From Fr. Mike's Desk

Last week we read about the great miracle of the Loaves and Fish, and we read about a similar miracle carried out by the Prophet Elisha, who fed 100 people with a small amount of food. This week the people who were fed came looking for Jesus so they could eat some more. They, of course, did not recognize the significance of Jesus' action nor that of Elisha's.

We see this theme of great hunger and satisfaction in today's reading from the Book of Exodus. The people on their trek across the desert were extremely hungry and they were grumbling against Moses, Aaron, and God because of their condition. God, for His part, heard their cries and told Moses that He would rain down bread from Heaven. God told Moses that each day the people should go out and gather their daily portion, no more and no less, and on the day before the Sabbath, they should gather enough for two days. God also sent quail upon the camp so they could have their fill. God always responded to His people, even when they complained and forgot all about what He did for them. As Saint Paul tells us, God is always faithful to us because that is who He is.

Jesus shows us this same quality when the people come to Him looking for more food. He did not deny their request, but He also did not give them what they wanted or expected. What Jesus did was try to get them to see the true crux of the miracle. He told them that they should stop working for the food that perishes and that they should be looking for the food that endures. The food, which gives Eternal Life. However, His answer was not enough for them and they, like the people of the Exodus, started challenging Him. They said, "What sign can you do that we may see and believe in you? What can you do?" [After all] "Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, as it is written; 'He gave them bread from heaven.'" Jesus reminded them, that Moses did not give them the bread; it was God the Father. Who even now, was giving them the true bread, which comes down from heaven! They were curious, so they asked Jesus to give them this bread always. In true Divine Fashion, Jesus told them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger and whoever believes in me will never thirst." As we will continue next week, they will not like this answer and many will walk away from Jesus, and they grumbled just like their ancestors.

Now the challenge presented to us is can we get past our grumbling when things do not seem to go the way we would like them. Do we think of the needs of others or only of ourselves? Are we willing to give back to God or do we just take? Keep in mind that Christ is giving His all to us in the Blessed Sacrament, and He does this so we may have life and so we can be one with Him and each other.

Let us pray, Lord Jesus Christ, we worship you living among us in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood. May we offer to our Father in heaven a solemn pledge of undivided love. May we offer to our Brothers and Sisters a life poured out in living service of that Kingdom where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 11, 2024

First Reading - 1 Kings 19:4-8

Psalms - 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Second Reading - Ephesians 4:30-5:2

Gospel - John 6:41-51

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel we will hear the Jews doubt Jesus because He had said "I am the bread that came down from heaven". They doubted because they knew His parents, and some may have watched Him grow up, so how could He have come down from heaven. Jesus tells them (and us), that He is "the living bread that came down from heaven...whoever eats this bread will live forever".

When receiving the Eucharist do you believe that you are truly partaking of the bread of life, or are you just going through the motions?

At St. Edward's Church - Did You Know...?

On March 21st of the Lenten Season in 2023 just before the 9 a.m. daily Mass, several parishioners were witness to an unusual sighting... a faint ray of light began to form from within the left side of the arch behind the altar and extended itself directly to the wound in Christ's side on the cross... see Pic 1 below. It lasted only a few minutes before disappearing and was at first assumed to be a ray of sunlight, yet it did not originate from the windows of the church. It was then thought that possibly the sun had reflected off of something else within the surrounding altar area which then bounced off and redirected itself into the arch. Sound plausible? Possibly. But oddly enough it has never reoccurred since.

Then, just 3 weeks later and still within the Easter Season, a second ray of light formed - - this time originating directly from the heart of the Risen Christ statue, through to His left hand and extending beyond the arch and upwards.... (towards Heaven perhaps?... see Pic 2).

Fortunately, both sightings were captured on parishioners' cell phone cameras and the members of the St. Edward's daily Rosary Group sought to give thanks to God and celebrate them as blessings. Consequently, a donation was taken up and the pictures were then enlarged and framed. On Thursday, July 25, 2024, they were commemorated in the vestibule of St. Edward's Church where Fr. Mike blessed them... see Pic 3. The pictures were then proudly hung in the sacristy where, in the future, all Bishops and visiting clergy will be able to view them. May God continue to bless all of St. Edward's parishioners.
