The Readings for the Third Sunday of Advent

Reading 1 - Zephaniah 3:14-18a

Shout for joy, O daughter Zion!
Sing joyfully, O Israel!
Be glad and exult with all your heart,
O daughter Jerusalem!
The LORD has removed the judgment against you
he has turned away your enemies;
the King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst,
you have no further misfortune to fear.
On that day, it shall be said to Jerusalem:
Fear not, O Zion, be not discouraged!
The LORD, your God, is in your midst,
a mighty savior;
he will rejoice over you with gladness,
and renew you in his love,
he will sing joyfully because of you,
as one sings at festivals.

Responsorial Psalm – Isaiah 12:2-3, 4, 5-6

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

God indeed is my savior;
I am confident and unafraid.
My strength and my courage is the LORD,
and he has been my savior.
With joy you will draw water
at the fountain of salvation.

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Give thanks to the LORD, acclaim his name;
among the nations make known his deeds,
proclaim how exalted is his name.

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Sing praise to the LORD for his glorious achievement;
let this be known throughout all the earth.
Shout with exultation, O city of Zion,
for great in your midst
is the Holy One of Israel!

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Reading 2 - Philippians 4:4-7

Brothers and sisters:
Rejoice in the Lord always.
I shall say it again: rejoice!
Your kindness should be known to all.
The Lord is near.
Have no anxiety at all, but in everything,
by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
make your requests known to God.
Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Gospel – Luke 3:10-18

The crowds asked John the Baptist, "What should we do?" He said to them in reply, "Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do likewise." Even tax collectors came to be baptized and they said to him, "Teacher, what should we do?" He answered them, "Stop collecting more than what is prescribed." Soldiers also asked him, "And what is it that we should do?" He told them, "Do not practice extortion, do not falsely accuse anyone, and be satisfied with your wages."

Now the people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fan is in his hand to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire." Exhorting them in many other ways, he preached good news to the people.

Next Week's Readings

Fourth Sunday of Advent

December 19, 2021

First Reading - Micah 5:1-4a

Psalms 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19

Second Reading - Hebrews 10:5-10

Gospel - Luke 1:39-45

From Fr. Mike's Desk

The crowd kept coming to John the Baptist and people asked him what should we do? How shall we live happy in this life? John seemed to have all the answers to their questions. He told the tax collectors, the soldiers, and others what they should do and what they should avoid. Note that his answers totally agreed with the teachings found in Hebrew Scriptures and go along with what Jesus would say later. John gave them all good advice, and if they followed it, they would have a clear conscience. Everyone was amazed at John, except the leaders who were extremely jealous of the popularity he enjoyed. It was no surprise that the people all thought that he might be the Messiah. But John did not give them the answer they expected. He did have an answer, and while it was not what they wanted to hear, he did not totally dash their hopes. For while he told them he was not the one long expected, he did tell them that the Messiah was already in the world and that He would have the authority and the power to cast out sin, and He would baptize not with water, but with fire and the Holy Spirit. Therefore, do not be upset, but rejoice!

As John told the people 2022 years ago, so he is telling us, rejoice for the Messiah is on His way. This call to rejoice is the theme of this Third Sunday of Advent. We are now preparing to welcome our Lord when He returns, and when we celebrate His birth at Christmas. Rejoice for in 13 days we will celebrate the great mystery of the Incarnation, when God truly became one of us in the person of Jesus. This is indeed what St. Paul tells us in today's Letter to the Philippians. In fact, it is the text of this letter which give us the name of this third Sunday: "Gaudete", Rejoice! It is worth repeating the text in this space. "Brothers and sisters: Rejoice in the Lord always. I shall say it again: rejoice! Your kindness should be known to all. The Lord is near! Have no anxiety at all, but in thanksgiving make your request known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus."

Please remember that we will be celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Tuesday December 21st from 2-3 pm and 7:30-9PM. The Mass times for Christmas Eve Friday the 24th are: 4PM in the Church and in the Gym, 6PM, 8PM and 12AM, all in the Church. The Masses for Christmas Day Saturday the 25th are: 7:30 AM, 9:30 AM, 11:30 AM and 1 PM. All Masses for Christmas Day are in the Church. Also please note that there are no evening Masses on Christmas Night!

We close with the following prayer:

Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ, ever faithful to Your promises and ever close to Your Church: the earth rejoices in hope of the Savior's coming and looks forward with longing for His return at the end of time. Prepare our hearts and remove the sadness that hinders us from feeling the joy and hope which His presence will bestow, for He is Lord forever and ever Amen.

Happy Third Week of Advent

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The Christmas Season

That part of the year that brings to mind wonderful memories and a longing to be with family and friends.

It's a great opportunity to come home!

It's been a long and difficult time since all of us have been together to celebrate the birth of Jesus.

Let this year be the chance to change that. Please ask you family, friends and neighbors to Come home to St. Edward's for Christmas.

We've missed you all!

