July Vicar's Vagaries

Ecclesiastes 1:9

⁹*What has been is what will be,
and what has been done is what will be done;
there is nothing new under the sun.*

Spiraling toward the elections, we are being bombarded with the perennial question,

"Are you better off than you were 4 years ago?"

Truth be told, many of us will think not. But many of us will be prone to assign the failures of the last four years. to our political opponents, their lackeys, or their targets, some of us will recognize the folly of such questions for its meaninglessness and deception.

The perils of the last four years. have been due to, (among other things,) demagogues, natural forces, global economics, mass violence, or a dreadful lack of imagination on the part of some of our public leadership, whether elected, in civil service, or in commercial enterprise. Still, some of the shortcomings of the past four years can be ascribed to our own lack of vigilance, imagination, or accountability.

Too many among us will ascribe to the notion that if we have not prospered to the degree that we thought we should, then no one should enjoy prosperity or well-being – nobody should get a boost up.

Being neighbors, citizens, family members, or business people are not the tasks that keep us from our spiritual journeys. To the contrary, these are the tasks that cry out for our example and sacrifice as fellow believers "on the way."

It is quite easy to observe how our worldly situations pull against our aspirations to bring about a more "Godly," (or more "God-friendly,") community environment.

Parents should raise their kids better. The war on drugs should be won. Ordinary people should feel safe on the street. And draft beer should be $0.35 a glass again.

Parents need mentors. Their own parents are sometimes far away or estranged. Pray that your own kids can connect with older neighbors or peers who can listen. Be the older neighbor who says, "Hello."

Toss the extra "Oxy" still in your dresser from your last oral surgery you are keeping -- "Just in case." (Baby steps.)

Take back your streets. Walk when you're able.

$0.35 beer? Good luck. (I won't do without my $3.00 Coke Zero at the Restaurant.)

Be the change.

Reminders

Opportunities to Serve. Are you looking for a way to connect and serve? Please take a look at the sign up sheet in the Fellowship Hall. There are many opportunities available.

Prayer List. Please help us keep our Prayer List up-to-date. Let us know if there are names that need to be added to or removed from the list. We want to keep those in need in our prayers and we always love to hear how God answers prayers.

CAMP CROSS

42353 W. Coeur d'Alene Lake Shore
Coeur d'Alene, ID 83814

Camp Cross is a unique place set in God's beauty. Camp Cross is a Christian community serving the critical purpose of transforming the lives of youth, young adults and all people in the Episcopal Diocese of Spokane and beyond. Camp Cross is a treasure that needs to be nurtured and upheld by those who have benefited from the Camp Cross experience, in order to provide deep spiritual encounters for generations to come.

VISION

To be a creative and compelling witness to Jesus Christ by unlocking the radical power of youth to embody inclusive love, transform each other & their communities and take their experiences out into the world.

CORE VALUES

Christ is at the center of all we do. Each of us seeks to be a compelling witness to Jesus. We are aware, sensitive and accepting of all people where ever they are in their spiritual journey.

We seek to offer a life impacting experience for every person (campers and staff) involved in our summer camp experience.

We strive for this Christian camp experience to make a difference in the world upon the campers and staff return to their congregations and communities.

We will live together at camp in a "community way" of clear expectations, agreement and mutual accountability and care for one another.

We will all agree to live by our stated covenant and all will be accountable to that agreement.

We expect to live in a camp environment that fosters unconditional welcome, acceptance and extraordinary respect.

The staff will seek to serve Christ in all persons and to respect the dignity of every human being.

We will proclaim by word and example the Good News of Jesus Christ through fun, joy and celebration.

We will speak the truth in love for the purpose of building up the body in Christ.

Camp Cross is an Episcopal camp operated through the Episcopal Diocese of Spokane. We welcome campers of all faiths and backgrounds to live and grow in Christian community built on Episcopal and Christian theology. Morning Examen

As you begin your day,
notice how you are feeling,
offer gratitude to God
for being present with you,
and scan your day ahead.

Hold the following wonderings as you watch for and welcome Christ today:

What am I curious about?

Who do I need to listen to?

Inhale:
Spirit, give me curiosity.

Exhale:
Christ, give me courage.

Evening Examen

As you end your day,

What piqued my curiosity?

Who surprised me?

Inhale:
God, make me vulnerable.

Exhale:
Open me to change.
