From Fr. Mike's Desk

"All powerful God increase our strength of will for doing good, that Christ may find an eager welcome at His Second Coming, and call us to His side in the Kingdom of Heaven. Father in Heaven; our hearts desire the warmth of your love, and our minds are seeking the light of your word. Increase our longing for Christ, so that at the dawn of His coming He may find rejoicing. Amen"

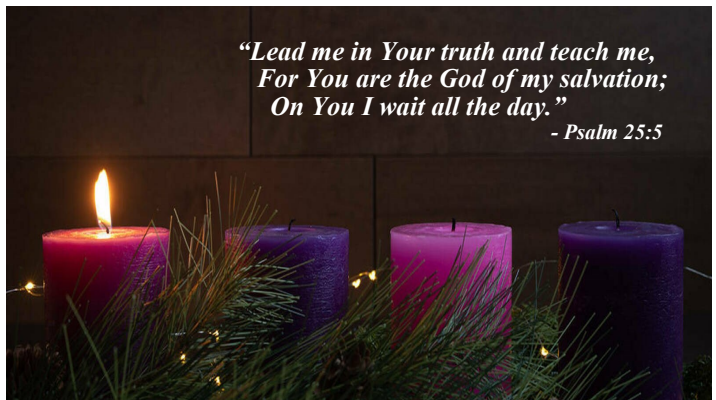

This prayer tells us what our focus should be as we begin our new Liturgical Year. The Church begins its year, a month or so, before the secular new year, so we can prepare ourselves for the great gift of Christmas. However, the Church is not focusing on the celebration of Christ's Birth the way the secular world does. While we all love some of the images, let's face it, who does not love Santa and Rudolph, and do not forget the Christmas Specials, while they are entertaining and full of cheer, they, for the most part, forget Jesus. The Church calls us to a better focus. The Advent Season reminds us that Christ is coming again, and we must be ready. While it seems strange that we begin the season with its ending, we are really reminding ourselves why God sent His only Son to be one of us in the first place.

Our readings, especially the Gospel readings, again tell us to stay awake, because we do not know when Christ will come again, and that would mean that the world has come to its completion. In today's reading, Jesus comments on how people were acting just before the days of Noah. They were living their lives with no regard for God or others. They refused to listen to Noah, and by the time they took notice, it was already too late. Jesus is telling us that we must be attentive to God's voice and live out the Gospel teachings. If we stay awake, allow ourselves to be prepared, and make Christ the total focus of our lives, we are closer; however, there is one more thing. To fully get ready, we must be open to receiving the power and the Grace of God, the Holy Spirit. By doing this, we are not only ready to celebrate His Second coming, but we are also truly preparing ourselves to celebrate the first coming.

When we see the Son of God as an infant, we see His innocence, humility, love, and holiness. Remember, on Christmas, we celebrate the incarnation of God as one of us. As I often say, at Christmas, humanity became better than before.

Happy First Week of Advent!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Second Sunday of Advent

December 7, 2025

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Matthew's Gospel we hear about John the Baptist preaching and saying "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!". The people of Jerusalem and the surrounding region heard the message and came to be baptized by John as they acknowledged their sins.

Care for Our Common Home

We are always capable of going out of ourselves towards the other. Unless we do this, other creatures will not be recognized for their true worth; we are unconcerned about caring for things for the sake of others; we fail to set limits on ourselves in order to avoid the suffering of others or the deterioration of our surroundings. Disinterested concern for others, and the rejection of every form of self-centeredness and self-absorption, are essential if we truly wish to care for our brothers and sisters and for the natural environment. These attitudes also attune us to the moral imperative of assessing the impact of our every action and personal decision on the world around us. If we can overcome individualism, we will truly be able to develop a different lifestyle and bring about significant changes in society.

Care For Our Common Home (2015) Sec. 208

Parish Holy Hour Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction

Padre Pio: "Every Holy Mass, heard with devotion, produces in our soul marvelous effects, abundance spiritual and material graces which we cannot fathom. It is easier for the earth to exist without the sun than without the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass" [33 Days to Eucharistic Glory, p.76]

Dear Jesus, You are the healer of my soul; take the blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart. Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do your will in all things, Amen.

Did You Know...

This week there are three things you should know as to what is going on in St. Edwards:

First, the results of last week's Rosary sale amounted to nearly $500 in proceeds which we have donated to St. Edward's Church. Our thanks to all that contributed. Our next Rosary sale will probably take place sometime in the early spring of 2026.

Secondly, after great response from many parishioners regarding the Medjugorje presentation that was held on October 29th, it has been decided that we will offer a second presentation of the same information and more in mid-February. Additional, it is most likely that a new group will be able to go to Medjugorje sometime in April of 2026. More information will follow in our upcoming Church bulletins.

Lastly, we would like to invite you to a presentation of the true Christmas Story which will be given by Monsignor on Monday, December 14th at 7:00pm in the Church. This will be primarily given for all of our youth to get a better understanding of the true story of Christmas but all are invited!

What is Advent

The season of Advent is a time of expectation. When we prepare our home and our hearts to celebrate the birth of Jesus on Christmas Day. The word Advent is derived from the Latin word adventus, which means "coming". Advent is a season of hope, a time to nurture peace and experience joy in anticipation for the love that is made incarnate with the birth of Jesus.

Keep this purpose ever in mind as you make your plans to prepare for Christmas. Everything will make sense or become senseless in relation to this purpose. If baking cookies helps you achieve this purpose, bake away. Sitting quietly on a park bench, taking long walks in quiet places, visiting your church each day, reading, singing, serving others...whatever it is that helps you achieve the purpose of Advent, give yourself to those activities. Wake up each day with this purpose in your heart and on your mind. Purpose has a way of transforming the way we live our lives. Allow the purpose of Advent to transform you.
