Marti is a world-known CEO at The US Presidential Service Center Foundation Trusts and US Presidential Culinary Museum with The Inn of the Patriots. Delivering over 200 speeches and keynotes led to authoring 100+ papers with nine books. He's reaching almost three billion viewers on three continents of TV and in 160+ newspapers and magazines like The New Yorker, Washington Post, The London Times, India Times, FOOD TV Network Magazine, The Australian, LA Times, Charlotte Observer, TODAY Show, Yahoo front page and many more with close to six million fans and followers.

Successful skills back him as a hands-on webmaster, graphic designer, marketing expert, accountant, hospitality manager, and executive chef with two

Master's degrees working in his spare time towards a Doctoral. His focus is on bringing properties to global acclaim and keeping them inside the top 3% ranked and awarded on earth. His score for years on the Annual Booking.com World Awards is a 9.8 out of 10 with diamond rankings from AAA. Google and TripAdvisor tourism ratings likewise average 4.6 to 4.8 every year. He creates, invents, and manufactures brands associated with CPG products for sale, helping the television, media, and publicity driving ensuing sales across the earth as a digital UX/CX/UI expert. As a polymath, polyhistor, and savant, he has used his skills for the poor and to help feed the world. Most recently, he helped raise $567,000.00 in one night for Cystic Fibrosis at Quail Hollow Country Club, by serving dinner to 328 people. Marti has worked with hunger associations and orphanages on three continents.

Marti holds Master Certified Food Executive (MCFE), Certified Professional Food Manager (CPFM), Certified Household Manager (CHM), and ServSafe Certified Manager credentials in all 50 states. He uses his highly awarded skills to ensure food service at attractions, resorts, and museums are through the roof and off the charts. And this is a primary area that a highly educated museum expert and creative can excel at in being a world chef and CEO. Because he is widely acclaimed as a master in his global field, team members enjoy working with him, take pictures with him, and seek to attain letters of reference with future placement worldwide. As a superlative coach and mentor, Marti has placed team members into the highest museums, resorts, and attractions for 30+ years. Understanding the current predictions of workers will be at 30 different jobs in a lifetime now - he plans and helps each person to map out positions progressively across decades of their career. This unique level of genuine interest is real and uncommon. And he keeps in touch with them during their time on earth as a top-1% ranked LinkedIn.com member since it began. He realizes that expertise in curatorial work and mesmerizing, captivating, cutting-edge, highly-awarded exhibit designs must be matched with massive endowment and donations - his understanding and relationships with the two percent work exceptionally well together. But, Marti also brings human care and inspiration to everything he does.

His name is in bronze on the Charlotte, NC Walk of Fame between Wells Fargo Bank and the Harvey Gantt African American Museum for contributions to black history of the region, and revolutionary war work. Marti wears the Iraq Medal and was knighted in Europe in the Order of St. Thomas More IACK while living there. He also is a LIFE gold medal awardee from the AJCA Japan association, where he lived, and recipient of the Iraqi Commitment Medal from the people of Iraq.

Marti is also a disabled and injured military veteran who retired with 30 years of repeated war service in theaters via the US Navy. With the management of the Camp David Resort and Conference Center, working as a White House Chef, he honed his craft to titan levels.

He is a Qualified Submarine Service Warrior, served as a Seabee, conducted security for the Blue Angels, was trained as a Squad Leader in anti-terrorism by the US Marine Corps, graduated first in his class for Law Enforcement Academy, and is a Qualified Surface Warrior. He has a no-nonsense style of coaching and management built upon working up to 18 hours per day X 7 for 126-hour workweeks sustained by the superior performance it takes to last decades at a time. He is an advocate of the four-day workweek. He loves to laugh at the job and trains people on how to enjoy what they do. Going to “fun” four days a week is better than going to work. Sustainment of excellence is paramount to him over spurts of excellence.

Combined with a high IQ to graduate nuclear submarine school, his military service includes riding camels and white Arabian horses in the desert, exploring the jungle and tunnels of Korea, and going to the North Pole. Individuals seeking to work with Marti, who do not hold a credible interest in earning respect each day - regardless of rank, coaching, praising at work, will be sniffed out in seconds by him as fake. He highly adheres to the principles of Doctors Ornish, Erikson, Albert Ellis of NY, Deming, Blanchard, and Covey. He graduated from the Franklin-Covey Institute for Management and Leadership, celebrating team members and enjoys Jeffrey J. Fox's many books.

