■ THE VILLAS AT FIVE PONDS EXECUTIVE BOARD

IF BETWEEN NOW AND WHEN Lemus Construction replaces your home's roof system, you have a roofing problem, what should you do?

We are a Home Owners Association, it is your home and it is your roof, therefore, you may call any roofing company of your choosing to address the problem.

However, it might be prudent to consider calling Lemus Construction's service division at 215-996-9966 and tell them what your problem is and ask them to note on their work order that your community is arranging to use Lemus Construction, to replace your total roof system starting in 2025, and that the repair should be made with that in mind.

Note: If your issue occurs during the period that Lemus Construction's two crews are actually in our development replacing roofing systems, you should make their service division aware of that fact as well.

In either circumstance they have indicated to the Board to try and provide a "low cost" at the residents expense, temporary fix to get you to the point when your shingles will be replaced.

REPLACED ROOF WARRANTY

The Board has made the decision to provide each of our 280 home owners an industry "leading edge" shingle/roof system—with many upgrades and improvements. In addition, once completed all 280 homes will have the most extensive, and transferable warranty known as the "Golden Pledge" provided and backed by the number one shingle manufacturer, GAF, an internationally recognized leader in this field.

LEAF COLLECTION

The ongoing "battle" that happens every year, between the contracted leaf clean up and the trees depositing seemingly endless number of leaves onto our property—the trees always seemingly always to win!

The final mowing this year in November did shred and gather up a lot of leaves and one more leaf clean up only to take place in December

INSURANCE

Below is part of a note that The Villas at Five Ponds received from the Community's Insurance Agency, Brown & Brown, asking us to remind all home owners in our HOA at a minimum have a standard Homeowners Policy (commonly referred to as an "HO-3" ) which include these important coverage's;

- Dwelling Coverage: Building or structure including the exterior as well as the interior.
- Personal Property: Includes furniture, clothing, and personal effect. A dollar value assessment should be made for all your personal belongings.
- Personal Articles Floater; This would cover items such as jewelry, fir, cameras etc. which are only provided on a limited basis in your basic homeowner's policy.
- Person Liability: Provides protection for suit or allegations of bodily injury and/or property damage for which you are responsible. This coverage is needed whether you occupy your unit or rent it out, and should include medical payments.
- Loss of Use: Provides coverage for additional costs incurred if you have to live elsewhere while your home is being repaired due to damage by a covered loss. (i.e. a fire)
- Loss Assessment Coverage: Provides protection for assessments made to all unit owners for property damage to collectively owned property and/or liability claims, which are not covered by insurance , but are a result of a covered cause of loss (i.e. claim exceeds limits of insurance purchased by or available to the Association)
- Personal Umbrella Liability; In an effort to protect your assets from suits and judgments you may wish to consider purchasing higher limits of liability insurance.
- Not mentioned, but the Board recommends having insurance coverage for the "water & sewer" lines locate on the exterior of your home, but still on your deeded property.

We encourage you to discuss these things with your insurance company or agent to insure you have the correct coverage.

HOLIDAY LIGHTING & DECORATIONS (As a reminder—)

- Decorations that produce excessive glare, noise, or endanger the health and welfare of the community are not permitted. Outdoor holiday lights may be displayed only for Christmas and Hanukkah.
- Decorations and/or holiday lights associated with Christmas or Hanukkah may be installed and illuminated after November 15 and must be turned off and removed by January 15. Outdoor holiday lighting must be turned off by 12 AM. No lighting and/or decorations may be placed in the Common

FIVE PONDS SINGLES ■ MERRYL PELBERG

THE FIVE PONDS SINGLES are winding down 2024 with some fun activities. On November 8, a group of us went to the "Mystery Night" at the Cock n' Bull Restaurant in Lahaska. It was an '80s theme and some of our group dressed up in that mode. They looked great! While eating our dinner, the actors put on a murder mystery show that each table tried to solve. Well, lo and behold, one of our tables figured out who the murderer was. We couldn't believe it!!

We will be ending the year with a holiday luncheon at Cafe Barolo in Warrington on Wednesday, December 4. Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, January 8, 2025 at 6:30 in the Clubhouse Multipurpose room. We will be planning our spring agenda at that meeting. New ideas for outings are always welcome.

I want to wish everyone a HAPPY & HEALTHY NEW YEAR! See you in 2025.

THE JUAN SOTO SWEEPSTAKES

■ JAKE SAMSON, THE VILLA'S VOICE GUEST SPORTS REPORTER

I HAVE SPENT WAY TOO MUCH TIME ON THE EAGLES, and honestly am scared to even dive into the 2-12 (at the moment I'm writing this) 76ers. So, let's talk baseball! The Phillies Red October was rather short lived, getting bounced in the first round to their rival New York Mets. It was sad, but something that we as fans seemingly prepared for given how the past couple of years have gone for us. However, there is a chance that this lineup could get a huge boost in the next couple of weeks, and his name is Juan Soto.

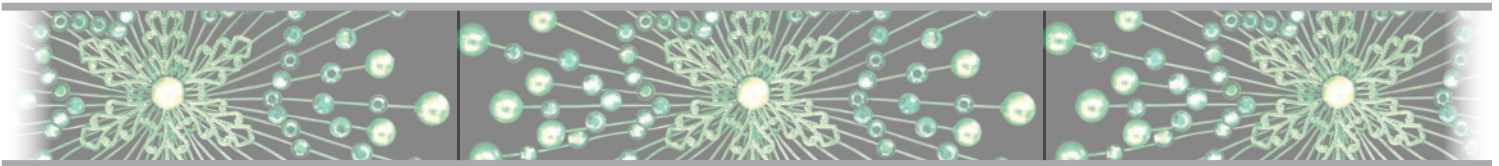

So, who is Juan Soto? Soto is a 26 year old outfielder from the Dominican Republic. Most recently of the Yankees, Soto was signed as an international free agent in 2015 as a 17 year old. Since then, he has gone from Washington, to San Diego, and then the Big Apple for a season. Now, he faces a full on free agency period, with a number of teams including the Phillies clamoring to get the star.

