From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today is Laetare Sunday, and traditionally, this has been a day of celebration within the Lenten Season. The name comes from the opening antiphon for today's Mass, which in Latin is Laetare Jerusalem. This translates to Rejoice Jerusalem. Today we wear the Rose-Colored vestments (as we do on the Third Sunday of Advent), and it serves as a reminder that our goal is about to be realized; Easter is almost here. Easter, the wonderful day of the Resurrection, when the true light of Christ shines forth. It will shine through every believer and every Baptized person. For through Baptism we become one with Christ and each other, and we become vessels of Christ and the Holy Spirit.

This is what we see in the Gospel account of the Man Born Blind. There is much discussion about what happened on that fateful day at the Temple. The man comes to Jesus' attention, and He insists on curing him. In some accounts, the man does not want Jesus to touch him. In the film Jesus of Nazareth, Peter asks Jesus if He should cure the man. After all, he lived his whole life blind; how will he be able to exist in the world when he can see? How will he earn a living since he does not know how to do anything but beg? However, Jesus does not accept Peter's argument, and He tells Peter (and all of us) that He is the Light of the World, and as long as He is in the world, He will not allow anyone to stay in darkness. In the Gospel, Jesus refers to the work He must do. As He says, "We have to do the work of the one who sent me while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work. While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." After this, Jesus puts mud on the man's eyes and tells him to go to the Pool of Siloam, which means sent. As I just recently learned, the Pool of Siloam is not within the Temple itself, and it is quite a way down the hill on which the Temple was built. For a blind person, this was a long walk. As the name of the pool tells us, the blind man was sent, and when he washed in the pool, he could see. He no longer protested and was completely delighted. He is so happy that he tells everyone he sees, even the religious leaders. They, of course, criticize the cure and the one who accomplished it, because he did it on the Sabbath.

After a big discussion, the Pharisees, the Scribes, and the Temple Officials threw the man out of the Temple. It is after this happens that Jesus sees the man and asks him if he believes in the Son of Man. This Messianic Title goes back to Ezekiel and Daniel. The man asks Jesus, who is he that I might believe in him? In addition, Jesus tells him that He was the Son of Man and the one sent by God. Last week, He told the Samaritan Woman that He was the Messiah, and now he shares with this man, who can now see clearly, who He is. For in his cure, he not only received his physical sight, but he also received spiritual sight, and he was able to see the Light of Christ where the leaders could not. Jesus states toward the end of the Gospel, "I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see might see and those who do see might become blind." Some of the Pharisees replied, "Surely we are not blind..." Jesus said to them "If you were blind, you would have no sin, but now you are saying 'We see' so your sin remains." What is their sin? They sinned because they refused to see the Light of Christ, and by not understanding that His work was the work of God the Father. They were so caught up in their ideas of what was right and proper, they could not see God at work. The man, who was cured, saw Jesus as the one God sent; unfortunately, they could not! I am sure that there were many things standing in their way, and some of them were not easy to change in their understanding. Jesus would have cured them of their blindness if they had only let Him. Jesus could heal us of our blindness if we would only allow Him. He does this for us so that we realize that the work He is speaking about is not only His work, but our work too, the work of the Church. It is up to us to lead people to the Light, which is Christ, and we must always have our eyes open to see where the Light is leading us.

Happy Fourth Sunday of Lent!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fifth Sunday of Lent

March 22, 2026

First Reading - Ezekiel 37:12-14

Psalm 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

Second Reading - Romans 8:8-11

Gospel - John 11:1-45

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel we hear the story of Lazarus and his sisters Martha and Mary. Jesus knew them and loved each one. When Lazarus died, Jesus went to the sisters and, seeing their despair, wept along with them. Soon after, Jesus went to the tomb and raised Lazarus so that all who witnessed the event would believe in Jesus and in the glory of God.

By this miracle Jesus has shown us that He is the light of the world, and that God always listens to our prayers.

What are you praying for? Ask and you will receive.

“Have mercy on me, God, in accord with your merciful love...”

Care for Our Common Home

Yet it would also be mistaken to view other living beings as mere objects subjected to arbitrary human domination. When nature is viewed solely as a source of profit and gain, this has serious consequences for society. This vision of "might is right" has engendered immense inequality, injustice and acts of violence against the majority of humanity, since resources end up in the hands of the first comer or the most powerful: the winner takes all. Completely at odds with this model are the ideals of harmony, justice, fraternity and peace as proposed by Jesus. As he said of the powers of his own age: "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them. It shall not be so among you; but whoever would be great among you must be your servant" (Mt 20:25-26).

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA)

At a recent Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (O.C.I.A.) meeting, Deacon Jim Murphy anointed our Catechumens with the oil of the Catechumen. The anointing with the Oil of Catechumens is intended to signify the need for divine strength, so that the one to be baptized, may steadfastly take the step of professing her faith and hold it unflinching throughout her life. This oil is blessed by the Bishop at the Chrism Mass during Holy Week and is kept in the AMBRY – the little cabinet on the wall by the Baptismal font.

Tessa Castellana

Amy Cicio

Dr. Ryan Sugarman

If you encounter them in or around the church, please say hello and welcome them into our faith and parish.

Did You Know.....?

The parishes of St. Edward and Holy Name of Jesus are collaborating on doing something quite special through the Sundays of Lent (i.e. The Scriptural Rosary). This rosary consists of all the joyful, sorrowful, luminous, and Glorious Mysteries with scripture inserted in between each rosary bead. This involves a lengthier rosary than the normal five decades, but rather than being long and tedious, it turns out that it is quite beautiful in that it tells the full story of Christ from the Annunciation of Mary through to Christ's Resurrection and Mary's glorious coronation. Rather than be boring in its longevity, it becomes a page turner where you eagerly look forward to the next line and the next telling the story. The first scriptural Rosary took place on Sunday, March 1st at 3:00 PM at St. Edward and was a resounding success. Attendance was about 40 to 50 people, and all seemed very appreciative of the time spent in saying this beautiful rosary. This goodwill continued the following Sunday, March 8th at Holy Name of Jesus, again at 3:00 PM. There was even a larger attendance than the previous week and everyone seemed to get a great deal of joy from it! Now it's coming back to St. Edward this week, March 15th, again at 3:00 PM. We strongly encourage our congregation to join us for this Scriptural Rosary. These rosaries will continue to alternate between the churches at 3:00 PM in all the remaining Sundays of Lent. If you have never attended before, come and join us and you will be able to see the beauty of its very nature. We look forward to seeing you all!
