From Fr. Mike's Desk

"I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard, my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord God is my help... See the Lord God is my help; who will prove me wrong?"

"He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly...Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this, he turned around and looking at his disciples rebuked Peter and said, 'Get back behind me Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.'"

If we put ourselves in Peter's place we might say, well how else am I supposed to think, since I am a human being? Or if we were to speak to Isaiah, we might ask, how can the Suffering Servant believe that God is his constant help? None of this makes sense, for if you are suffering, how is God your help, and if you are the Messiah how can you die on the Cross, this is not supposed to happen to the chosen one! No, none of this makes sense, but to God, it makes perfect sense.

Isaiah's Suffering Servant has always been viewed by the Church as a vision of what the Messiah would have to endure. Of course, this could not properly be understood until the events of the Lord's Passion. Through it all, the Servant knew God was with Him and that what the Father planned for His Christ would free us from sin and death. All that the Father planned would allow us to enter the new life of the Resurrection. Bear in mind that these events are not restricted to 2,024 years ago, they are made present each time we celebrate the Eucharist, each time we baptize someone, and hopefully, each day of our lives as we offer ourselves to God. As Jesus says, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross and follow me." This is what we must strive to do always. We must endeavor to die to sin in the areas of our lives that keep us from freely being with Jesus in this life and the next.

In the film The Ten Commandments, the character Sephora, Moses' wife, played by Yvonne De Carlo, tries to comfort Moses in his misery over the slavery of his people in Egypt, by telling him that God must have a reason for allowing the slavery to continue. She tells him, who can know the mind of God? What she was saying is, can we judge God, because neither Moses, Sephora, Joshua, Ramses II, or even Nefertiti could know what God had in mind just before the Exodus. We on the other hand, know a little more of what God has in mind, for God gave us a share in the Divine Plan. That share in none other than Our Lord Jesus Christ. The Gospel and the power and grace of the Holy Spirit remind us daily of the great revelation of God to humanity, which is Jesus. We know that God is always with us, we know what He has called His Church to do, and we know that we, like the Suffering Servant, must take up our Cross every day. We know as stated above, that we are to die to sin and strive to rise to new life always.

This weekend we celebrate Catechetical Sunday, and during this week, we honor all those in our parish who share their faith with our young people through our Religious Education Program and our Youth Ministry Council. We also honor those in our OCIA Program, those who share their faith with adults who are preparing to enter the Church, or receive sacraments they could not do as younger people. Please keep these wonderful people and their students in your prayers.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 22, 2024

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Mark's Gospel we learn how Jesus told His disciples that the Son of Man was to be handed over to men who would kill Him, and that in three days the Son of Man would rise. The disciples did not understand and were afraid to question Jesus.

As a Catholic you are called to be a disciple. When you fail to understand the truth of what Jesus has said, are you also afraid to question?

Proposal 1: A Wolf in Sheep's Clothing

A statement of the Catholic Bishops of New York State

On November 5, faithful citizens throughout the nation will have the opportunity once again to exercise their sacred right to vote. Pope Francis has reminded us that as thoughtful Catholics, we must participate in the public square for the sake of the common good. Every Catholic is called to do the work of properly informing his or her conscience and voting for candidates and policies that will best advance the natural law, the protection of human rights, the dignity of the human person, the sacredness of all life, and the teachings of Christ and His Church. It is a presidential election year, and there are important votes to be cast for Congress and the state Legislature as well. Importantly, in New York, like several other states, there is also a critical referendum on the ballot.

Educating oneself will be especially important in the case of Proposal 1, sometimes referred to as the "Equal Rights Amendment." The title suggests a noble cause, as all children of God should be treated equally under the law. However, this proposed amendment to the state Constitution is broadly written and could have dangerous consequences if enacted, which is why we oppose it and urge you to vote no. The measure would, effectively, permanently legalize abortion without restriction and up until the moment of birth in New York. Aside from being redundant in a state that already has stripped away all abortion limitations, the amendment would render impossible any change to the law if the hearts and minds of New Yorkers were ever to shift toward protecting the child in the womb.

The amendment's sweeping language and inclusion of "age" as a protected class could also lead to parents' rights being stripped away. Courts could decide that parents have no authority over their minor children on important matters and permit children to make destructive and permanent decisions on their own which they could well live to regret, including but not limited to so-called "gender affirming" treatments and surgeries. The relationship between parents and their children is sacred. Parents must be able to support and guide their children in accord with the natural law, without interference from the government or courts, which would be reaching beyond their competency.

Proposal 1 is a wolf in sheep's clothing that could lead to darkness for many New York families. This amendment disregards the lives of unborn and struggling children in the name of political agendas. It could have dangerous consequences for these children and their parents. As they look to make their voices heard in the public square, faithful Catholics should consider these consequences and vote no. Likewise, they should thoughtfully vote their informed conscience up and down the ballot so that we might usher in change for good.

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

This weekend, we join with the global Church to celebrate Catechetical Sunday. It is a day set aside to acknowledge and to give thanks for the faithful and generous service of our Catechists. These dedicated men and women volunteer to come every week during the school year to teach the Faith to our young people. St. Edward's Church in Syosset will continue to flourish for years to come because of their steadfast commitment to catechizing our youth. As a small token of our appreciation for their teaching ministry here at Saint Edward's, there will be a special blessing at all the Masses this weekend for these teachers of the Faith .
