THE AJ BROWN SAGA ENDS

■ JAKE SAMSON,
THE VILLA'S VOICE GUEST SPORTS REPORTER

IN WHAT TRULY WAS A ROLLER COASTER of a time in Philadelphia, and more over the last 6 months of time, AJ Brown was traded to the New England Patriots. The writing was on the wall for the past 3 months with reports leaking out of Brown and Jalen Hurts' relationship being frayed amongst many others. When all of this pettiness was going on between January and June, the Eagles did use their first round pick on a wide receiver from USC, Makai Lemon, so it gave them a plan if they did indeed have intentions on trading brown.

Brown was one of the most polarizing Eagles I can remember. From reading a book on the sidelines (and making sure the camera was on him doing so), his rambunctious personality but also a loyal soft side, it was a true conundrum on how I should view him as an Eagles fan. I mean he also wrote "best to ever do it" on the wall of the practice facility on his way out (and there have been better Eagles receivers than him). When I look at the overall AJ Brown experience for the 4 years he was in the city of brotherly love, I still leave feeling positive.

Brown is a top 15 NFL wide receiver who was a threat to take the ball to the end zone on every play. I'd take him against any defender in a jump ball situation, and he had plenty of success. He had nearly 5000 yards and 32 touchdowns in his four seasons. We will never know if the 2024–2025 Eagles team would have won the Super Bowl without him, but I know they would not have made it look as easy if they didn't have number 11 on the field. Overall, as sad as I am to see him go, it's good to move onto a chapter where Devonta Smith and Makai Lemon are our wide receivers of the current and future.

Brief Bites

THE SCRATCH KITCHEN BY GALLO'S ■ RON DORFMAN

SATURDAY NIGHT of a "soft opening" was slow, with no liquor license as yet, and the kitchen just getting acclimated. We were greeted by a cordial staff of smiling young people, all eager to set a good first impression. The restaurant, formerly known as The Farm and Fisherman, had been at this location for several years. When I heard it was now being hosted by Gallo's my quest for top tier seafood was sparked and encouraged.

The large room is sparingly decorated—if at all—at this point, with just two odd prints on the wall and what appears to be the original bright orange banquettes along the walls. Floors are gray hard surfaces, and lighting fixtures, at least, give a warmer glow to a cool environment. Pale green cloth napkins and bright crystal set each place. One warmed with wine dispensing, I'm certain the ambiance will improve greatly.

Our server, Kristen, was delightful. Full of the good cheer and vibrance needed for the meal ahead.

We ordered a rather simple meal as a taste test this visit: A Caesar Salad (split to serve two) and each had the Tuscan Salmon dish. Both were excellent with fine flavor, generous in size, and fresh preparation.

Only issue that I had at this point, was under seasoning of the salmon, and sparse presentation in the plating. But give them a chance, I'm certain their operation once in full swing, will be a winning location and a real treasure for the neighborhood.

GOOD NEWS in the NEIGHBORHOOD

SUMMER VACATION!

RON DORFMAN'S grandsons, Emmett & Maxwell, along with their dad, Michael, visited The Villas at Five Ponds in June and had a whirlwind East Coast adventure. It included day trips and a stop at Shady Maple—their favorite smorgasbord—a highly recommended Lancaster County destination.

CRUISING!

SHARYN & BOB POLSKY recently enjoyed their cruise aboard the Norwegian Jewel sailing to Bermuda and Charleston.

Thank You

I WANT TO EXTEND MY HEARTFELT THANKS to all of you who reached out with phone calls, cards, and well wishes after my recent surgery. Your kindness, concern, and encouragement truly meant a great deal to me. Recovery is a process, but knowing I am part of such a caring and supportive community has made it easier and lifted my spirits. I am grateful to live among neighbors who look out for one another in such genuine ways. Thank you again for your thoughtfulness. It is deeply appreciated.

MEMORIAL DAY BARBECUE

■ BARB FELDMAN & MARY LOU NODIFF

DUE TO A HORRIBLE WEATHER FORECAST ON SATURDAY, MAY 23RD, for the first time, we had to use our rain date for our Memorial Barbecue.

With the help of our dedicated committee of women and men, we were able to rearrange the multi-purpose room, game and card rooms to make our barbecue a shining success. We could never have done it without our team.

We want to thank all who attended and brought a variety of delicious sides and desserts.

We also appreciated your patience with the changes that needed to be made, so we could continue our traditional Memorial Barbecue Celebration!

We hope to see everyone again next year!

ENTRANCES/OPENING DOORS

The Board works very hard to make our clubhouse a safe and secure place for our residents.

Leaving a door open for an excess period of time or allowing entrance to people who claim to be other residents guests....are two ways residents of Five Ponds are making our clubhouse less safe...so please stop doing these things immediately.

Thank you!
