From Fr. Mike's Desk

"In the name of The Father and of The Son, and of The Holy Spirit. Amen." Every Roman Catholic, Orthodox Christian, and some other Christians begin their prayers, Liturgical Celebrations, with these words as they make the Sign of the Cross. These words remind us of who it is we are directing our prayers to, namely our dear Lord, who is the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. What does it mean when we refer to God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and why do we refer to God this way? Well, that is easy; that's how God exists (for lack of a better word). Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This is one of the days on the Church's Calendar which focuses on one of the major mysteries of our Faith, and this is one big mystery. On this day, we try to explain and celebrate the Triune Nature of the One True God. Oh, sure, we could get away with the idea that it is a mystery, so that is all we can say, but that is not good enough and not what God expects. God, throughout time, has been revealing Himself and this Triune Nature to us. One such explanation of God existing in the Blessed Trinity is seen in the Creed attributed to Saint Athanasius. St. Athanasius was the Patriarch of Alexandria who lived from 298-373 AD. While this statement of faith and doctrine is attributed to him, many believe he did not write it because it was written in Latin and not in the Greek he would have used. And its contents fit more with the theology of the Western Church and of Church Scholars from a later time than he lived.

As the Creed States, "...And the Catholic Faith is this: That we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity, neither confounding the persons, nor dividing the substance. For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, and another of the Holy Spirit. But the godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit is all one, the glory equal, the majesty co-eternal. Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Spirit. The Father uncreated, the Son uncreated, and the Holy Spirit uncreated. The Father is incomprehensible, the Son incomprehensible, and the Holy Spirit incomprehensible. The Father eternal, the Son eternal, and the Holy Spirit eternal. And yet they are not three eternals, but one eternal. Also, there are not three incomprehensible, nor three uncreated, but one uncreated, and one incomprehensible. So likewise, the Father is almighty, the Son is almighty, and the Holy Spirit is almighty. And yet there are not three almighties, but One Almighty. So, the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God, and yet there are not three gods but only One God. So likewise, the Father is Lord, the Son is Lord, and the Holy Spirit is Lord, and yet not three Lords, but One Lord. For we are compelled by the Christian verity [truth] to acknowledge each Person by Himself to be both God and Lord, so we are also forbidden by the Catholic Religion to say that there are three gods or three lords. The Father is not made, neither created, nor begotten. The Son is of the Father alone, not made, nor created but begotten. The Holy Spirit is of the Father, neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding. So, there is one Father, not three fathers; one Son, not three sons; one Holy Spirit, not three holy spirits. And in the Trinity, none is before or after another; none is greater or less than another, but all three Persons are co-eternal together and co-equal. So that all things are as aforesaid, the Unity in Trinity and Trinity in Unity is to be worshipped. He, therefore, that will be saved must think thus of the Trinity."

Now I am sure that this answers any questions that you may have about the Blessed Trinity, if not, do not worry, after all, it is a mystery. Just keep in mind what our readings tell us today, that all of God has been working and participates in our salvation. That every part of God will stop at nothing so that we can be free of sin, darkness, and spiritual death.

On behalf of Fr. Hyacinth, Fr. Jude, Msgr. Beckmann, Deacon Jim and Deacon Barry, and the staff of St. Edward's, we wish a very Happy and Blessed Father's Day to all our fathers and prayers for our fathers who have gone home to the Kingdom

Good bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

June 22, 2025

First Reading - Genesis 14:18-20

Psalm 110:1, 2, 3, 4

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Gospel - Luke 9:11b-17

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Luke's Gospel we hear the story of the loaves and fish. When the Apostles saw the hunger of the crowd, they asked Jesus to send them away to fend for themselves. In reply, Jesus said to the Apostles "Give them some food yourselves." The Apostles then gathered five loaves and two fish and fed the crowd.

By Jesus' words, could He have been guiding the Apostles to feed the people with something other than bread and fish?

Congratulations to our St. Edward's Graduates

Pictured below is the graduating class of 2025. Each of these students have achieved academic excellence, been of service to their school, church and local community, advanced in their faith, and demonstrated leadership skills. All of them will be going on to a Catholic High School, where we know they will continue to excel in their studies and develop personally in their faith.

Congratulations Class of 2025!

Our hopes and dreams go with you, and don't ever hesitate to come back and tell us of your adventures!

Knights of Columbus

Men with a Mission

*A Catholic Brotherhood
Changing the World*

Pope John Paul II referred to the Knights of Columbus as the “strong right arm of the Church”. Our mission is simple. Whether it is the pastor, a bishop or the pope who needs our help, the Knights respond. We do this because we are first and foremost men who love our church. All Catholic men are welcome!

Show up. Set your own schedule. Be an example of what a CATHOLIC MAN is supposed to be!

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA)

Want to Become Catholic?

Do you know someone who wants to become Catholic?

Were you baptized Catholic, but never made your First Holy Communion?

Do you know someone who made their First Holy Communion but never received their Confirmation ?

Do you know someone who wants to learn more about his/her Catholic Faith and wants to belong to a loving Church Community?

If this Person is You, then Come and See!

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults will begin this Fall on Tuesday, October 15th. We will meet on Tuesday evenings at 7:00pm in the Third Floor Living Room of the School. For further information, please call Mrs. Waite at the Rectory 516-921-8030 at ext. 150 and ask to leave a message for a member of the OCIA Team. Respect Life Group Baby Shower - June 14th & 15th

The Respect Life Group and the Women's Guild will be hosting a baby shower at all the Masses this weekend, June 14th and 15th. Gifts will be donated to the Life Center of Long Island for Moms in need. Some items in great need are undershirts, diapers, sweaters, hats, sleepers, booties, crib blankets, receiving blankets, toys, bottles, bibs, and socks. If you would like to donate a baby gift, please bring (unwrapped) to St. Edward's Church before or after the Masses on June 14th and 15th. If you have any questions, please call Diane at 516 528-8033.

Thank you, and God bless you for your kindness.

For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb.

I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.

Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well.

My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth.

Father's Day

Remembering My Dad

The following is a poem my father wrote at a time in his life when he was going through grave difficulties both physically and spiritually but his faith in God saved him:

Introspection reveals, I'm afraid,
That I'm far from the man that Our Savior portrayed.
I find there are times when my conscience complains
Of the things that I've done to make selfish gains.
To walk high in my shoes with head held erect,
Is not always easy to display in effect.
Some say, "To err is human, express your regrets,
Time heals all; erase; forget"
But I find it a task too great for me,
To close my mind in peaceful tranquility,
To the wrongs that I've wrought
in the years gone 'afar'
To remember to forget is a Goliathan Core.

My fellowmen accept me as another in kind,
A "Good Joe", friendly and liberal of mind.
But I see inside, what I shield from them,
With a front and a show that appeals to men,
A conscience subdued and now hardly used,
A soul, once white, now stained and abused.
A portrait of life not pleasant to behold,
Cast in the metal and plated with gold.

And when, in my gallery, men thereon gaze,
They see only the gold with its glitter and glaze.
But I see the casting not worthy to fit,
To show with the others, I'm shamed to admit.
What's there to do? What chance have I?
To cast myself over and raise myself high?
The die that I've used I would label "poor grade"
It must be reworked by one skilled at the trade.
I've searched all around, I can turn to no man.
I'm alone and unskilled with no workable plan.
Where is this workshop? Who has the key?
To whom can I turn for this reshaping of me?
Which is the sculpture with the maul and the tool?
Who has the blueprint, the gage and the rule?
At last! I have found Him, I seek not in vain,
Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Happy Father's Day Dad!
I'll love you forever.
