The ladies of St. Luke's will be offering a variety of salads and beverages.

Looking forward to seeing you there!

Vicar's Vagaries

We've made it through the celebratory seasons Of Christmas and Easter and find ourselves heading toward what has been called, "Ordinary Time," or even less exotically, the Sundays after Pentecost. (Doesn't that warm the cockles ?)

One might as well call it, "Bland Time."

For most parishes, this is the time when many of the programs wind down for the summer. But as we rejoice in the return of our Snowbirds, the opposite is more the case. While our numbers may vary from Sunday to Sunday, it may feel for some as if we are living as a parish community with all engines engaged.

What may become apparent to some is the opportunity to reflect on the lectionary readings in a more progressive sense, as we shift gears this summer and hear the Sunday readings from the Hebrew Bible In a more unified context. Our first lessons will go through certain Old Testament Books (1st Samuel to begin with) from story to story using Track #1.

For most, this will be frustrating, because now none of the three readings for Sunday will be grouped in any intentional theme, (But for better or worse, you have become accustomed to my preaching apparently lacking any intentional theme anyhow.)

With the intrigues of Holy Week still in our minds' rearview mirror, we will be returning to the Gospel of Mark. In the third chapter of this brief Gospel of only sixteen chapters, the stage is set from the "git-go" for the Pharisees to plot against Jesus.

In other news, some youth in the region will be participating in Church camps of one variety or another. While it does not appear that any young people will be going to Camp Cross this year, your Bishop's Committee has decided to offer scholarship support for the camp, as it sees fit.

We will also be supporting local Young Life Camp initiatives from discretionary sources.

Pray for opportunities for growth and renewal for all participants.

(Don't splash me on the Lazy River at Slidewaters.)

Prayer List Information

Please help us keep our Prayer List up-to-date. Let us know if there are names that need to be added to or removed from the list. We want to keep those in need in our prayers and we always love to hear how God answers prayers.

Outreach Update

Food Bank Update: They have yet to break ground for the new building. They are averaging 200 boxes a week and are barely able to keep food on the shelves.

- I Never Thought of It That Way Zoom Group

Join this conversation about how to really listen to someone whose views are different from your own. Journalist author, Monica Guzman, lays out the dynamics that drive people apart and then teaches a number of skills to bridge that distance. These listening skills equip us to better love our neighbor, especially to love those neighbors who might drive you crazy by their passionate opinions that oppose your own. This group meets via Zoom on Thursdays at 6:30pm to 8:00pm on the following dates: May 16, 23, 30, and June 6, 13, and 20.
