A Father's Day Blessing

Gracious and loving God,

We give thanks today for fathers and father figures—for those who have nurtured, guided, and protected us, for those who have taught by word and by example, and for those who have shown us your steadfast love.

Bless all fathers—biological, adoptive, foster, and spiritual. Bless grandfathers, uncles, mentors, and all who offer a father's care with patience and strength.

Comfort those who grieve this day: those who have lost fathers, those who are separated from children, and those for whom this day brings pain. Surround them with your peace and healing.

May all who carry the responsibility of fatherhood be strengthened by your grace. Give them wisdom, courage, and compassion, that they may reflect your love and mercy in all they do.

Through Jesus Christ, our brother and Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

FATHER'S DAY

A wise man is strong,
and a knowledgeable man grows in strength

VICAR'S VAGARIES

“From Ascension to Pentecost: Waiting in Hope, Moving in Faith”

As we journey from the Feast of the Ascension (celebrated this year on Thursday, May 29) toward Pentecost Sunday (June 8), the lectionary invites us into a sacred space of waiting, watching, and preparing. It is a time full of both expectation and mission.

In the days after His resurrection, Jesus appeared to His disciples, teaching and encouraging them. Then, as we read in Acts 1:6-11, He was taken up into heaven—not as an absence, but as a shift. The Risen Christ now reigns from the right hand of God, and the work of His Body—the Church—is now entrusted to us, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

But before that Spirit descends, the disciples are told to wait.

This is where we find ourselves in the lectionary during these days between Ascension and Pentecost:

- Acts 1:6-14 shows the disciples returning to the upper room, devoting themselves to prayer and choosing leaders.
- 1 Peter continues to encourage believers facing trials, calling them to humility, perseverance, and trust.
- John 17 offers Jesus' great high priestly prayer—where He prays for His followers to be one, even as He and the Father are one.

These texts remind us that the Church doesn't leap into mission unprepared or alone. First, we pray, we listen, and we wait.

Waiting is not easy—but it's where faith is forged. In the upper room, the early believers didn't know how or when the Spirit would come. But they trusted. They stayed together. They prepared their hearts.

This is a beautiful reflection for us as a parish. As we navigate a changing world, make decisions about ministry, and imagine what faithful witness looks like in 2025, we too are invited to be a people of prayerful anticipation.

So let this time between Ascension and Pentecost be for us:

- A time of quiet courage, trusting that God is at work even when we can't see it.
- A time of community, gathering in faith just as the disciples did.
- A time of expectancy, knowing that God's Spirit will come—and already stirs among us.

Come, Holy Spirit.
Empower your Church anew.

A Prayer Between Ascension and Pentecost

Come, Holy Spirit,

Fill the hearts of your faithful people.

Kindle in us the fire of your love.

As we wait for your power from on high,

teach us to pray,

to serve,

and to trust.

Amen.

Where is God calling me to wait, to trust, or to prepare for something new?

Take a moment each day to listen.

BE IN THE KNOW - IMPORTANT ST. ANDREW'S NEWS

June 8th is Pentecost Sunday

Please wear red this Sunday. We will be taking pictures after the service.

 WARNING

NO ENTRY

12:00am - 2:00am
Ozone Sanitation In Progress

NOTICE: OZONE GENERATOR IN USE

We have installed an ozone generator in the Parish Hall. It operates daily from 12:00am - 2:00am.

Ozone generators are used to eliminate odors, mold, bacteria, and other airborne contaminants. They work by producing ozone (O<sub>3</sub>), a powerful oxidizing gas that breaks down pollutants in the air.

DO NOT ENTER while the machine is running.

Why?

While effective for cleaning, ozone is hazardous to humans and animals when inhaled. Breathing ozone can cause:

- Throat irritation
- Coughing and shortness of breath
- Chest pain
- Aggravation of asthma or other lung conditions

The Parish Hall is to remain unoccupied from 12:00am - 4:00am to allow for safe and effective treatment. Once the ozone cycle is complete, it is safe to re-enter.

Your safety is important to us.
Thank you for your cooperation.

PENTECOST PONDERINGS

The Spirit at Work Among Us

The feast of Pentecost, on June 8th, is not just a single Sunday—it marks the beginning of an entire season in which we live into the power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

In Acts 2, the Spirit came with fire and wind, equipping the disciples to speak boldly, cross boundaries, and proclaim the risen Christ. That same Spirit is alive and active today—in our worship, in our ministries, in the quiet of prayer, and the bustle of daily life.

June, with its longer days and beginnings of summer rhythms, invites us to ask:

Where is the Holy Spirit moving in my life right now?

How is God calling me to grow, serve, or simply be still?

Here at St. Andrew's, we see signs of the Spirit's movement everywhere:

- In those who serve the church body.
- In volunteers who serve our community through food drives and outreach.
- In newcomers who walk through our doors and find a spiritual home.
- In the faithful gathering for Sunday worship, week by week, growing as disciples.

The liturgical color for this season is green, a symbol of life and growth. It's a quiet but powerful reminder that the Spirit often works in steady, unseen ways—like seeds planted in the earth that will bear fruit in time.

As you enjoy the gifts of summer—travel, rest, time with family—stay rooted in the Spirit. Join us in worship. Check in with a friend from church. Take up a new practice of prayer or service. Even small steps can open us to great transformation.

Come, Holy Spirit, and renew us again.

God is Triune; there are within the Godhead three Persons; the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost; and the work of salvation is one in which all three act together, the Father purposing redemption, the Son securing it, and the Spirit applying it. ~J.I. Packer

Symbolism in the Stained Glass Windows at St. Andrew's

As you face the altar, on the front right side are the Trinity season medallions.
The symbols for Trinity include combinations of three.

On the left medallion you see the dove with the cross and hands. This is to remind us of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and the gifts we each possess.

The center medallion represents the sacrament of Marriage, depicted by the Tree of Life with life water flowing from the base as well as the joined rings. Chi Rho signifies the joining of man and woman in unending union with the presence of Christ

The right medallion in this group depicts three fish to signify that man's salvation comes from the triune God. The intertwining emphasizes the doctrine of equality, unity, and the coeternal nature of the three persons of the Trinity. The circle symbolizes eternity because it is without beginning and without end.
