A Proud Tradition of Craftsmanship

Sika Design has been designing and manufacturing the finest handmade furniture for more than 70 years — from its humble origins in 1942 with a first batch of lamps, tables and baskets made of rush and willow, to an internationally acclaimed company trusted by many hotels, restaurants and bars all over the world. Denmark’s Sika Design can rightfully call itself Scandinavia’s oldest producer of rattan and wicker furniture.

Each and every Sika Design piece is handled with care and passion, from the designing phase to the thoughtful manufacturing process taking place in its own factory in Indonesia. In their Icons and Exterior collections, you will find designs by world-renowned architects and designers such as Arne Jacobsen, Nanna Ditzel, Franco Albini, Viggo Boesen, and Tove Kindt Larsen.

Since Sika Design was founded, sustainability has been an integrated part of its mindset. Throughout the years, they have developed a systematic effort to ensure as little as possible strain on the environment through the sourcing of raw materials, optimization of production processes, and sustainable transportation and distribution.

Third-generation owner Louise Andreasen has worked side by side with her father to bring Sika Design into the new century with timeless design, while never letting go of its strong heritage of great craftsmanship.

TOLIX®

A Symbol of the French Way of Life

Tolix is a mythical name, a symbol of the French way of life and the unique know-how that reminds us that furniture is a form of art. Tolix products are entirely made in France — designed, formed, welded, and hand-assembled at the factory in Autun — and have remained true to the company's Burgundian values and origins.

Tolix's creations are on display at the MoMA in New York, the Georges Pompidou Centre in Paris, and the Vitra Design Museum in Germany — and they regularly appear on the pages of design magazines around the world. Tolix furniture profiles are some of the most imitated in the world, yet none can beat the reliability of the original manufacturer for durability and quality standards.

Contemporary Design and Italian Manufacturing Heritage

In 2014, one of Italy's largest furniture producers, Cerantola, created Colos with the intention to develop designer-centric, affordable products. Colos believes that style and quality should not be the exclusive domain of the few.

Colos' focus is to find the best possible interaction between young, multicultural designers and Italian manufacturing heritage. The encounter between the designers' creative process and Cerantola's technical expertise leads to solid and elegant products developed within an optimized production process at facilities in Loria, Italy.

Colos produces furnishing elements for public spaces, both indoor and outdoor. The frame styles and materials are focused on the hospitality sector, suitable for high use and all weather and often stackable for easy storage.
