THE UNITED STATES PRESIDENTIAL SERVICE CENTER®
ANNOUNCES AWARD OF THE GOLD DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL
TO WWII VETERAN BOMBER AND NOTED HISTORIAN MR. DALE DYER OF BLUE RIDGE, GEORGIA AT THE INOLA BLUE RIDGE COLONIAL RESORT

Blue Ridge, GA. – The famed WWII Army Air Corps pilot, Mr. Dale Dyer, will be awarded the Gold Distinguished Service Medal (serial number 1806) on Monday, August 5, at 1 pm. A ceremony will be hosted by Mr. Rick Skelton and Ms. Susie Council at the Inola at Blue Ridge Colonial Resort on route 5 (near Mercier Orchards) by the US Presidential Service Center (USPSC). Mr. Martin CJ Mongiello will present the Distinguished Service Medal (DSM) and jewel box as the CEO of the US Presidential Service Center in the authentic colonial American Chapel with the ringing of the bells. The public is welcomed as friends in fellowship.

Captain Dyer is the famed Fannin County historian, author, and columnist as well as a 458th Bomb Group, Eighth Air Force, Second Division member. He was born in 1919. His contributions to American history are legendary. INOLA at Blue Ridge is located at 9265 Blue Ridge Drive, Blue Ridge, GA 30513, <http://www.inolablueridge.com> It is a wedding and resort destination.

The U.S. Presidential Service Center® features the most extensive and most comprehensive private collections of memorabilia ever displayed in service to the Presidency. It, in turn, honors other patriots. The museum has been featured to almost three billion viewers on six continents via CNN, FOX, PBS, ABC, NBC, and CBS specials and in just over 160 newspapers and magazines.
