The Readings for The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom 1: 13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death,
nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living;
For he fashioned all things that they might have being;
and the creatures of the world are wholesome,
and there is not a destructive drug among them
nor any domain of the netherworld on earth,
for justice is undying.
For God formed man to be imperishable;
the image of his own nature he made him.
But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world,
and they who belong to his company experience it.

Resp. Psalm – 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O LORD, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O LORD, you brought me up from the netherworld;
you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.

For his anger lasts but a moment;
a lifetime, his good will.

At nightfall, weeping enters in,
but with the dawn, rejoicing.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me;
O LORD, be my helper.

You changed my mourning into dancing;
O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Reading 2 – 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters:

As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also.

For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ,
that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor,
so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality.

As it is written:

Whoever had much did not have more,
and whoever had little did not have less

Gospel – Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, “My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live.” He went off with him, and a large

There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, “If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured.” Immediately her flow of blood dried up.
She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.
Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who has touched my clothes?” But his disciples said to Jesus, “You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet
you ask, ‘Who touched me?’” And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction.”

While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official’s house arrived and said, “Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?”
Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid; just have faith.” He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, “Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.” And they ridiculed him.
Then he put them all out. He took along the child’s father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, “Talitha kum,” which means, “Little girl, I say to you, arise!” The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded.
He gave strict orders that no one should know this
and said that she should be given something to eat.

From Fr. Mike's Desk

Today the Book of Wisdom tells us that death does not come from God, and that God does not rejoice in death. According to ancient Jewish Tradition, death and illness came about because of sin and the work of the devil. For if sin did not enter the human family as a result of the sin of Adam and Eve, we would have died in a pleasant way and we would pass from our side of the Kingdom to God's side without pain or fear. As a consequence of sin, death is sometimes painful, usually feared, and many certainly want to avoid it. While today we know that physical death and illness are not a result of people's sins or their relatives' sins. Illness and faith are nonetheless tied together in today's Gospel.

Jarius came to Jesus because his daughter was sick and dying. He asked Jesus to heal her and Jesus without pausing for a minute goes to heal his sick child. On the way there, the woman who was suffering with a hemorrhage comes up to Jesus, touches Him and she is totally cured. We are told that she went to many doctors and they could not find a cure. One might think that she would have given up all hope, but she does not, and she believes that Jesus can heal her. So strong is her faith that she believes that she does not even have to ask for a cure, just touch His cloak. She was right, for she was healed, and the second Jesus realizes it He turns around looking for the person who touched Him. However, when He spots her, as she gave herself up, Jesus does not scold her, but says to the woman that her faith has saved her. Jarius likewise has this faith in Jesus that is why he sought Jesus out.

Death does not come from God, and as we see in the rest of the Gospel account, death is not stronger than God, as Jesus brings the little girl back to life. Many times, when illness attacks, we sometimes give into fear and anger. We may even believe that God has abandoned us or a loved one, (as some may believe during the past year and maybe even now) but this is not true. Through the actions in today's Gospel, faith in Jesus grew on the part of Jarius and his family, the woman with the hemorrhage, the Apostles, and the gathered crowd. They most assuredly would remember that moment when Jesus' healing power was seen and they would share this story with everyone they met, and in turn their faith in Jesus would grow. We should do the same thing for we have it a little better than Jarius and the woman, for we too have Jesus and all He does for us, and we have the Holy Spirit to help us get passed all fear and anger. The Holy Spirit also comforts and heals us in body and soul.

The Holy Spirit comes to us, especially in the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. An important part of this Sacrament is the forgiveness of sins, which is why it can only be celebrated by a bishop or a priest, and this is so we can get passed the fear and anger that sin brings with it. The anointing is done with olive oil which is blessed by the Bishop at the Chrism Mass, and the words used in the anointing are: Through this holy anointing may the Lord in His love and mercy help you and heal you through the power of the Holy Spirit (this is said while the person's forehead is anointed). May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up again (this is said while the person's hands are being anointed). This Sacrament was never intended to be a sacrament reserved only for the end of life, somehow that became the practice during the late Middle Ages, and it stayed that way right up to the Second Vatican Council. The Council Fathers restored the Sacrament to its proper place, and it once more took on the name of the Anointing of the Sick instead of Extreme Unction (meaning last anointing). This Sacrament is to be received by anyone suffering from serious illness, about to undergo surgery, or suffering from the effects of old age. It is not reserved solely for those who are about to die, and one can receive it more than once in a lifetime. In fact, one can receive it more than once during the occurrence of the same illness or condition. This Sacrament is not to be taken lightly and it is not to be used for something minor or short term, and in no way is it to replace the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

From last week, Mark has Jesus sleeping on a cushion in the stern because that is the place of honor and only very important persons rate a cushion.

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Fr. Mike's Letter for Week 66 of the Corona Virus Crisis

The following letter was posted last week, prior to The Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time, on the St. Edward's website as well as on Flocknote.

We are rapidly approaching the last day of school. And I am sure that many a young person is dancing in the streets (at least in their minds). This was one of my favorite days of the year, and one could look forward to a nice long summer vacation. Of course, I knew the summer would bring along with it several projects and work that had to be done at home, but at least there was no homework, test, or pressure from the teachers. However, as I got older, I realized that I would have to make major changes in my life.

The first change was getting a job to help me pay for college, and the second was which college should I attend. I had to decide if I would stay locally or go away! That question was answered quickly, as I realized if I did not go to work, I could not go to college, so I studied locally. I was able to enjoy all the comforts of home, which were not always so comfortable, yet it provided me a place to stay, eat and study.

I know that these types of questions are in the minds of all our graduating Seniors. By now most have decided what they want to do post High School, but as we all know, approaching something new is always uneasy, even if we are looking forward to the change. However, do not be preoccupied with fear or other doubts, because God is always with you to help you in your lifelong decisions. Jesus said many times' "Fear is useless, what is necessary is trust." So, follow Jesus' advice and congratulations on your graduation. This wish also goes out to all our college grads, may God always bless you and guide you as you make your decisions on how you will live out your life and how you will form your future.

To all of you entering High School in September enjoy these next four years, they can be demanding, but they also offer so many different types of opportunities. Learn as much as you can, trust me I wish that I had paid more attention in high school. We have just gone through hopefully, the most difficult time to live in, and we survived. Yes, we have endured many restrictions and we may have also lost loved ones, but we still carry on. If you can get through these times and make the best of them, you can get through anything!

Happy Summer and Congratulations to all our grads. Also, Happy Father's Day to all our fathers and those who serve as Fathers.

Fr. Mike, and all here at Saint Edward's
