After a tasty breakfast, meet our guide at the hotel for a half-day gourmet tour of Bologna, the capital of Emilia-Romagna and whose essence is food and history. During our tour, discover Bologna's finest fares at the bustling medieval markets of the city – the Quadrilatero, Mercato di Mezzo, Mercato delle Erbe. As we wander around the medieval markets, sample a selection of mouth-watering delights such as mortadella, ciccioli, salsiccia passita, and chocolate- this food tour might be a good substitute for lunch.

After our gourmet tour of Bologna, we will be transferred to Modena for a vinegar factory visit and tasting. Sample and learn about this unique product with a thousand-year history and use in a wide range of dishes.

The estate is arranged according to the original layout of the Renaissance period. The rooms have been carefully restored and furnished with authentic antiques. All the rooms overlook the century-old park and the breathtaking Mugello Valley. The villa's chef will reveal secrets to prepare excellent quality pasta. We will make and roll out basic egg pasta dough in many shapes and colors. We might learn how to prepare potato gnocchi (nicknamed "little mice" in Mugello) and the potato tortello, a specialty of "Mugellana" cuisine.

After lunch, we will be privately transferred by minibus to San Gimignano, a beautiful town nestled between the Sienese hills and the sunny Val d'Elsa hills, surrounded by thirteenth-century walls and rich in still intact medieval charm.
