From Fr. Mike's Desk

Our first reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah tells us, "First the Lord degraded the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the end he has glorified the seaward road, the land west of the Jordan, the District of the Gentiles. Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness: for there is no gloom where but now there was distress. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light..." Matthew's Gospel repeats this prophecy, as we read his version of the call of the first disciples. In fact, the prophecy stands on its own as we look at the shorter version of today's Gospel. As we read, "When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee." He left Nazareth and moved to Capernaum by the sea in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what the prophet said would be fulfilled. As Matthew writes, "...the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light..." "From that time on, Jesus began to preach, and say, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"

Why does the prophet predict that the Messiah will go to the Land of the Gentiles? Why does Matthew want you to see that Jesus is fulfilling the prophecy in a place where nobody would expect? The answer is that throughout a large part of its history, the whole region of Galilee was the dwelling place of many Gentiles. Yes, Jews lived there as well, but so many of the people and the cities had foreign influences. The people were Arabs, Romans, Greeks, and people from many unusual places. It was a place where Judaism lived alongside other religious beliefs (like no place else in the Holy Land). It was a thriving commercial center, and its chief export was fish, as many types of fish lived in the Sea of Galilee. It was a quiet place in terms of the Roman Empire, the Kingdom of Herod the Great, and his sons. However, it has a bad reputation, and some would say that it was well earned. So why does Jesus start His public ministry there? Well, this was the place where He was most needed, for so many were living in darkness. Many did not know God, and many had a lukewarm faith. Many also had suffered at the hands of the Scribes and the Pharisees (the very people who were the leaders, and instead of leading the people closer to God, they put up walls between the people and God). It is here that Jesus proclaims the Kingdom of God. The people now hear the word of God preached to them by God Himself, and if they respond, they are no longer living in darkness. Galilee was such a crossroads of cultures and society, so that whatever happened there would spread throughout the whole Roman World.

This is why Jesus started His ministry in Galilee, but it was not going to remain there; it was going to be preached all over the world, starting in the Holy Land. The disciples would accomplish this by spreading the word throughout the world. They were the people whom no one would expect to be picked. After all, they were fishers who knew what there was to know around the Sea of Galilee. However, keep in mind that Peter, Andrew, and the Father of James and John ran their own business and owned the equipment that they used for their business. Therefore, while they may have been simple people, they were not stupid. Also, keep in mind that Andrew and John were disciples of John the Baptist, and they were awaiting the coming of the Messiah. John pointed out Jesus to them, so it is no surprise that Jesus would call these men to follow Him, especially after they saw the great catch of fish.

This call did not just go out to the twelve, but to the whole Church. It goes out to you and me, so get your nets ready, for the great catch of people who are still living in darkness, as we lead them to Jesus and He leads them into the Kingdom of Light.

This Sunday, we begin Catholic Schools Week, and during this week, we celebrate throughout the Church Community the great gift of Catholic Schools. We are very blessed to have our own Saint Edward's School. Our school offers an excellent education in all aspects of the world, but most importantly, it offers a wonderful education in the ways of the world to come. Your children or grandchildren will learn about their faith and God's plan for them. Please contact our Principal Ms. Lomanto at the school to arrange a tour this week. You can reach her at (516) 921-7767; you will be happy you did.

Pope Francis declared this Third Sunday of Ordinary time as Word of God Sunday, and it is perfect because Jesus is the Word of God and He is proclaiming the Father and Himself by starting the Public Ministry as we have seen this week.

God bless you!

Fr. Mike

Care for Our Common Home

At the same time we can note the rise of a false or superficial ecology which bolsters complacency and a cheerful recklessness. As often occurs in periods of deep crisis which require bold decisions, we are tempted to think that what is happening is not entirely clear. Superficially, apart from a few obvious signs of pollution and deterioration, things do not look that serious, and the planet could continue as it is for some time. Such evasiveness serves as a licence to carrying on with our present lifestyles and models of production and consumption. This is the way human beings contrive to feed their self-destructive vices: trying not to see them, trying not to acknowledge them, delaying the important decisions and pretending that nothing will happen.

Pope Francis, Encyclical Letter Laudato Si' - Care For Our Common Home (2015) Sec. 59

Parish Holy Hour Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction

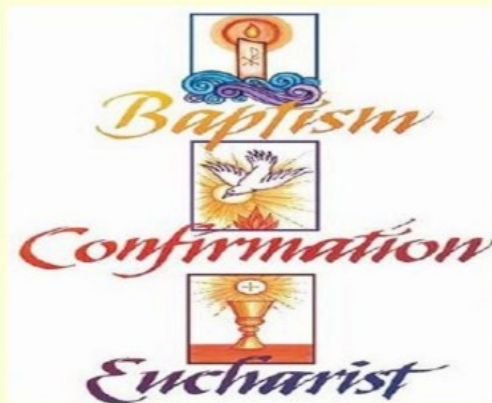

Holiness is deeply personal, but it is also communal and historic. Holiness is not something we do for ourselves; it is something God does in us when we cooperate. It is something He does in us, not for us alone, but for others and for all of history.

Dear Jesus, You are the healer of my soul; take the blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart. Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do your will in all things, Amen.

Ushers Needed

Church ushers are the spiritual ambassadors and doorkeepers who create a welcoming, orderly, and safe environment for worship by greeting people, helping with seating, managing offerings, distributing bulletins, and ensuring the service runs smoothly, acting as the first friendly face of the church and serving as a vital part of its hospitality ministry. They serve as a link between the congregation and the clergy, embodying Christ's love and a desire to maintain reverence.

Ushers are always needed, and it is an honor to serve your church. If you want to serve, please contact: Jim Asmus at 516-661-7860 or call the rectory office at 516-921-8030 and leave your name and number.
