

SPECTRUM

Kamal Katak and Devajit Bhuyan

Bhupenda
Bard of the Brahmaputra

DEVAJIT BHUYAN was born at Tezpur, Assam, India, on Aug. 1, 1961. He completed Bachelor of Engineering (Electrical) from Assam Engineering College and LL.B. from Gauhati University. Devajit Bhuyan is a Fellow of the Institution of Engineers (India) and after 22 years in the Petroleum and natural gas sectors, has now set up his own Institute for further learning.

Author of Multiple Career Choices (Pustak Mahal) and 21st Century Rhymes (Vishv Books), he has also authored The Big Bang to Bill Gates, Kalpana Chawla from Karnal to Cape Canaveral, Daughters of the Soil, and The making of a Goddess (all from Spectrum Publications), He can be contacted through his email id: devajitbhuyan@gmail.com

KAMAL CHANDRA KATAKI was born in the year 1961 at Raha of Nagaon district and completed his schooling from Raha Higher Secondary School. He completed his B.E. (Civil) from Jorhat Engineering College in the year 1984 and subsequently his M.E. (Civil) from Assam Engineering College in the year 1997. Presently he is working as a Lecturer (Selection Grade) in Assam Engineering Institute, Guwahati. Katakai was associated with Dr. Bhupen Hazarika as a Guitarist for more than 25 years and was his Honorary Secretary for North East India activities from 1998 till his mentor's recent death.

An avid collector of Bhupenda memorabilia he is in possession of some rare photographs etc. Possibly he was closest to Bhupenda from his home State.