From Fr. Mike's Desk

God comes to Abraham by the terebinth of Mamre, and Abraham orders that food and water be provided so the three visitors can be refreshed. As we read the whole story (and as we will see next weekend), we realize that Abraham knows that one of the three is indeed God, and the other two are angels. As God will tell Abraham, the two will go on to Sodom and Gomorrah. God also tells Abraham that he and Sarah will have a son at the same time next year. As we look at today's Gospel, we see Jesus welcomed into the house of Martha and Mary for a needed rest and a tasty supper. This passage, as last week, has come from Luke's travel narrative as Jesus moves from Galilee to Jerusalem. Martha and Mary, like Abraham, offer Jesus (God) hospitality as they care more about their guest than themselves. However, this does not seem to be the case with Mary. For she stays at Jesus' feet listening to every word He says. She ignores all that her sister is doing to prepare the food. When Martha complains, Jesus tells her that everything is simply fine, and she should not fuss so. For Jesus was looking only for a warm welcome and a good, simple meal. Jesus had much more on His mind and was not interested in fine dining.

That is what Jesus wants from us: a simple welcome into our home. Home, of course, does not mean the house or apartment we live in; it means our very soul. Mary knows this, but let us not mock Martha, because in her own way, she too welcomed Jesus into her home. She wanted what was best for Jesus. They used two different approaches, and both were good because they wanted Jesus to feel like their special guest.

Now consider this: today and every time we celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus invites us to His table. Christ invites us to the Sacrifice of the Mass, where He gives us His very self. Now that's real hospitality! Also, keep in mind that as we welcome Christ, so should we welcome all people. Last week, Jesus redefined who our neighbor truly was, and with this in mind, we are to show hospitality to all.

We close with the following prayer:

Lord, you welcome us to your table each week and nourish us with your Word and Sacrament.

May we freely pass your gifts to others and present them to you, perfect in Christ.

Amen

God bless you always!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 27, 2025

First Reading - Genesis 18:20-32

Psalms 138:1-2, 2-3, 6-7, 7-8

Second Reading - Colossians 2:12-14

Gospel - Luke 11:1-13

Next Week's Gospel Question

In Luke's Gospel we hear Jesus teach his disciples how to pray. Part of the prayer Jesus gives them guides them to ask for what they need. That is, their daily bread and to be forgiven of their sins. Later in the Gospel Jesus says to them "...ask and you will receive", and "everyone who asks, receives".

How often do you ask God for what you need, and when was the last time you asked Him for forgiveness?

St. Edward's 2025 Summer Appeal

Summer 2025

My dear Parish Family,

Over the past few summers, we have been approaching you for help in fundraising. We have noticed how many of you are in favor of supporting us through these appeals. Thanks to your generosity, we raised $43,400 last summer and around two hundred thousand dollars since 2020.

As you may have guessed, we are asking for your help again. The funds raised will go towards keeping the ministries working and to help support our physical plant. Remember, we can't do this without your help.

Thank you in advance for your generous effort and continued support of St. Edward's Parish.

May God bless you always,

Fr. Mike

Did You Know...?

As recently reported by Vatican News and Nigeria Catholic Network, last week on July 10th, three seminarians were kidnapped and a security officer was killed in an armed attack on a catholic seminary in Nigeria. This was the second attack in less than a year. Between 2015 and 2025 a total of 145 priests were abducted, of which 11 were killed. Kidnapping to obtain ransoms have become a booming industry in this country as the economic conditions have worsened. The willingness of young seminarians to continue their formation, with years of prayer, chastity, humility and hardship, while enduring threats to their lives, should be inspiring to every Catholic.

Let us pray this week for all seminarians, in every country, that they be freed from fear and torment for their faith and commitment to serving the Church and its' people.

Consider This About The Environment

We hear a lot these days about the environment. In 2015 Pope Francis wrote an Encyclical Letter entitled Laudato Si', meaning 'Praised Be'. The letter speaks about caring for our common home - planet Earth, and how we should begin thinking about 'our home'. In section 139 of the letter Pope Francis wrote, "When we speak of the 'environment', what we really mean is a relationship existing between nature and the society which lives in it. Nature cannot be regarded as something separate from ourselves or as a mere setting in which we live. We are part of nature, included in it and thus in constant interaction with it. Recognizing the reasons why a given area is polluted requires a study of the workings of society, its economy, its behaviour patterns, and the ways it grasps reality. Given the scale of change, it is no longer possible to find a specific, discrete answer for each part of the problem. It is essential to seek comprehensive solutions which consider the interactions within natural systems themselves and with social systems. We are faced not with two separate crises, one environmental and the other social, but rather with one complex crisis which is both social and environmental. Strategies for a solution demand an integrated approach to combating poverty, restoring dignity to the excluded, and at the same time protecting nature". There are seven goals that Pope Francis wants us to think about: Response to the cry of the earth; Response to the cry of the poor; Ecological economics; Adoption of sustainable lifestyles; Ecological education; Ecological spirituality; Community resilience and empowerment. There is much to unpack in those goals, and things that each of us can do to work towards improving the 'condition' of our common home. Think on it.
