From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today's Gospel reading is familiar to most of us. It is the reading for the third Sunday of Lent in the Cycle A readings that we are in this year. We also do these readings on this Sunday when we have people preparing to celebrate Baptism at Easter. The theme of water giving new life in the Gospel and in the reading from Exodus is why we use these readings for those getting ready for Baptism, as we have several people this year, from both parishes, working together.

The Gospel tells us that Jesus is passing through Samaria to get to Judea and Galilee as a shortcut. Normally, Jews would avoid Samaria because the Jews and Samaritans did not get along. In fact, they hated each other, and the Jews looked down on them because they were of mixed heritage and did not practice the faith in the proper way. However, Jesus knows time is fleeting, so He takes the shortcut, and when they arrive at the village, Jesus sends the Apostles out to get food and supplies. Now comes the part we are familiar with: the woman comes to the well at noon, which was not the usual time for people to visit it. She goes at that time because she will be alone, but there is this strange man at the well that day! Who is he, why is he here, and finally, why is he speaking to me, the woman wonders! After Jesus asks her for water, she protests. He then tells her that she should be asking Him for water, the water of eternal life, The Holy Spirit. He tells her about her past and present, and she now believes Him to be a prophet. At one point, she asks Jesus if He was greater than Jacob, who founded the well centuries ago. What she does not know is that He is! As we continue with the account, Jesus will reveal to this foreigner that He is the Messiah.

Why does Our Lord tell her? He tells her because she is seeking the truth, and she wants to change her life. Jesus tells her because she and those like her are the food Jesus tells the Apostles about when they return. Of course, it is not physical food to eat. No, His food is souls who are seeking new life and a new relationship with God. As Jesus tells us later in John's Gospel, He is the way, the truth, and the life, and no one can come to the Father except through Him. Jesus has come into the world to call all people, and He has come to show mercy and forgiveness to all. The woman, who was caught up in sin, was now set free. Of course, she had to change. However, after meeting Jesus, how could she not help but change?

We also see God's love and mercy even in the Exodus account, when the people were rebelling against Moses and God, as they complained about having no water. God, out of love, still gives them the life-giving water, no matter how they complained against Him. As we continue our Lenten Journey, we should look at the areas in our lives that need to change, certainly the parts that come between God and ourselves. Like the Woman at the Well, we should change and remember that she did not do it all by herself. She did it with the help of Jesus and God the Holy Spirit. We can do the same; all we have to do is ask.

Happy Third Sunday of Lent!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 15, 2026

First Reading - 1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a

Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

Second Reading - Ephesians 5:8-14

Gospel - John 9:1-41

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel we hear the story of the man born blind. Jesus restored the man's sight, and said to His disciples "I am the light of the world", and that He restored the man's sight so that the "works of God might be made visible".

Following the example of Jesus, we should strive to do good works to bring light into the world and make God's presence known to all. You cannot restore sight to the blind, but what can you do to make God's presence known to those you meet everyday?

“Have mercy on me, God, in accord with your merciful love...”

Care for Our Common Home

A spirituality which forgets God as all-powerful and Creator is not acceptable. That is how we end up worshipping earthly powers, or ourselves usurping the place of God, even to the point of claiming an unlimited right to trample his creation underfoot. The best way to restore men and women to their rightful place, putting an end to their claim to absolute dominion over the earth, is to speak once more of the figure of a Father who creates and who alone owns the world. Otherwise, human beings will always try to impose their own laws and interests on reality.

- Pope Francis, Encyclical Letter Laudato Si' -

"Lent is a fitting time for self-denial; we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty. Let us not forget that real poverty hurts: no self-denial is real without this dimension of penance. I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt."
