Congratulations!

Each semester my office contacts graduating students to invite them to identify individuals from MTSU's faculty, staff or administration who significantly contributed to their success while at the University. The students are told that letters of appreciation will be sent to those that they identify to recognize their service to students and the University community.

You were cited as a person at MTSU who makes a real difference to our students. The students' responses are their way of recognizing you for your influence on and commitment to their development. Since the students are not required to sign their nominations, this anonymous gesture should be considered as the sincerest form of compliment.

You should feel a true sense of accomplishment in the knowledge that your efforts at MTSU have not gone unnoticed by this semester's graduates. It is commitment such as yours that enhances our students' academic and personal development.

On behalf of the students at MTSU, thank you for meeting their needs with such dedication. And from the Division of Student Affairs, thank you for all you do to make MTSU the outstanding university that it is.

Sincerely,
