FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The United States Presidential Service Center International Film Festival Announces 2025 Winners, Honoring Global Excellence in Filmmaking

Grover, NC, USA – The United States Presidential Service Center International Film Festival (USPSC IFF) proudly celebrates another groundbreaking year, recognizing outstanding films from around the world. With esteemed Chairperson Prince Kojo Hilton of Ghana and the internationally recognized Charlene Doak-Gebaurer of Canada, the festival continues to shine as a premier platform for cinematic storytelling that inspires, educates, and moves audiences.

This year's festival welcomed exceptional filmmakers through FilmFreeway, the world's #1 platform for film festival submissions, reinforcing USPSC IFF's commitment to discovering and uplifting global talent as a Gold Member.

2025 Award Winners

 1st Place – Grand Prize Golden Chalice Winner
Seventy-Four – Directed by Bill Thibeault

 2nd Place – Silver Medalist
Antigone – Directed by Peyman Rajabi

 3rd Place – Bronze Plaque Winner
Broughton: The Awakening – Directed by John Cameron Costellow

People's Choice Awards

 John F. Kennedy – Directed by Joshua Buyukyilmaz

 Brother's Horn – Directed by Majid Asadi

A special highlight of this every year's festival was a Mardi Gras theme with food on Fat Tuesday, the same day as this year's festival. AMERICA 250 AND GUMBO! For this time of year and ALL YEAR LONG we encouraged folks to try the famed Gumbo recipe loved by so many Presidents with a French Roux and Choctaw Indian File Powder made from ground Sassafras leaves! We love showcasing the Germans, Italians, Choctaw, Africans, French, Acadians, and Spanish who come together to make Louisiana food so famous!!!

"The United States Presidential Service Center International Film Festival is a beacon for filmmakers who seek to tell stories that resonate on a global scale," said Prince Kojo Hilton, Chairperson. "Each of these films brings forth a unique perspective, and we are honored to celebrate the artists behind them."

The USPSC IFF continues to stand as a prestigious platform for visionary storytellers. Submissions for the next festival cycle are now open at www.uspsciff.com, welcoming filmmakers from all backgrounds to share their voices with the world.