THE DIocese of ROCKVILLE CENTRE
NEW YORK STATE

Christmas 2021

To the People of God of the Diocese of Rockville Centre:

On December 1, 2019, Our Holy Father Pope Francis issued Admirabile Signum, an Apostolic Letter On the Meaning and Importance of the Nativity Scene. It is a beautiful reflection that I draw on every Christmas season and one which I urge you to read and pray.¹

In it, the Holy Father reminds us that the simple act of arranging our Nativity set links us to the past, opens questions for the present, and orients the future. It is an act that has an existential impact.

Pope Francis says: "Setting up the Christmas creche in our homes helps us to relive the history of what took place in Bethlehem. Naturally, the Gospels remain our source for understanding and reflecting on the event. At the same time, its portrayal in the creche helps us to imagine the scene. It touches our hearts and makes us enter into salvation history as contemporaries of an event that is living and real in a broad gamut of historical and cultural contexts."

The beautiful scene of parents and grandparents setting up creches together with children and grandchildren is a powerful multi-dimensional experience of catechesis – the teaching and passing-on of our Catholic faith and our belief in the Incarnation of Jesus Christ to the next generation.

Parents and grandparents have that wisdom of teaching children and grandchildren how to assemble and situate the creche, but at the same time, they also have the catechetical and relational sensitivity to let children and grandchildren make choices about where the shepherds, the sheep, the three kings are to be placed.

Children are encouraged to place the Holy Family – Mary, Joseph and the Prince of Peace – with their own hands into the center of the creche. How often children then enjoy, sometimes on their own and sometimes with brothers and sisters and family members, moving and interacting with the figurines. How often their biblical imaginations and souls are set on fire with God's love as they play with their family Nativity sets.

The Holy Father continues: "I would like now to reflect on the various elements of the nativity scene in order to appreciate their deeper meaning. First, there is the background of a starry sky wrapped in the darkness and silence of night. We represent this not only out of fidelity to the Gospel accounts, but also for its symbolic value. We can think of all those times in our lives when we have experienced the darkness of night. Yet even then, God does not abandon us, but is there to answer our crucial questions about the meaning of life. Who am I? Where do I come from? Why was I born at this time in history? Why do I love? Why do I suffer? Why will I die? It was to answer these questions that God became man. His closeness brings light where there is darkness and shows the way to those dwelling in the shadow of suffering (cf. Luke 1:79)."

We can drift through life dodging and repressing these critical existential questions of life. We can live blindly and superficially.

Our Catholic belief in the unity of the Nativity and the Crucifixion, the Creche and the Cross, Bethlehem and Golgotha keeps our lives centered and focused on the things that really count in our short time on earth – the Last Things (Death, Judgment, Heaven and Hell) and a belief in the Eternal Joy of Heaven, our true home.

The Holy Father continues to press the existential questions: "The presence of the poor and the lowly in the nativity scene remind us that God became man for the sake of those who feel most in need of his love and who ask him to draw near to them. Jesus, 'gentle and humble in heart' (Matthew 11:29), was born in poverty and led a simple life in order to teach us to recognize what is essential and to act accordingly. The nativity scene clearly teaches that we cannot let ourselves be fooled by wealth and fleeting promises of happiness. We see Herod's palace in the background, closed and deaf to the tidings of joy. By being born in a manger, God himself launches the only true revolution that can give hope and dignity to the disinherited and the outcast: the revolution of love, the revolution of tenderness. From the manger, Jesus proclaims, in a meek yet powerful way, the need for sharing with the poor as the path to a more human and fraternal world in which no one is excluded or marginalized."

May our prayer, silent contemplation and creative family catechesis of the Nativity scene help us to be instruments of a Gospel revolution of humility, charity, mercy, tenderness, and solidarity with the sick, the poor and the suffering.

May our commitment to "holiness and mission" bless our contemplative Synodal listening and our Eucharistic Revival and Evangelization.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you and your families!

Sincerely in Christ,

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

After taking down the flags for the Veterans on the Field of Honor last week, the Knights pictured below placed the Keep Christ in Christmas sign on the front lawn outside the gym. Later the following week, many of these same Knights put up the stable on the front lawn of the church for what will eventually be the Nativity scene. Through their charitable efforts, prayers and hard work around the St. Edward's Parish, these Catholic men seek to make visible their faith, and encourage others to promote the 'Good News', that Christ is present in the St. Edward's parish and the local community.

The Saint Joseph's Prayer Group

The Holy Father had announced that 2021 was The Year of Saint Joseph. St. Joseph was a worker, devoted husband to Mary, a father figure to Jesus, and provides us with a great example of what a man should strive to be. In these uncertain times, let us follow the example of Saint Joseph, sharing in the love of his Blessed Spouse and Divine Son, by praying the Rosary and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. During this Advent Season, if you feel the pull of the Holy Spirit to spend more time in prayer, then gather with the The St. Joseph's Prayer Group, meeting every Thursday night at 7:30 pm in the Church. Prayer pamphlets for how to pray the Rosary and Divine Chaplet will be made available to everyone. These powerful prayers are gifts from Heaven, and we should believe in their great promises. "Those who sincerely say 'Jesus, I trust in You' will find comfort in all their anxieties and fears" Looking forward to seeing you there and God Bless!
