From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today's Gospel reading tells us the familiar story of the vineyard owner and the people he hires to harvest his grapes. In the past I have pointed out the great generosity of the owner, who of course in Jesus' story is God the Father. I have also asked if we can be as generous as God. But the question has been asked as to what causes Jesus to offer this parable in the first place?

We see the reason behind it in Matthew Chapter 19. In this passage, Peter asks Jesus what is the Apostles' reward for following Him. They gave up everything of human value to be His followers, and so what will they receive? Why does Peter ask such a question? Well, in Jesus' time, many who acted as religious or military leaders would promise their followers many things including a share in their victory, only to back out in the end, and take everything for themselves. Certainly, Peter did not want this to happen to them. Therefore, Jesus does not get angry at Peter, rather he offers this story. Jesus in this parable shows them that the Kingdom of God is completely different from any earthly kingdom, especially when it comes to rewards. The rewards are of course, of course, spiritual, including eternal life with God, participating in the Beatific Vision, and so much more.

So, Jesus tells the story of the landowner who goes out looking for workers. He hires a large number at 6AM, and they agree upon receiving the usual daily wage of one denarius. The owner is still in need of workers, so he goes out again at 9AM, 12 Noon, 3PM and then finally at 5PM. He tells each group to go to his vineyard, and he will pay them a just wage. Now comes the part that confuses many people, not just then, but now! When the time comes to pay the workers, the owner starts with the people he hired last, who only worked one hour. This group is given the usual day's wage. So, when the people who worked 12 hours saw this they expected to get even more. But they did not, and they were given the same wage, and they were understandably upset! According to most people, the owner was not being just, giving the same reward for harder and longer hours of work.

Keep in mind, that this vineyard is not just a plot of land, it represents the House of Israel and the entire world. The workers were not laboring for wages but were those who were sent out to harvest the lost sheep and all who hear the voice of the Good Shepherd. So in this regard the landowner, God the Father, is being completely fair and just. The Father, through the Son and by the working of the Holy Spirit, is calling us to work in the field. Some of us have been called from the very beginning of our lives, some in the mid-stream of life, and some have been called at the last moments of their lives. It is probably easier to say we have all responded to the call at different times, and we eventually hear it, even though it has always been there. The lesson to be gained by this, is not to be jealous because God is generous with those who have worked a shorter period. No, we should rejoice because this is God's will. As we are told in John's Gospel, He has come to do the will of the One who sent Him. And this is what the Father wants, that all who have been given to the Son be raised up. But this also depends on our free will. Will we use our free will to accept God and all He gives us, or will we reject Him and the Kingdom?

So yes, Peter, you and the others have given up everything to follow Jesus, but as Jesus told you, you will gain so much more in return. Certainly, after the coming of the Holy Spirit, Peter and the others will never ask questions again. They gained wisdom, knowledge, understanding and grace, the same as we do after receiving Baptism and Confirmation. Let us pray that God's generosity will fall upon us always and on all people. That is the wage we should truly seek!

God Bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Fr. Mike's Letter for Week 26 of the Corona Virus Crisis

The following letter was posted last week, prior to The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time, on the St. Edward's website as well as on Flocknote.

For years we have seen the bumper stickers on cars and most certainly on school buses, and the sticker reads, "Schools Open Drive Carefully." Now during the summer months we do not pay attention to those stickers, but now in September, and for the nine months that follow, we must pay attention to the sticker (not that we should not drive carefully all 12 months of the year). For most of us the first week of school is completed and we only have 39 more to go. If the opening week of school for you was like it was for us here at St. Edward's you would say that it went well, but like every new school year there were some problems to iron out. This of course is true for all human endeavors, but this year our focus seems to be on everything COVID.

As we read articles in the paper or online, or as we watch the news, we see headlines about colleges having to close. We also see a Patchogue-Medford High School student who wants to go to school five days a week and not follow the hybrid model his school laid out, and he has been suspended. Of course, every new year we see some confusion, as to what room am I supposed to report to, or if this is Tuesday I must be learning from home!

What is needed at this time is what has been needed through our COVID Spring and Summer, and that is patience. Without it we will get nothing done, and all things will be problematic. This situation will pass, and so will time, so hopefully we can look back and see how well we have done. Come to think of it, we can do that right now. If we look back at the past few months, we can see how well we did. No, it is not perfect, but we are here to talk about it, and even if we ourselves were sick or knew someone who was sick or even died, we have learned a great deal about ourselves and our faith. Our faith tells us that those who have passed on, are indeed with God in the Kingdom that never ends and are also with us as co-members of the Communion of Saints (keep this in mind when November comes).

Please keep in your prayers our Jewish Brothers and Sisters who will celebrate Rosh Hashanah, starting this coming Friday September 18th at Sundown and will end on Sunday September 20th at nightfall. This holiday marks the beginning of the Jewish New year. Jews from around the world will celebrate the creation of the Earth and it is a time to start a fresh by asking for the forgiveness of sins.

To our Jewish Brothers and Sisters, Happy New Year and God bless you.

Let us keep doing our best and do not allow the news or bad tidings get you down.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Respect Life Group and Knights of Columbus - Prayer Service

America – The Return To God

America has departed from God and His ways. We have forgotten the Biblical rock upon which our country was founded. In many instances, we have removed God from our public squares, our culture, and our lives. After 9/11, people flocked to churches. It looked as if there could have been a spiritual revival and awakening. It never came because there was no repentance, no turning back to God, no changing of course. America fell even farther, spiritually and morally, away from God. Many now call what is good, evil and what is sin, good. America has sacrificed the lives of over sixty million unborn children, and some of our elected officials now seek to do so up to the time of birth.

On September 26th, people of all faiths will gather on the National Mall in Washington DC for The Return, The National & Global Day of Prayer. The Return is a movement, an appointed time, a specific day set apart for one purpose – the return to God by coming before His presence in humility, in sincerity, in prayer and repentance. If you would like to attend or sign up to see the live simulcast in your home, please go to thereturn.org for details. For those who are unable to make the trip to Washington DC, please pray for our nation and our world with your families and friends on this day and from September 18th to September 28th, known from Ancient times as the ten Days of Awe. This is a special time to intensify our prayers. If you are seeking God, then now is the time to come to Him. Return to Him and pray for repentance and revival.

The Scriptures set forth that God is love and abounding in mercy and all who come before Him to seek for His mercy will find it – and that in repentance and return will come forgiveness, salvation, healing, revival, and restoration. It is upon that foundation that this promise is given: "If My people who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their sinful ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land" 2 Chronicles 7:14

Please join the Respect Life Group together with the Knights of Columbus and other Ministries from St. Edward's on September 27th after the 11:30 Mass. We will be gathering outside the church (weather permitting) to pray together for America and our world. Thank you and God bless you!