With a decade+ of operating the private mansion, museum, cooking school, spa, gift shops, and country inn on the Grover, NC property (Southwest of Charlotte, NC) came the most recent award of Best on the American Eastern Seaboard from LUX Magazine of London.

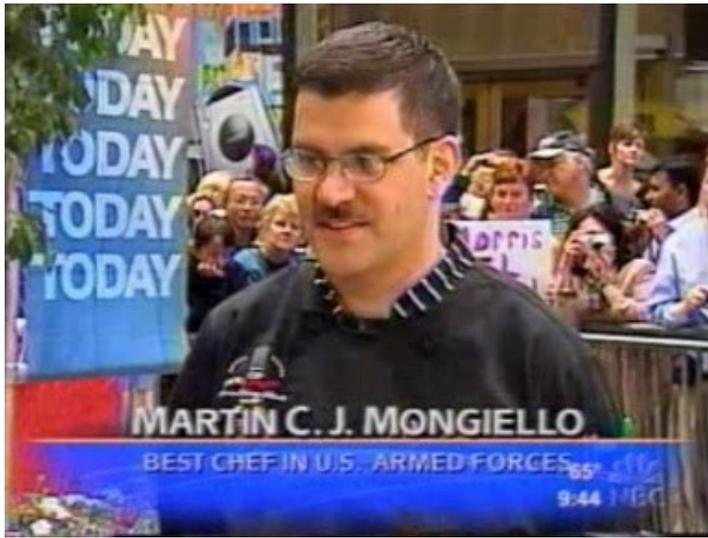

Marti was the Executive Chef to the President of the United States of America and a Manager of the world's most exclusive resort, a butler, housekeeper, Presidential Aide, and bartender at The Camp David Resort, atop the Catoctin Mountains chain. He also attended many events in the White House and cooked for US State Dinners. Holding numerous security clearances, Chef Marti was elevated to a Top Secret, Yankee White, Category II SSBI clearance at 27 years old and began shopping, cooking, and serving the most influential leaders on earth. His training spans nuclear weapons, nuclear power, biological, and chemical warfare, as well as curating Smithsonian and Library of Congress pieces. He maintained the President's private office and library collections including individual gifts from stars and glitterati. One of his teams won the International Food Service Executives Association (IFSEA) Captain Edward F. Ney World Award for Best Restaurant in the world, and he was selected to represent the US Navy on the TODAY Show. He has the distinction of being one of the most decorated hospitality managers in the history of the Navy. Awards include a Presidential Service Badge (#14592), numerous world culinary medals, the Joint Chiefs of Staff Badge, five Navy Achievement Medals, two Joint Meritorious Unit Commendation ribbons with Wyndham Worldwide. His fiduciary experience spans half of the earth's responsibility, close to 7,000 employees, dozens of direct reports, and $2.6 billion per year in sales.

"Marti and Stormy Mongiello are a national treasure."

Paul Brandus, 25-year White House correspondent for West Wing Reports, writing for Dow Jones Market Watch, the Wall Street Journal, and USA Today.

Marti's family manages the #1 ranked country inn in the world for the category of history, The Inn of the Patriots. It is home to the cooking school with 5,074 graduates, the US Presidential Culinary Museum, Nature and Earth Spa, The US Presidential Service Center, two gift shops, and the TV and stage show, Inside the Presidents' Cabinet. They are presently carrying a 4.6 to 4.8 review status on world booking engines and are listed in the top 3% of all hotels on earth.

As a keynote speaker, Marti gets the audience mesmerized and captivated, often relieved and laughing with endless comments about, "he celebrates everything terrific about America, our Presidents, and the White House - yet doesn't bash or sling, smear or torch people. It's not that he doesn't take on severe issues, leaving attendees on the edge of their seats - he does. You feel like you are out there on a tightrope, 2000 feet up in the sky with him holding that balancing bar in your hands between the two skyscrapers. He shifts from first to the third person and does a dozen+ accents, runs the audience through fear, anger, rage, and raw power, poisoning, nuclear launch biscuit, nuclear football, and being screamed at by the President. Marti talks about guests lit on fire during holiday celebrations at the White House screaming and cursing and workers being arrested and sprung out of jail by the President! When it's time to laugh, you feel consolation, calm, and a release you've never known." Allan Miller, Palm Beach.
