From Fr. Mike's Desk

Last weekend God said through the Prophet Isaiah that His ways were not our ways. The point was illustrated in the Gospel Reading where those who worked only an hour in the vineyard were paid the same as those who worked all day. We saw that those who worked all day were upset because those who only worked an hour received the same wage. The owner of the vineyard was God the Father, and the vineyard was the work done on this side of the Kingdom. The goal of the story was to remember that no matter how long one labors (whether it be all day or one hour: our whole life or just a portion), all who do labor will be welcomed into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Today, this same theme - that God's ways are not our ways - is seen through the Prophet Ezekiel. God tells us that if a person led a life of sin and turns away from that life, he will preserve his life for the life to come. Yet, if a person led a virtuous life and suddenly turned away from virtue, he would then be cut off from eternal life. God then tells us that His ways are extremely fair (to those who would protest) because the person who sinned and changed decided to do the Father's will and amend his life. While the person who turned away from God decided to do his own will, and no matter what he did before, God will judge him for his total denial. This is illustrated in today's Gospel when we are told the story of the two sons. While the first son initially said no, he thought about his father, his love for him, and his duty, and knew that he had to do the right thing and meet his father's request. The second son does the complete opposite. He gives a false yes and then does whatever he pleases with no regard for his father. Again, this story, like last week's Gospel, tells us of our relationship with God. When we compare it to Ezekiel's prophecy, we see that the first son fits the person who amends his life and gains eternal life. On another level, Jesus uses this story to tell the religious leaders they are like the second son. They said yes to God but never did what God wants them to do. However, the tax collectors, sinners, and so many others who at first said no to God were now saying yes to God, doing His will because of Jesus.

Now how about us? Do we say yes to God, but refuse to do what he wants us to do, or do we say no, but still go out and do His will? Now, in this case, the one who says no and then does God's will is the hero. However, of course the greater course of action to follow is to say yes to God always and to seek to do His will. Yet, there are sometimes we cannot do this, or we know people who cannot do this. Do not lose hope! For if we did say no to God and then do His will, salvation is ours. Why? Because God's ways are not our ways, and His sense of justice and fairness is certainly different from ours. What God looks at in the end, as Jesus tells us, is that God's will be done, and when God's will is done, we all benefit.

God bless you for always!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 4, 2026

First Reading - Isaiah 5:1-7
Psalm 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20
Second Reading - Philippians 4:6-9
Gospel - Matthew 21:33-43

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Matthew's Gospel Jesus tells the chief priests and the elders of the people a parable, whereby a landowner planted a vineyard, built a wine press, and put a hedge around it, then leased it all to tenants. When the vines had ripened, the landowner sent his servants, then finally his son to collect the produce of the vineyard. The tenants killed the servants, and then finally killed the landowner's son, so they could keep all for themselves.

God has provided each of you with a vineyard, to tend and cultivate. When He returns, will you return what is rightfully His?

ST. EDWARD THE CONFESSOR CHURCH

A Thank You to Those Who Supported the San Genarro Feast

It is with much appreciation that The St. Edward's Women's Guild extends a big Thank You for all the support that was given to us in celebrating the San Gennaro Feast. Because of your generosity we were able to achieve a profit of $4,500. This goes a long way in helping us to live up to our charitable commitments throughout the year. We also want to extend a special thank you to all those who helped us set up and clean up. We would not have been so successful if it were not for all the help we received. Aside from the members that worked so hard with the decorations and serving, a special thank you is extended to: David Ondicin, Ethan Roche, Paul DeTomaso, Deacon Jim Murphy, Neil Simmons, his grandson D.J., Ralph Catapano, Charlie Murphy, Ed Peters, Donna O'Shaughnessy and Peter (I am so sorry I never got his last name). Thank you all for your hard work, sacrifice and support!

(GENESIS 1:31)

The first meeting of the Men's Faith Community was held this past Monday in the Holy Family Room, and got off to a great start! Twenty Eight (28) men were in attendance, from both St. Edwards and Holy Name of Jesus parishes. Deacon Jim led the introductory meeting, and provided an outline of what topics the Community would be discussing at future meetings. The next meeting of the Community will be held on:

Monday, October 5th at 7:00 pm in the Holy Family Room.

The Community's objective is to foster a Christ centered brotherhood using a flexible framework of prayer, formation, and fraternity. All men of both parishes are welcome to attend. Tell a friend!

Don't Forget Your Baby Bottle!

On the weekend of October 3rd & 4th, St. Edward's Parish will be hosting a Baby Bottle Fundraiser to benefit the Life Center of Long Island.

The Life Center is a pregnancy care center that consults with women and men who are experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Did you know that they provide?

- ✓ Free pregnancy test kits
- ✓ Free sonogram
- ✓ Maternity housing with eligibility requirements referrals
- ✓ Medical care referrals
- ✓ Material aid including car seats, cribs, clothing, diapers, and many other needed baby items
- ✓ Male advocates available to speak with fathers

We are asking that you pick up a baby bottle and fill it with your donation.
(Please make checks payable to the Life Center of L.I.)

PLEASE RETURN THE BOTTLES ON November 28th & 29th

Most importantly, we are asking you to recite the prayer attached to the baby bottle. Prayers bring about something very powerful at the Life Center... a change of a mother's heart! We believe these prayers lead abortion-minded women to reach out to the Life Center in the beginning of their pregnancy.

Prayers also spiritually equip our consultants at the Life Center to say just the right words a mother or father may need to hear with hope of choosing the gift of life for their baby.

Let us pray for the conversion of a mother's heart to give the gift of life to her preborn baby!
