Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God. What is too sublime for you, seek not, into things beyond your strength search not. The mind of a sage appreciates proverbs, and an attentive ear is the joy of the wise. Water quenches a flaming fire, and alms atone for sins.

Responsorial Psalm – 68:4-5, 6-7, 10-11

R/ God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

The just rejoice and exult before God;
they are glad and rejoice.
Sing to God, chant praise to his name;
whose name is the LORD.

R/ God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

The father of orphans and the defender of widows is God in his holy dwelling.
God gives a home to the forsaken;
he leads forth prisoners to prosperity.

R/ God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

A bountiful rain you showered down, O God, upon your inheritance;
you restored the land when it languished;
your flock settled in it;
in your goodness, O God, you provided it for the needy.

R/ God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

Reading 2 - Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

Brothers and sisters:
You have not approached that which could be touched and a blazing fire and gloomy darkness and storm and a trumpet blast and a voice speaking words such that those who heard begged that no message be further addressed to them. No, you have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and countless angels in festal gathering, and the assembly of the firstborn enrolled in heaven, and God the judge of all, and the spirits of the just made perfect, and Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and the sprinkled blood that speaks more eloquently than that of Abel.

Gospel - Luke 14:1, 7-14

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Then he said to the host who invited him, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Next Week's Gospel Question

Next week's Gospel poses some tough decisions. The question for us is: What are you willing to sacrifice to be a true follower of Christ?"

Next Week's Readings

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 28, 2022

First Reading - Sirach 13:17-18, 20, 28-29

Psalms 68:4-5, 6-7, 10-11

Second Reading - Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

Gospel - Luke 14:1, 7-14

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today Jesus gives us an important lesson on how to receive rewards in this life, and more importantly how to enter Eternal Life. That lesson is to be humble and to have a proper understanding of the word humility. Jesus gives this lesson in the practical situation of a formal dinner, but it can apply to any gathering of people, even an office or company meeting. Jesus tells us not to exult ourselves or automatically take the place of honor, we should take a lower place and have our host or employer tell us to move up in place. Without a doubt, people will think better of you, and you will avoid embarrassment. But this lesson is meant to do more than just inform us on how we should act in a social or business occasion. This lesson is a plan on how we really should live our lives. We must strive to lead a humble life!

Humility comes from the Latin word humilis, which means low from the earth. A humble person is usually unpretentious and modest, someone who does not think he or she is better or more important than others. Humility is not to be confused with humiliation, which is the act of making someone else feel ashamed. Different faiths look at humility in diverse ways. The Buddhists see humility as allowing us liberation from the sufferings of this life. The aim is to achieve a state of enlightenment through meditation and other spiritual practices. Humility can help us achieve Nirvana, which is the ultimate emptiness of oneself. For the followers of Islam, humility is extremely important because without it, one cannot engage in a true relationship with Allah.

Christianity defines humility as that quality which helps a person submit him or herself to God, and others, for the good of all. Humility is one of the foundations of the spiritual edifice and is inferior only to faith. However, humility is the first virtue in as much as it removes all obstacles to faith. Humility removes pride and makes one become a fit recipient of grace. Humility has the following attributes: submission to God and all legitimate authority, recognition of the virtues and talents that others have, particularly those which surpasses one's own, and giving due honor where it is required. Humility helps us to recognize the limits of our talents, abilities or authority and helps us not to reach for what is beyond one's grasps. We also must try to avoid false humility, which consists of belittling one's own sanctity, gifts, talents, and accomplishments for the sake of receiving praise from others. In short, we must avoid being proud of our humility! Christ's call for humility is essential for us to truly know who we are before God and others, and to remind us that we all belong to God our Father who loves us all the same. To stress this point, Jesus urges that we know the poor and share life with them. Not just to know about the poor, but to really know those who are poor. We should not help the poor out of guilt or for tax write offs, but out of a powerful desire to help. We can do that here at Saint Edward's in many ways. We can support our Parish Social Ministry Office with cash donations or gift cards and certainly food donations which are collected on the first Sunday of each month. We can also help by supporting our Saint Vincent de Paul Society which helps people with various other needs including, clothing, heat, utility bills and more. We can support them by placing money in the poor boxes in the church or making a monetary donation to our society. Think about what you can do and think about how you can keep yourself humble before God and humanity.

Thank you for all you do for St. Edwards and the Syosset Area!

Fr. Mike

Humble yourself the more,... and you will find favor with God.

- Sirach 3:18

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The Saint Joseph Prayer Group

Come pray the Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy every Thursday night at 7:30 PM in the church. According to tradition, the Blessed Virgin Mary has related to us 15 promises to those who pray the Rosary devoutly. During our prayers this week we will keep in mind the fifteenth promise, which is:

Devotion for my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

St. Vincent de Paul Clothing Bins

As we have in the past, we ask you again, when donating items to be put in the St. Vincent de Paul clothing bins to please limit it to clothing. SVdP does not accept furniture, toys or any other items, at their bin locations. Additionally, if the bins are full and cannot take additional clothing items, do not leave clothing donations around the bins. We are required to throw out any items not placed in the bin. This becomes a big safety and health concern for our children and all of our parishioners. Your co-operation with this request is greatly appreciated.

Bereavement Support Group

For those who have lost a loved one, either recently or during the pandemic, the St. Edward's Bereavement Ministry will be forming the next Support Group. Pandemic Fundraiser

My Dear Parish Family,

If you recall, for the past two years we have successfully held our Virtual Fundraisers, as we have not been able to have the Parish Bar-B-Q, the Sister Jackie Run or even the Annual Festival. While we are hosting a Casino Night, we will still be significantly behind in our fundraising efforts. These fundraisers go a long way in helping us keep St. Edward's working and providing for all of our ministries.

Last year, your generosity allowed us to realize over $55,000. Who would have guessed? Well, I did, because I know how much we all love St. Edward's, and we all want what is best for our beautiful parish. This year we are trying to top 2021, so we are setting a goal of raising $60,000. I know that may seem like a great deal of money, but I know we can do it.

While this has been a difficult time for all of us, I would like to thank you for your continued generosity and support to St. Edward's. As I am sure you have noticed in the weekly bulletin, our collections remain low, but our expenses have increased and, in some instances, are considerably higher. So, we must seek your help. Believe me, I wish I did not have to ask you at this time, but circumstances require me to do so.

Please know that all the money raised will go to the continued support of the parish in every way, especially for our programs that help so many of our neighbors. Please fill out the participation form below and return it to the rectory or drop it in the collection basket at Mass. Let us pray again that 2023 will allow us to have the real fun and fundraisers safely.

God bless you, stay safe and enjoy the summer.
