

QUANTUM METAPHYSICAL SELF-CARE AND THE MYSTICAL SCIENCE OF NUMBERS IN A RAPIDLY CHANGING WORLD FROM DR. JOSEPH MICHAEL LEVRY

January 21, 2021

Navigating these Critical Times, Preventing the Past from Repeating Itself, and Healing Emotional Trauma brought on by the Global Pandemic with Divine Spiritual Wisdom

In order to understand the present, we need to understand the past because unknown to most, the past announces the future. Interestingly, the present as well as the future very often repeat the past. Physical existence is based upon cycles. In the same way that it takes about 26000 years for our planet to complete an evolutionary cycle, global pandemics and planetary events also occur in cycles. Today, we are witnessing a cycle of Uranus in Taurus, a clear example of how cycles of nature from the past can return with full force, leading to the challenges we face today.

We can see the veracity of the divine cycles during the recent US elections. The events and discourse during the elections and leading up to the inauguration played out in direct accordance with the planetary cycles of the key political leaders.

Our world is currently experiencing a planetary alignment of major significance. What is happening in the world today, including the global pandemic, natural disasters, political unrest, racial intolerance, and high levels of unemployment, bear an unmistakable resemblance to events that happened in the 1930's and 1940's including the Second World War.

The current planetary alignment in the sky shows that Uranus is in the zodiac sign of Taurus during the seven year span from 2020-2026. Mystics are familiar with this conjunction and recognize it to be both constructive and disruptive. Observing past conjunctions of Uranus in Taurus allows us to intelligently address what is happening in the world today. The last time that Uranus was in Taurus, from 1934 to 1942, the world witnessed the rise of Hitler and the first half of World War II. At that time, the holocaust of Nazi Germany, genocide and the philosophy of eugenics was prevalent, targeting the extinction of Jews, homosexuals, the disabled and anyone deemed impure or inferior. Fascism arose in many places in Europe and focused on the abuse of power by the few over the many. Also homelessness and unemployment reached unprecedented levels, brought on by the economic depression as well as natural events such as earthquakes, floods, storms, and drought. We cannot afford to ignore this connection between the past and what is happening in the world today.

The future of humanity at this time lies in how we individually and collectively transform and empower ourselves to navigate this cosmic evolutionary interval. The Metaphysical Technology of Numbers is needed now in order to sidestep the potentially destructive pitfalls of our own human nature as seen at different times in history, so we may access the higher truths and blessings that this present age of change is aspiring to communicate.

By working with the Laws of Nature, and studying the movements of the stars, we can get in touch with the intelligent forces that provide greater insight into why events such as these repeat themselves and how to avoid becoming a victim of them. For this we must look to the heavens. The planets and the stars hold the meaning of life and are a constant source of help to humankind. Since the beginning of time, the stars and planets have continually positioned and repositioned themselves, to broadcast, for all on Earth to see, both cautionary and inspirational messages. Divine Spiritual Wisdom and the wisdom it imparts, empowers us to interpret these universal messages with great accuracy and to transform our consciousness so we can serve as positive instruments for the transformation of the planet during critical times.

“By working with the Laws of Nature, and studying the movements of the stars, we can get in touch with the intelligent forces that provide greater insight into why events such as these repeat themselves and how to avoid becoming a victim of them.”

Divine Spiritual Wisdom reveals the power of human intervention over fate, so that we may avoid finding ourselves on the wrong side of choices that we sometimes make that lead to disastrous results for ourselves and possibly others. We need to learn how the laws of nature work and how the universe is operating. Through the knowledge of these laws, accurate predictions can be made to heal humankind. The world of human behavior is probabilistic, but universal laws are not. Divine Providence guides the life of humans through certain laws. There are laws which regulate all processes, and circumstances in life. All natural laws are mathematical and predictable. We must strive to have a correct understanding of these Laws in order to develop our consciousness. This knowledge helps us to form the tools we need to overcome our weaknesses so that we may construct our lives according to our ideals as opposed to being vulnerable to external forces. It is our responsibility, individually and collectively to rise in consciousness so that we do not fall victim of the disruptive influences of this or any planetary alignment and repeat negative cycles from the past.

The Metaphysical Technology of Numbers

Mystical numbers are the expression of the forces of the Creator, which permeate the laws of nature and influence every part of our world. When we begin to understand that the entire universe is very mathematical, we can grasp the breathtaking precision of the rhythm of the universe and use it for the greater good of the individual and the collective. Studying both the Metaphysical Technology of Numbers and the stars allows us to experience the freedom that can be gained from knowing the deep arcanal wisdom embodied within them. This allows us to better understand ourselves, the world and the suffering of others in a way that empowers us to be calm, helpful and to give the best of guidance where needed. The Metaphysical Technology of Numbers reveals to the mystic the past, present and future of what they represent.

Through the sacred lens of Divine Spiritual Wisdom, which bestows upon us an understanding of the mysticism of numbers, the metaphysics of numbers, the philosophy of numbers and the wisdom of numbers, we are guided by divinity to achieve higher consciousness. The Metaphysical Technology of Numbers teaches us that little known aspect of mystical numbers that moves time and space, which remains hidden to the average person.

The Psychotherapeutic Application of Quantum Metaphysical Self-Care in a Changing World

Much of humanity is silently suffering from pain caused by the traumatic events attendant with the global pandemic at this time. We must address the ramification of this trauma and its impact upon future generations. Traumatic experiences can send waves of suffering from one generation to the next, passing from great grandparents, to grandparents, to parents, to children. The Psychotherapeutic Application of Quantum Metaphysical Self-Care, as found in Divine Spiritual Wisdom, organizes and harmonizes our inner forces, coordinating and directing them towards a mindful life. It regulates the physical, spiritual and mental processes of both man and woman.

Unresolved mental and emotional trauma can lead to the collective and intergenerational trauma that occurs when people experience unbearable trauma created either on the familial or the societal level. The feelings attendant with the experience of trauma can become so overwhelming that they often extend beyond the scope of what an individual can bear. Most of us do not realize that we are suffering more from the mistakes of our forefathers than from our own. Just as physical features are passed down from generation to generation, so is unresolved trauma. Submerged pain must find an alternate pathway for expression and resolution.

Throughout the history of the human race we see examples of societal trauma passed down through the trauma of war, genocide, poverty, oppression, slavery and disease. Whether afflicted or inflicted, each continent, country, race, religion and group of people are processing the pain and traumatic events of their collective past. The trauma caused by this global pandemic can become embedded in the deep recesses of the brain, and ultimately compromise our ability to control our destiny.

“Unresolved mental and emotional trauma can lead to the collective and intergenerational trauma that occurs when people experience unbearable trauma created either on the familial or the societal level.”

All of us suffer from the misdeeds of previous generations. We can inherit emotional trauma, addictive behaviors, fears and mental illnesses, in the same way that we can inherit a certain eye color. Although it is not always easy to break patterns hidden in the subconscious, it is possible. With the Psychotherapeutic Application of Metaphysical Self-Care, we can bring the shadows of the collective unconscious of our society into the Light, in the face of this global pandemic, so that they may be integrated for our greatest good and the greatest good of future generations.
