2. Definitions

2.1 Bring the game of baseball into disrepute

A Participant shall at all times act in the best interests of the game and shall not act in any manner which is improper or brings the game into disrepute or use any one, or a combination of, violent conduct, serious foul play, threatening, abusive, indecent or insulting words or behaviour.

By way of example a current player convicted of a drug offence and it is known that he plays baseball could bring the game into disrepute. An administrator of a baseball club could be held to bring the game of baseball into disrepute if found to have stolen from the baseball club or others associated with baseball. A coach of a baseball side is convicted of Family Violence.

2.2 Abuse towards umpire

The abuse can be verbal abuse (such as name calling), or physical abuse (such as punching).

In the BBA physical contact with an umpire is a reportable offence. The use of minor indecent language or threatening behaviour are reportable offences in the BBA. Abuse in general terms would be acts akin to alleging the umpire is cheating, that he has accepted a bribe or anything that impinges upon the character of the umpire. The actual abuse does not necessarily need to be heard by the umpire but would require another person to refer the charge to the Pennant Committee.

2.3 Egregious misconduct

Egregious, meaning outstandingly bad, shocking in nature and Misconduct meaning unacceptable or improper behaviour. Example - a player is reported for using threatening language, the player before departing escalates incident by using extreme indecent language and gestures and continues to make threats. Offence to be utilised along with minor, moderate and significant incidents that may have also been committed.

2.4 Intimidating Play means to frighten or scare an opponent during a game by action, deed or verbal interaction.

2.5 Malicious Game Play

In reference to throwing a "beanball" which is to throw at an opposing player with the intention of striking them such to cause harm, often connoting a throw at the player's head. Batter deliberately striking catcher with bat.

2.6 Offensive Interference

Intentional and severe contact with the catcher when play at home plate

2.7 Sledging

means a term to describe the practice whereby some players seek to gain an advantage by insulting or verbally intimidating the opposing player. The purpose is to try to weaken the opponent's concentration, thereby causing them to make mistakes or underperform.

2.8 Unsportsmanlike conduct

Unsportsmanlike conduct (also called unsporting behaviour or ungentlemanly conduct or bad sportsmanship or poor sportsmanship) is a foul or offence that violates the sport's generally accepted rules of sportsmanship and participant conduct. Examples include verbal abuse or taunting of an opponent, an excessive celebration following a scoring play, or feigning injury.

2.9 Racial, Religious and Gender Vilification

means a person must not, by a public act, incite hatred towards, serious contempt for, or severe ridicule of, a person or group of persons on the ground of their race by threatening or inciting other to threaten physical harm to the person, or members of the group, or to property of the person or members of the group.

Behaviour that is likely to be racial, religious or gender vilification includes -

- speaking about a person's race, religion or gender in a way that could make other people hate or ridicule them*
- publishing claims that a racial, religious or gender group is involved in serious crimes without any proof*
- repeated and serious spoken or physical abuse about the race, religion or gender of another person*
- encouraging violence against people who belong to a particular race, religion or gender also includes damaging their property*
- encouraging people to hate a racial or religious group using flyers, stickers, posters, a speech or publication, or using websites or email.*

Vilification is behaviour that incites hatred, serious contempt for, or revulsion or severe ridicule of a person or group of people because of their gender, ability, cultural background, religion and sexual orientation. The legal definition is conduct that 'incites hatred, serious contempt, revulsion or severe ridicule'.
