From Fr. Mike's Desk

After his election in October of 1958, Pope John XXIII (now Pope Saint John XXIII) wanted to visit the inmates at Rome's Regina Caeli Prison. This desire of the new pope did not come to fulfillment until December of that year, when he made a Christmas visit. When the Pope arrived at the prison, he told the prisoners that he came as "Joseph your brother." He came to them, since they could not come to him. He also told them not to give up hope and know that they could change their lives after they served their terms. He told them this as he shared with them that he had relatives who had served time, and they came out with no lasting harm. Saint John told the gathered group that he wanted to see the world through their eyes. He truly won over their hearts; in fact, one person came to him, a murderer, fell on his knees and asked the Pope, "Holy Father, can there be forgiveness for the likes of me?" The Pope simply stood him up and embraced him as a sign for all to see, and said, yes God can and does forgive even murder. All one needs is a desire to receive and be open to the forgiveness that God offers. All were impressed by this visit, not just because he was the Pope, and he came to see them, but because he took the time to minister to them and to share their existence, if only for a while.

Today, that is what we remember on the part of Jesus, who comes to the Jordan to be baptized by John alongside those who were seeking repentance and to come closer to God. If only those who were on the riverbank that day knew how close they were to the presence of God! Our Lord shared with those their existence, as He too was baptized, even though He was without sin. In short, he did not need baptism because of sin. He chose to do it so that we could freely identify with Him and He could identify with us. This, of course, is the whole mystery of the Incarnation, for God truly has become one of us in the person of Jesus. Saint John XXIII, like his Holy Master, did the same; he shared the prisoners' existence, so that they could feel the love and presence of God through His servant, the successor of St. Peter, who is Christ's Vicar on Earth. Just as Jesus did 2,026 years ago, so He does now for us and with us as He continues to share our lives, and we, through His great gift allows us to share His life. Through this gift, we are freed from sin and darkness. This is what we celebrate on this special Feast Day. Today, we celebrate the Lord's solidarity with us through His baptism by John. Let us recall our entering more closely with Jesus, the Father, and the Holy Spirit as we remember our Baptismal Promises. For each question that follows, say 'I Do' (even if it's only to yourself).

Do you reject Satan? And all of his works? And all of his empty promises?

Do you believe in God the Father almighty, creator of Heaven and Earth? Do you believe in Jesus Christ His only Son, Our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, was crucified, died, and was buried, rose from the dead, and is now seated at the right hand of the Father? Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting?

This is our faith.

This is the faith of the Church.

We are proud to profess it, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Amen.

And for the last time this year, Merry Christmas!

Fr. Mike

Care for Our Common Home

Greater investment needs to be made in research aimed at understanding more fully the functioning of ecosystems and adequately analyzing the different variables associated with any significant modification of the environment. Because all creatures are connected, each must be cherished with love and respect, for all of us as living creatures are dependent on one another. Each area is responsible for the care of this family. This will require undertaking a careful inventory of the species which it hosts, with a view to developing programmes and strategies of protection with particular care for safeguarding species heading towards extinction.

Pope Francis, Encyclical Letter Laudato Si' - Care For Our Common Home (2015) Sec. 42

Parish Holy Hour Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction

We are only here on earth for the blink of an eye. This is not our home. That is why the happiness that God created us for is very different from the momentary pleasures of this world. God created us for lasting happiness in this changing world and eternal joy with Him in Heaven forever. Realizing this changes our priorities. At the same time, we are here for a reason, and God has a mission for you.

Dear Jesus, You are the healer of my soul; take the blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart. Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do your will in all things, Amen.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

After Jesus was baptized, he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and a voice was heard "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." As we give to the poor, we also can hear these same words.

Ushers Needed

Church ushers are the spiritual ambassadors and doorkeepers who create a welcoming, orderly, and safe environment for worship by greeting people, helping with seating, managing offerings, distributing bulletins, and ensuring the service runs smoothly, acting as the first friendly face of the church and serving as a vital part of its hospitality ministry. They serve as a link between the congregation and the clergy, embodying Christ's love and a desire to maintain reverence.

Ushers are always needed, and it is an honor to serve your church. If you want to serve, please contact: Jim Asmus at 516-661-7860 or call the rectory office at 516-921-8030 and leave your name and number.

Why Service Matters in the Catholic Church

Have you ever noticed that Jesus didn't live like a celebrity? He didn't build a palace. He didn't demand attention. He didn't surround Himself with power. Instead, He washed feet. That alone tells us something huge about what it means to follow Him.

“The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve.” (Matthew 20:28)
