From Fr. Mike's Desk

Last weekend, we read from John's Gospel of the account of the events that occurred on the first Easter Sunday Night. How on that night, Jesus appeared to the Apostles and those who were gathered in the Upper Room. During His appearance, He told them to receive the Holy Spirit, and that as the Father has sent Him, so now He is sending them. All are present except Thomas, and when Thomas arrives, he is told about Jesus' visit, but he refuses to believe. The next week, Jesus appeared again, and this time Thomas was present. When he saw Jesus, he fell to the ground and made the most profound statement of faith, proclaiming, "My Lord and my God!"

This week's Gospel from Luke gives us another account of a post-resurrection appearance. Today, we listened to the events that occurred on the Road to Emmaus. Like Thomas, the two disciples did not believe. They heard the report that the women who went to the tomb made. They reported that they saw a vision of angels who told them that Jesus had risen. The women found the tomb empty, but Jesus was nowhere in sight. So, on that Sunday afternoon, the two disciples, totally dismayed, took a long walk. They just could not believe what had happened over the past three days, and they could not cope. So, they take a walk, and they talk about the events. They are so upset that they do not even notice the stranger who came up behind them. The man asked what they were talking about, and the two turned around and looked at him like he had two heads. "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place?" Their answer to Jesus was very forceful and likewise filled with sadness. It was at this point that Our Lord gave them an answer they could not refute. As Luke tells us, He interpreted all the Scriptures that dealt with the Messiah from Moses to the Prophets. He pointed out to them that the Messiah had to suffer all these things so we could be saved.

They were just like Thomas; they refused to believe the accounts of the Resurrection. Many Scripture commentators believe that they truly did want to believe. One such commentator is no less than Pope St. John Paul II. Why do the commentators believe this? It can be seen with the words they utter at the end of the account. "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us..." They changed their minds most certainly when Jesus broke the bread and vanished before their sight as they recognized Him. Last week, Jesus told Thomas that he believed because he had seen, but blessed are those who believe without seeing.

The experience of the two on the Road to Emmaus should help us to believe that Jesus is always present to us. He will help us get through every crisis of faith. He will indeed set our hearts on fire. They recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread, as we will in the Sacrifice of the Mass. However, we can and should see Jesus in each other, even ourselves.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Mike

Next Week's Readings

Fourth Sunday of Easter

April 26, 2026

First Reading - Acts 2:14a, 36-41

Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b4, 5, 6

Second Reading - 1 Peter 2:20b-25

Gospel - John 10:1-10

Next Week's Gospel Question

In John's Gospel we hear Jesus speak about the good shepherd and His sheep. When the sheep hear the voice of strangers, who will lead them astray, they do not follow them. When the shepherd calls to them, the sheep hear His voice, and they follow Him. They know Him by His voice, trusting the He will lead them out through the gate, protect them, and provide guidance and abundant life.

You are one of His sheep. You hear His voice. Do you place your trust in the Good Shepherd and follow where He leads?

Care for Our Common Home

When we speak of the "environment", what we really mean is a relationship existing between nature and the society which lives in it. Nature cannot be regarded as something separate from ourselves or as a mere setting in which we live. We are part of nature, included in it and thus in constant interaction with it. Recognizing the reasons why a given area is polluted requires a study of the workings of society, its economy, its behavior patterns, and the ways it grasps reality. Given the scale of change, it is no longer possible to find a specific, discrete answer for each part of the problem. It is essential to seek comprehensive solutions which consider the interactions within natural systems themselves and with social systems. We are faced not with two separate crises, one environmental and the other social, but rather with one complex crisis which is both social and environmental. Strategies for a solution demand an integrated approach to combating poverty, restoring dignity to the excluded, and at the same time protecting nature.

Knights of Columbus - Mission of the Family Video Series

Men with a Mission

A Catholic Brotherhood Changing the World

Christ is Risen! Let us rejoice this Easter Season, and spread the good word, especially among our family members. To walk with you in this journey, the Knights of Columbus have produced 5 short videos making up the Mission of the Family series. The Knights encourage participation and educating everyone on the vital importance of our faith. The Lord's passion and death reminds families of the suffering Jesus endured through his passion and resurrection, thereby opening the gates of heaven for each of us. Watch with your family members and spread the word!

These short videos can be found at this link: <https://tinyurl.com/Mission-of-the-Family>

Or you can just scan this QR code and watch the videos on your phone ►

Pope John Paul II referred to the Knights of Columbus as the “strong right arm of the Church”. Our mission is simple. Whether it is the pastor, a bishop or the pope who needs our help, the Knights respond. We do this because we are first and foremost men who love our church. All Catholic men are welcome!

Show up. Set your own schedule. Be an example of what a CATHOLIC MAN is supposed to be!

The Catholic Church has a long tradition of calling for proper stewardship of the earth.

The 8th Grade students at St. Edward's School have received a number of tree seedlings which they will be planting on the school's property.
