Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Isaiah 66:18-21

Thus says the LORD:

I know their works and their thoughts, and I come to gather nations of every language; they shall come and see my glory. I will set a sign among them; from them I will send fugitives to the nations: to Tarshish, Put and Lud, Mosoch, Tubal and Javan, to the distant coastlands that have never heard of my fame, or seen my glory; and they shall proclaim my glory among the nations. They shall bring all your brothers and sisters from all the nations as an offering to the LORD, on horses and in chariots, in carts, upon mules and dromedaries, to Jerusalem, my holy mountain, says the LORD, just as the Israelites bring their offering to the house of the LORD in clean vessels. Some of these I will take as priests and Levites, says the LORD.

Responsorial Psalm – 117:1, 2

R/ Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.

Praise the LORD, all you nations;
glorify him, all you peoples!

R/ Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.

For steadfast is his kindness toward us,
and the fidelity of the LORD endures forever.

R/ Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.

Reading 2 - Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

Brothers and sisters,
You have forgotten the exhortation addressed to you as children: "My son, do not disdain the discipline of the Lord or lose heart when reproved by him; for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines; he scourges every son he acknowledges." Endure your trials as "discipline"; God treats you as sons. For what "son" is there whom his father does not discipline? At the time, all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it.

So strengthen your drooping hands and your weak knees. Make straight paths for your feet, that what is lame may not be disjointed but healed.

Gospel - Luke 13:22-30

Jesus passed through towns and villages, teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" He answered them, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough. After the master of the house has arisen and locked the door, then will you stand outside knocking and saying, 'Lord, open the door for us.' He will say to you in reply, 'I do not know where you are from. And you will say, 'We ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets.' Then he will say to you, 'I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evildoers!' And there will be wailing and grinding of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and you yourselves cast out. And people will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God. For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

Go out to all the world and tell the *Good News!

Next Week's Gospel Question

Next Sunday's readings talk about humility. Thinking about yourself - do you think you are better than others - or do you see everyone, regardless of race, creed, color, orientation, or social status as your equal?

Next Week's Readings

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 28, 2022

First Reading - Sirach 13:17-18, 20, 28-29
Psalms 68:4-5, 6-7, 10-11
Second Reading - Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a
Gospel - Luke 14:1, 7-14

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Chances are you have seen on TV or heard on the radio or saw on the internet, ads for the New York State Lottery. Every day we see something about the recent Scratch-Off Game or what the new total is for the Mega Millions or Power Ball. These ads all offer us a chance to become a millionaire and I know many people play these games every week in hope of winning. Some people like me, will play when the jackpot is extremely high in the hope if I win even a lower prize, I can help St. Edward's. Some people have said that if they win, they will give some to St. Edward's..., from their lips to God's ears!

Yes, we are all offered the promise of winning a high sum of money, but there is, of course, one catch, and the ads tell you this all the time, namely, "You have to be in it to win it!" This is true for the Lottery, and it is true for what is offered to us in today's readings. God tells us through the Prophet Isaiah that He will come to gather the nations of every language, even lands that never heard of Him. They, like Israel, will see His glory and will proclaim it. The promise of salvation is freely given by God to all people, no matter where or when they live. God has given us the invitation to eternal life, a promise greater than winning the Lottery. However, there is one catch, you must be in it to gain it! Eternal life while freely given, is something we must strive for, and embrace totally, and if we do, God will not hold it back. We must make it our goal, and how we live our lives should totally serve that goal. It requires us to have more than a knowledge of God, Jesus, and Heaven. It requires us to know God, Jesus and Heaven in our heart and soul. It requires us to follow what the Letter to the Hebrews recommends to us today, Discipline!

These days, many people do not like the word discipline because it seems to suggest that we are not free and must yield to the power of someone else. Well, like it or not, life in this world is not completely free and we all must yield to the authority of someone else. If you do not believe it, try going one hundred mph. on the L.I.E. and see how far you get before someone makes you yield or, until recently, a pothole gets you! The very word discipline goes along with the word Disciple, and it means to follow a way of life. Whose life? Jesus' life and all He has taught us in the Gospel, what we have learned from the Church's Ancient traditions and what we continue to learn through the direction and grace of God the Holy Spirit. As we read in

Hebrews, "...all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it."

People asked Jesus if only a few people would be saved, and Jesus answers with, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you will attempt but will not be strong." Many will try, and while it seems that Jesus is withholding salvation from them, He is not. Those who are not strong enough to enter the kingdom are those who did not commit to it and hoped they could come along for a free ride. Eternal life will not be given to those who openly deny it or cry out, "Lord open the door for us". No, it will be given to those who listen to the call, strive to do their best to be open, and try to put the call into practice. What Jesus is telling us today, therefore, is you must genuinely want salvation to get it. It is yours for the asking all you need to do is say yes and follow Jesus' great law of love. For this love, makes up for our own imperfections and for the times when we seek discipline and fail.

Thank you for all you do for St. Edwards!

Fr. Mike

Disciplined Disciples

Following Christ. Pursuing Holiness.

Training for Godliness

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The Saint Joseph Prayer Group

Come pray the Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy every Thursday night at 7:30 PM in the church. According to tradition, the Blessed Virgin Mary has related to us 15 promises to those who pray the Rosary devoutly. During our prayers this week we will keep in mind the fourteenth promise, which is:

All who recite the Rosary are my beloved children and the brothers and sisters of my only Son, Jesus Christ.

St. Vincent de Paul Clothing Bins

As we have in the past, we ask you again, when donating items to be put in the St. Vincent de Paul clothing bins to please limit it to clothing. SVdP does not accept furniture, toys or any other items, at their bin locations. Additionally, if the bins are full and cannot take additional clothing items, do not leave clothing donations around the bins. We are required to throw out any items not placed in the bin. This becomes a big safety and health concern for our children and all of our parishioners. Your co-operation with this request is greatly appreciated.

Bereavement Support Group

For those who have lost a loved one, either recently or during the pandemic, the St. Edward's Bereavement Ministry will be forming the next Support Group.
