Anointing of the Sick

“By the sacred anointing of the sick and the prayer of the priests the whole Church commends those who are ill to the suffering and glorified Lord, that he may raise them up and save them. And indeed she exhorts them to contribute to the good of the People of God by freely uniting themselves to the Passion and death of Christ”.

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today's readings tell us about light, judgment, being sent, and an anointing that can change a person's life. Samuel with the horn of oil in hand anoints David king, and from that day on, the Spirit of the Lord is upon him and the rest is history. After Samuel's anointing, David can no longer be a simple shepherd from Bethlehem. He soon gets involved with King Saul, the war against the Philistines, the slaying of Goliath, and the politics of the day. All of these events will lead him to become Saul's enemy and in a twist of fate his successor. David will indeed become king and he will become a forbearer of the Messiah. The man born blind is anointed by Jesus with the mud paste, and behold he can see and his life would never be the same! Immediately he is caught up in controversy, but filled with the Holy Spirit the man born blind does not give in. In fact, he offers the Jewish leadership a challenge that is worthy of Jesus Himself. Like Jesus, he points out to them their own blindness which prevents them from seeing Jesus as the Messiah.

David becomes the king and the man who gains his sight becomes a disciple and he does his part to spread the Gospel. Neither of them can go back for they have been sent to serve God; each one according to his station and according to his gifts. Christ would not allow the man or any of us to remain in the dark, as He says, "While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." Never forget that Christ is still in the world, and He is present in every baptized person. He who is the light shines through every Christian and we should remember that like David and the man born blind, we, too, have been anointed. We have been anointed and appointed to go out and preach the Gospel and to die to sin every day so we can rise to new life with Jesus.

Notice if you will, that at the start of the Gospel and as hinted above, the man born blind did not want Jesus to cure him. Maybe he did not want a cure because he was blind all of his life and was used to his way of life. It is certain that he did not want this carpenter from Nazareth interfering with his way of life. But also as mentioned above, the man's desire did not stand in Jesus' way of acting on his behalf. Jesus gave this man what he never had, sight, light and new life. I am sure that after he could see, the man was afraid as to what should he was to do now, and how he was supposed to live. Nonetheless, his fear was nothing compared to the fear of the Jewish leadership who could not explain how the man was cured. So they questioned the man and his parents, who were so afraid they begged out of the whole affair. Fear got the best of them and they refused to answer any questions except to say he was indeed born blind. At this point the man lost his fear and he turned the tables on the leaders, who cannot bear to hear what he had to say, so they drove him out of the Temple area. After this happened, Jesus came to him and asked the man, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" The man said, "Who is he sir that I may believe in him?" Jesus said to Him, "You have seen him; the one speaking with you is he." The man said, "I do believe, Lord".

As the man lost his fear because of what Jesus did for him, so can each and every one of us as we realize that Jesus is with us always to help us in this life and to keep us out of darkness.

Happy Fourth Sunday of Lent!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fifth Sunday of Lent

March 26, 2023

First Reading - Ezekiel 37:12-14

Psalms 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

Second Reading - Romans 8:8-11

Gospel - John 11:1-45

Next Week's Gospel Question

Due to illness, Lazarus passes away while Jesus is in another town. When he arrives, Lazarus' sister Martha tells Jesus that she believes "whatever you ask of God, God will give you". Jesus tells her "everyone who lives and believes in me will never die".

Do we live our lives believing that God will give us what we ask for? Do we believe in Jesus, and in doing so, trust that we will never truly die?

Family Stations of the Cross

Stations of the Cross

All are invited to join with us for this family friendly prayer service on Monday, March 20th at 6:30pm in the Church.

Fr. Mike will lead us as we sing and pray the Stations of the Cross. This is a wonderful Lenten prayer opportunity for all. This service will help us come to a better understanding and appreciation of the sacrifice that our Lord, Jesus made for each of us.

So, do something special with your family this lent and come join with us for this “family friendly” Stations of the Cross.

A Parish Family Pasta Supper will follow the Stations of the Cross in the school cafeteria.

Baked Ziti, Macaroni and Broccoli, Penne ala Vodka, Baked Macaroni and Cheese, Buttered Pasta, Italian Bread, beverages, desserts will be served.

This dinner is free of charge. However, there will be a donation buckets at the exits for voluntary donations to help defray the cost.

Confirmation Service Hours

7th & 8th Grade Confirmation Service Hours Opportunity

Help Needed for the above supper. Students in Grades 7th and 8th can receive one service hour by attending the Stations at 6:30pm. Additional service hours can be accumulated by baking, helping with set up/cleanup as well as assisting us in serving the food at the above

The Ancient Christian Tradition of Tenebrae

“Watch and pray,” Jesus tells his apostles in the garden of Gethsemane, “that you may not enter into temptation.” He invites them to pray for courage and strength as they will be confronted with His betrayal, arrest, false condemnation, passion and crucifixion. We, who are baptized into Jesus’ death and resurrection, also hear His call, especially in Holy Week, to watch and pray as we commemorate these most sacred and life-giving days in our own lives and in the history of the world.

The major liturgies of The Lord’s Supper on Holy Thursday, the Good Friday Service and the great Easter Vigil are our principal ways of prayerfully commemorating the events that won our salvation. But our Tradition also offers other ways to watch and pray during these holy days. The Liturgy of the Hours is prayed with great intensity and beauty during Holy Week. Many of you join the Office of Morning Prayer which our parish celebrates on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday mornings.

We plan to introduce this coming Holy Week an evening office on Wednesday. It is an ancient Christian tradition known as Tenebrae. The word is Latin for darkness. The office commemorates the growing darkness enveloping Jesus as he faces the betrayal and arrest that lead to his passion. As the psalms are prayed and the scriptures are read, the candles of the church are extinguished one by one until the church is left in darkness. A loud thunder sound is heard. One lit candle remains, hidden away, as a sign that the darkness cannot completely overcome the Light, that the Cross leads to Resurrection.

Tenebrae is one of the most moving services of Holy Week. It offers a wonderful opportunity to “watch and pray” as we enter into these sacred days. See the Holy Week Schedule for the time.

Friday Evenings, 7:00 to 8:00 PM

AMEN, AMEN, I SAY TO YOU, WHATEVER YOU ASK THE FATHER IN MY NAME HE WILL GIVE YOU. UNTIL NOW YOU HAVE NOT ASKED ANYTHING IN MY NAME; ASK AND YOU WILL RECEIVE, SO THAT YOUR JOY MAY BE COMPLETE. [John 17:23-25]

Each Friday members and friends of St. Edward's join in prayer before Blessed Sacrament, prayer that Pope John Paul II testifies will dramatically transform lives and bring about a new Pentecost. We pray to understand and celebrate what is happening among us as people called to conversion, gathered in faith, and gifted with the spirit of holiness. We celebrate God's taking possession of our hearts at their deepest core, recreating us as a new human community broken like bread for the world's life.

We celebrate a community rich in compassion, steadfast in hope, and fearless in the search for justice and peace.

Jesus' invitation is to "come and pray with me". You are invited to join others in prayer each Friday during Lent.
