From Fr. Mike's Desk

In Cecil B. DeMille's classic epic, "The Ten Commandments" one of the most memorable scenes is the one that depicts today's first reading. Now, by today's standards the scene looks cheap and cartoonish, however, it is not in the depiction of the Burning Bush that captures the imagination. No, it is how Moses appears after he has his encounter with God. As we see in the film, Moses returns to his wife and Joshua with a strange look in his eyes, as if he saw something wonderful. His hair is different and his fear is totally gone. Moses heard the voice of God who told him how he would free his people. As the film and Exodus account continues, Moses leaves for Egypt where he demands of Pharaoh that he release God's people; the rest you know!

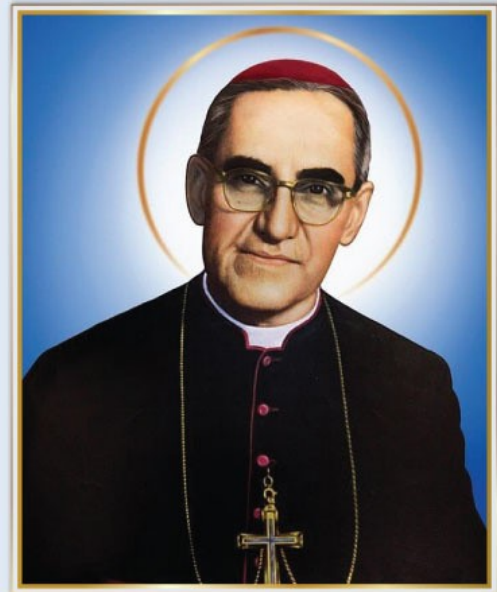

Today is also the feast day of newly canonized Saint Oscar Romero, who was martyred while saying Mass in 1980. When Bishop Romero was appointed the head bishop of El Salvador in 1977, many priests were disappointed. The members of the oppressive government were happy, because they believed Romero to be very conservative. That is why many of the priests of the country, who had taken on the plight of the poor and powerless were disappointed. St. Oscar was not one who accepted Liberation Theology, which many of the priests and people of Latin America had endorsed. The Archbishop did not approve of it because at times it called for the use of violence and other methods of resistance contrary to the Gospel. Instead, Romero sided with the teaching of St. Pope Paul VI who was deeply concerned with the poor, but not to use methods which go against the Gospel. In fact, Romero did not pressure the government to stop the violence, but went against it with prayer. However, on March 12, 1977 a close friend of Romero, Fr. Rutilio Grande Garcia, SJ, who was setting up self-reliance groups among the people, was assassinated. His death had a powerful effect on Romero who then believed he had to do more and follow his friend's example. He began to defend the poor and powerless and preached out against the violence happening on both sides, but he spoke out the loudest against the government and the death squads. He made regular radio speeches and at times, his speeches were the only true reports of what was happening in the country. Like Moses, his eyes were open, his life was transformed, and he realized that he too had to do God's will and follow Christ and the Church's option for the poor. He moved to stop the fighting and change the society and it cost him his life. However, the Gospel presented him with its light and truth and he was more fully converted. He became more and more like Christ.

There is no turning back once we have heard the voice of God and have seen Christ in our brothers and sisters in need. This is what Jesus is getting at with the Parable of the Fig Tree at the end of today's Gospel. The gardener tells the landowner to be patient and hold off one more season, and he will treat the tree with loving care. If the tree does not produce fruit after that, he will remove it. We are the fig tree and Christ is the gardener. He has called each of us to bear good fruit, to stay totally connected to the Gospel and live it out in our everyday life. He keeps feeding us with the Good News and with His Body and Blood, but if we do not respond we will have to face the consequences. However, while we are still here on this side of God's Kingdom there is always time to repent and amend our lives. Today we are given the same call that Our Lord gave the people who were listening to Him that day, repent, turn your life around, but it must be more than a desire, it must come over us like Moses and Romero. We too must have an encounter with Christ, the Father and the Spirit. This is what this Season of Lent is all about; this is why we go through these 40 days every year. Lent reminds us of our strengths in faith and it show us our weaknesses that we need God's help in overcoming.

Happy Third Week of Lent

THE POPE THIS WEEK

At the General Audience this past Wednesday, Pope Francis said: “God is not ambiguous, He is not hidden behind riddles, He has not planned the future of the world in an indecipherable manner.” In his catechesis on the third petition of the “Our Father”, Pope Francis said that we can see the will of the Father expressed in the words of Jesus: God wills “to seek and to save that which was lost”. This, the Pope said, “without any shadow of doubt, is the will of God: the salvation of all human beings”, of each one of us individually.

Because of His love for us, God “knocks on the door of our heart” in order “to draw us to Himself, to lead us forward along the path of salvation”. God, the Pope said, “is close to each one of us with His love, in order to lead us by the hand to salvation”.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel Jesus is quite clear in his message: "bear fruit or be cut down." This Lent we are called to cultivate and fertilize our spiritual lives through prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Through your almsgiving you are performing a good work; far greater than you think. Know that your nickel, dime or quarter is multiplied by the coins place by others in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box.

If you know of someone who may need assistance with snow removal, please call the St. Vincent de Paul number and let us know so we can set up a visit and start the process to assist them.

APARTMENT NEEDED: One of our clients is looking for a studio apartment to rent. She can afford to pay $1,100 – $1,200. If you can help us, help this client, please call our office at; (516) 218-7837. Thank you!

If you know of someone who might benefit from a home visit, please call (516) 218-7837. If you would like to volunteer, please join us at our next meeting on Monday, April 8, 2019 at 7:00 pm in the meeting room on the third floor of the school.

Valent Family

Special Thanks to:

Allison Morris and Christina Tymann for keeping track of the numbers as they were called ~ Sara Vasile for her fantastic Irish Soda Bread ~ Fr. Mike Deacon Tom, Glenn Tyranski and John Favilla for calling numbers, telling jokes and making announcements ~ Mr. Albrecht for coming over to open the event even though he had to be elsewhere ~ Mr. R for great music ~ Patricio and John for setting up ~ Miguel DeLeon for his endless list of technical and mechanical assistance ~ St. Edward School families for helping with the parish mailing, selling tickets, setting up, bartending, making the evening run smoothly and cleaning up ~ Anthony and Kiara for helping all evening and until the gym was completely clean.

Last, but certainly not least, we thank the St. Edward Parishioners and School Families for your overwhelming support.

We hope you enjoyed it as much as we did and look forward to seeing you – and your friends - next year!
