From Fr. Mike's Desk

Our first reading recounts some of the hardships that the Prophet Jeremiah had to undergo. Jeremiah did not choose to be a prophet, but God called him to the task. At the time of his calling, Jeremiah tried to convince God that he was not the right person. I am sure you can guess how well that went for him. Today, we read that Jeremiah is complaining to God about how the people hate him and are plotting against him. To make it worse, some of those doing so were his friends. He is beside himself and does not know what he should do or how he will get out of this situation.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the Apostles that if they wish to be His disciples, they should expect to face hardships. They can even expect harm to come to them! We could ask what kind of future that is. Yet, Jesus is quite serious, and He tells His disciples that they should not fear. He tells them, "...do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of those who can destroy both the soul and body in Gehenna." Do not be afraid, because God is with you to help you get through anything. Do not be afraid, because life is more than what we experience here, and this is not our total life. Jesus continues by telling them (and us) that whoever acknowledges Him before others, He will acknowledge before God the Father. What Jesus is telling us is that true service to God always involves a sacrifice. It means always putting God first and us second. It means that we may not always be popular, and some people may even plot against us, as they did to Jeremiah.

However, Jeremiah, after his lament, does not back off from his assigned task, and he does not give in to despair. He responds with, "But the Lord is with me, like a mighty champion: my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph. In their failure, they will be put to utter shame...for to you [God] I have entrusted my case...Sing to the Lord, praise the Lord, for he has rescued the life of the poor..." This is also what Jesus is telling us when He says not to fear anyone, except the one who can destroy the soul. That person can be anyone who would take us away from our faith and love of God, even ourselves, if we give in to despair. It is not easy to be one of Christ's disciples, but the gifts and consolations we receive in this life and the next are far greater than anything our opponents (including Satan) can throw at us.

Congratulations to the members of St. Edward's family who have graduated this year from Kindergarten, Elementary School, High School, College, and beyond. May God be with you as you move forward to your next stage of life, and may that life find you truly serving God.

May God bless you always and thank you for all you do for our wonderful parish!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Matthew's Gospel we hear Jesus say to His apostles "whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me". Jesus is saying that true discipleship means putting God above your own desires, comfort, and even your own life.

If you examine your life, would you find that you are a faithful and devoted follower of Jesus, or are you just tagging along?

“Have mercy on me, God, in accord with your merciful love...”

Themes of Catholic Social Teaching

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has summarized the core themes as:

- Life and Dignity of the Human Person
- Call to Family, Community, and Participation
- Rights and Responsibilities
- Option for the Poor and Vulnerable
- Dignity of Work and Rights of Workers
- Solidarity
- Care for God's Creation

These principles are rooted in Scripture, and were developed significantly in response to the industrial revolution and the 'social questions' of the 19th and 20th centuries. Choose one and reflect upon it this week.

Care for Our Common Home

It is in the Eucharist that all that has been created finds its greatest exaltation. Grace, which tends to manifest itself tangibly, found unsurpassable expression when God himself became man and gave himself as food for his creatures. The Lord, in the culmination of the mystery of the Incarnation, chose to reach our intimate depths through a fragment of matter. He comes not from above, but from within, he comes that we might find him in this world of ours. In the Eucharist, fullness is already achieved; it is the living center of the universe, the overflowing core of love and of inexhaustible life. The Eucharist joins heaven and earth; it embraces and penetrates all creation. Thus, the Eucharist is also a source of light and motivation for our concerns for the environment, directing us to be stewards of all creation.

- Pope Francis, Encyclical Letter - Laudato Si' - Care For Our Common Home (2015) Sec. 236
