. Through this devotion he wrote often on the idea of being consecrated to Jesus through Mary, recognizing that a powerful way to connect with God is through His mother. His writings, make up some of the earliest works on Mariology, or the study of the theology of Mary.

The Fatima Prayer

On May 13, 1917, Mary appeared to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. She told them to come back to that exact place on the 13th day of each month for the next six months. Mary promised she would appear to them each time and entrust a message to them.

Mary told the children to pray for world peace by reciting the rosary every day. On July 13, 1917, Mary asked the children to add a short prayer to the end of each decade of the rosary: O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell; lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy. Today this is referred to as the Fatima prayer, and many Catholics incorporate it into the rosary as Mary requested.

Next week, in part 3 of the Holy Rosary, we will address the sequence of the prayers as well as the stories behind the Mysteries.
