English
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him,
For He is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near;
Praise Him in glad adoration.

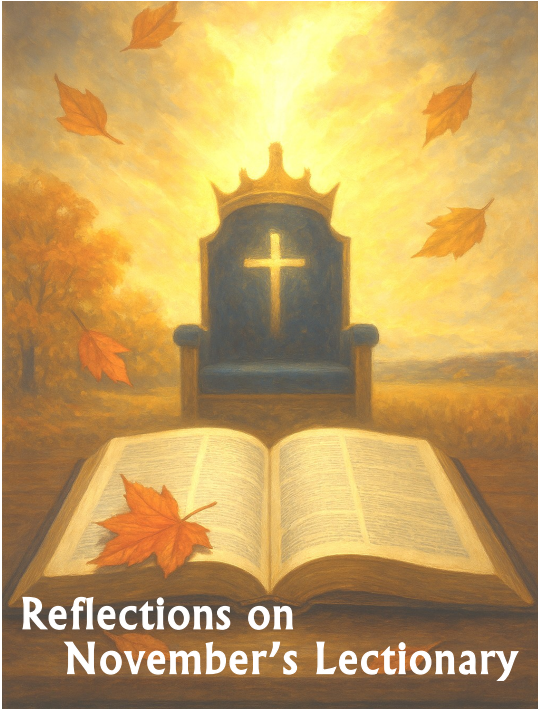

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath,
Come now with praises before Him.
Let the Amen sound from His people again;
Gladly for aye we adore Him.

Francais
Notre Père, qui es aux cieux,
Que ton Nom soit sanctifié,
Que ton Règne vienne,
Que ta volonté soit faite,
Sur la terre comme au ciel.
Donne-nous aujourd'hui
Notre pain de ce jour,
Pardonne-nous nos offenses,
Comme nous pardonnons
Aussi à ceux qui nous ont offensés,
Et ne nous soumets pas à la tentation,
Mais délivre-nous du mal.

Amen.

VICAR'S VAGARIES

Reflections on November's Lectionary

November's readings move toward the close of the liturgical year, emphasizing hope, perseverance, and God's ultimate reign. The month begins on Saturday with All Saints' Day (Daniel 7:1–3, 15–18; Psalm 149; Ephesians 1:11–23; Luke 6:20–31), celebrating the promise of the kingdom for God's holy ones and Christ's authority over all powers.

While we don't meet as a Community on November 1, It might do well to think of ourselves as part of a continuum of believers through Salvation history, put our Spiritual pants as others before us, one leg at a time.

Subsequent Sundays (Propers 26–28) feature prophetic calls for justice and trust in God's sovereignty, with texts like Habakkuk 2:5–11 and Isaiah 1:1–9, paired with Luke's teachings on mercy and humility. These passages challenge pride and exploitation, urging faithfulness amid uncertainty.

The month culminates in The Reign of Christ (Christ the King Sunday), proclaiming Christ's lordship and the hope of eternal inheritance. These themes prepare hearts for Advent, inviting believers to live with gratitude, justice, and anticipation of God's coming kingdom.

Giving Thanks to God

For fields that yield, for skies that bless,
For daily bread and tenderness,
For faith that lifts our hearts above—
We thank You, Lord, for endless love.

For family near and friends so dear,
For moments bright, for passing year,
For guiding light when paths grow dim—
We lift our grateful hearts to Him.

For mercy wide, for grace so free,
For all You are and yet will be,
For hope that shines through joy and pain—
We thank You, Lord, again, again.

With humble hearts, our voices raise,
In thankful song, in endless praise.
All good we have, all gifts we see—
Are from Your hand, O God, to Thee.

JOURNEY WITH ME THROUGH CHRISTMAS

BEGINNING NOVEMBER 23RD

Journey with Me Through Christmas is a devotional by Catherine Campbell that explores the biblical journeys leading up to Jesus's birth. Using a mix of biblical retellings, reflections, and prayers, Campbell guides readers beyond commercialism to focus on the arrival of Jesus. The book centers on the physical journeys of Mary, Joseph, and the wise men, but emphasizes the most wondrous journey of all: God's arrival on Earth as "God With Us".

Thanksgiving Blessing

Gracious and generous God,
from whom all blessings flow,
we give You thanks this day
for the beauty of creation,
for the fruits of one earth,
and for the love that binds this community of faith.

In this season of gratitude,
open our eyes to see Your abundance,
our hearts to share freely,
and our hands to serve with joy.

As You have blessed us,
make us a blessing to others—
bringing light, comfort, and hope wherever we go.

And may the peace of Christ,
the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit
be upon us and remain with us,
this Thanksgiving and always.
Amen.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

Thank you God for everything
the big things and the small.
For every good gift comes from God,
the giver of them all.
Help us to remember that the key to life and living
is to make each prayer
a prayer of thanks
and every day
a day of thanksgiving.