In his career, Soto has batted .285, has hit 201 HRs and 592 RBIs, made 5 all star games and has won a batting title. He would be a great fit on the Phillies, sliding into the left/center field role pretty much automatically. However, there are plenty of other teams that will be paying hundreds of millions of dollars for their services. The Yankees are the favorites to keep him according to BetMGM's odds, with the Mets and Red Sox in the 2 and 3 spots respectively. However, Soto has played with both Trea Turner and Bryce Harper, and has mentioned he will take a free agency meeting with the Phils, so maybe it isn't too big of a dream after all. This will be THE story of the MLB offseason, and the Phillies have a chance to make a humungous splash.

Juan Soto

PARTYING PONDER— OH WHAT A NIGHT! ■ THE PARTIES PLUS COMMITTEE

AFTER AN ABUNDANCE OF PHONE CALLS to members of Parties Plus the day after our Halloween Party, it would be fair to say rave reviews were truly appreciated.

Following an extensive cocktail hour, guests dined, danced to the music of our DJ and enjoyed the live performance of a talented singing duet show. The Photo Booth was constantly busy providing printed memories for our attendees.

Best costume prizes went to Paul and Carole Denish. Fabulous raffles were won by Debbie Klein, Elliott Goldberg and Gary Bouchert. The room filled with energy, fun, laughter and pure enjoyment of one another.

Special thanks and appreciation to Tom Lunde for his tireless photography, Karen Krieger for her artful website assistance and Alyse Silverman for donating a chocolate pretzel tray.

Join us next time on May 3, 2025 for another evening filled with fun, fun and more fun! Details to follow shortly.

“WISH YOU WERE HERE” BY JODI PICCOULT

■ SHARYN POLSKY, BOOK REVIEWER

DIANA IS AN ART HISTORY MAJOR who works for Sotheby's procuring famous works of art to be sold at auction. She has her whole life planned out. She wants to be married by thirty and be finished having children by thirty-five. Her boyfriend, Finn, is a surgical resident. They plan to visit the Galapagos Islands for a romantic getaway that is on their bucket list. Diana finds a ring in the back of Finn's sock drawer so she presumes he is going to propose to her on this trip. Unfortunately, there is a fly in the ointment. The Covid epidemic has taken off in New York and Finn has to report to the hospital as it is all hands on deck. He encourages Diana to go anyway since the trip is non-refundable.

When she arrives in Galapagos, her luggage has been lost. The island has shut down to tourists because of the pandemic. There are no flights out. Her hotel has closed. Fortunately, Abuela, a native woman, offers her a place to stay and cooks some meals for Diana. She meets Beatrix, her troubled granddaughter who has come home after her school was shut down due to the pandemic. Beatrix comes to trust Diana and confides her secrets with her. Diana identifies with her because Beatrix's mother has left her and Diana's mother was too involved with her career as a world-famous photographer to provide a loving relationship with her daughter. Later she meets Beatrix's father, Gabriel, who is initially wary of tourists but subsequently gets to know Diana. He was a former tour guide so he uses his knowledge to show Diana around the island. They begin to have feelings for each other. I know that this sounds like a Hallmark movie, but it is so much more. I tried to read this book months ago but I put it down because I wasn't interested in an island romance. I had to read it for my book club and when I persisted, I found the book to have some twists and turns that make it quite interesting.

Diana finds it is very hard to communicate with Finn as the cell phone service is very poor. Gabriel enlists an island woman, who has designs on him, to help Diana get an internet connection at the hotel where she works. Beatrix agrees to send postcards Diana has written to Finn. Diana gets updates from Finn describing the dire situation caused by the pandemic at the hospital where he is employed in New York.

Diana goes with Gabriel to see a remote place on the island that he wants to show her. She falls in the water and almost drowns. She feels that she is choking and having difficulty getting her breath.

It turns out that she was in the hospital where Finn works. She had contracted Covid and she had great difficulty breathing and was on a ventilator for several days. It was uncertain if she would survive. While she was unconscious, she believed her adventures in Galapagos were real. In actuality, she had never gotten to Galapagos. She came down with Covid before she could make the trip.

After extensive rehab, she comes back to the apartment she shared with Finn. Because of her near death experience, she starts to question her goals and values. She wants to become an art therapist. Finn is not supportive of this desire. She realizes that even though Finn is "perfect, he is not perfect for her.

She says 'Memories are the safeguards we use to keep from making the same mistakes.'

She is obsessed with her remembrance of Galapagos. She feels compelled to go to Galapagos to see if her dream was real or just a fevered dream when she was very ill. What she finds will intrigue you.

She does research on the internet to see if others have had the same experience. She finds a man who was in an auto accident. After the accident he believed he has a wife and child in another town and he was going there to see them even though they did not exist. He started to speak in a language that was not his own.

In the epilogue we learn there are documented cases where people who have had a near death experience, remember an alternate reality that they are convinced is real.

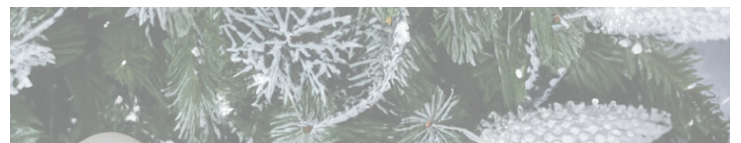

What do you think? Is this possible?

NOTE: Netflix has procured the rights to produce a movie based on this book. The release date has not been revealed yet. ~SP
