The Readings for the Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 - Isaiah 50:5-9a

The Lord GOD opens my ear that I may hear;
and I have not rebelled,
have not turned back.
I gave my back to those who beat me,
my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
my face I did not shield
from buffets and spitting.
The Lord GOD is my help,
therefore I am not disgraced;
I have set my face like flint,
knowing that I shall not be put to shame.
He is near who upholds my right;
if anyone wishes to oppose me,
let us appear together.
Who disputes my right?
Let that man confront me.
See, the Lord GOD is my help;
who will prove me wrong?

Resp. Psalm – 116:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9

R. I will walk before the Lord,
in the land of the living.
or: R. Alleluia.

I love the LORD because he has heard
my voice in supplication,
Because he has inclined his ear to me
the day I called.

R. I will walk before the Lord,
in the land of the living.
or: R. Alleluia.

The cords of death encompassed me;
the snares of the netherworld seized upon me;
I fell into distress and sorrow,
And I called upon the name of the LORD,
“O LORD, save my life!”

R. I will walk before the Lord,
in the land of the living.
or: R. Alleluia.

Gracious is the LORD and just;
yes, our God is merciful.
The LORD keeps the little ones;
I was brought low, and he saved me.

R. I will walk before the Lord,
in the land of the living.
or: R. Alleluia.

For he has freed my soul from death,
my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.
I shall walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.

R. I will walk before the Lord,
in the land of the living.
or: R. Alleluia.

James 2:14-18

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well,” but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead. Indeed someone might say, “You have faith and I have works.” Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.

Gospel – Mark 8:27-35

Jesus and his disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea Philippi. Along the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” They said in reply, “John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets.” And he asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter said to him in reply, “You are the Christ.” Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him.

He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.”

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.”

From Fr. Mike's Desk

“What good is it, my brothers, and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one says to them, ‘Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well... what good is it? So, also faith of itself. If it does not have works, it is dead. Indeed, someone might say, ‘You have faith and I have works.’ Demonstrate your faith to me without works. And I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.”

Today's reading from the Letter of Saint James gives us much to think about in the practice of our faith. James calls us back to the true meaning of being a Christian, namely we must do more than just proclaim Jesus on our lips, and we must do more than just go to Church and pray. Certainly, professing Jesus, as our Lord and Savior, is a basic part of our faith, and certainly going to Mass, receiving the Sacraments, and praying every day (in fact several times a day) are a basic part of our faith. However, if that is all we do, then we are not doing all that Christ calls us to do. Look at Matthew Chapter 25, where Jesus speaks about the Last Judgment, and relates how the King will separate the sheep from the goats. Those who will be saved, are the ones who clothed the naked, fed the hungry, visited the sick and helped anyone in need. Those who were condemned are the ones who ignored the needs of those around them, and care only about themselves. They did not lift a finger to help (yet some of them were the very ones who proclaimed their love and faith in Jesus).

Another example of putting our Christian Faith into action is seen in the story of the Prodigal Son, also known as the loving Father. Recall how the father who was deeply hurt by the actions of his younger son, still went out and looked for him every day. How he forgave his son when he returned begging to be considered a servant, since he no longer was worthy to say he was the father's son. As the loving father showed forgiveness Jesus tells us so should we, when we have been hurt by others. Jesus, St. James, St. Paul, and the entire 2021-year tradition of the Church reminds us that our faith must be more than just saying we believe, or just saying our prayers. We should be active in meeting the physical and spiritual needs of others. We do this through the ministries of the Church, but we can also do it through other charities we support, we can volunteer to work at Parish Social Ministries, the St. Vincent De Paul Society, Religious Education, Consolation Ministry, Pre-Cana. There is also the Knights of Columbus, The Catholic Daughters of America, The Columbiettes, Scouts, CYO, the Red Cross, the various Fire Departments, and so many organizations. If we fail to see Jesus in other people and help those in need, as if we were helping Jesus Himself, then we will not see Jesus as He truly is, and we will not be able to answer the question Jesus puts before the Apostles and us in today's Gospel.

Jesus asks the Apostles, who do peoples say that I am? They were free to tell Him, what everybody else thought, however they were not so free when He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” They had no answer, in a sense their faith was weak, until one who had the stronger faith proclaimed, “You are the Christ.” Yes, Peter had the stronger faith, but his faith was incomplete because he would not accept Jesus' word that the Messiah would be betrayed and die of the cross. But in time his faith and theirs would grow, and as we see in the Acts of the Apostles, and other New Testament letters and writings, they would preach the Gospel until death and passed it on to their successors (the Church Fathers and Mothers). They could answer Jesus in saying that not only was He the Christ, but that they could see Him in everyone and in every need, physical and spiritual.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Amen.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel Jesus says "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." The cross of Jesus and the crosses of his members can evangelize us: the sick, who bear illness with courage; the grieving, who hope against hope; the dying, who clearly trust in the resurrection; the suffering of our poor brothers and sisters who are hungry and homeless, but who still trust in God's love.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul...we want to help!
