Therefore, it is important that you always represent both yourself and Bendigo Baseball Association Inc appropriately online.

6. Guidelines

You must adhere to the following guidelines when using social media related to Bendigo Baseball Association Inc. or its business, products, competitions, teams, participants, services, events, sponsors, members, or reputation.

6.1 Use common sense.

Whenever you are unsure as to whether the content you wish to share is appropriate, seek advice from others (such as Tribunal chair, Competition Coordinator, or the President of the BBA) before doing so or refrain from sharing the content to be on the safe side.

6.1.1 When using social media, the lines between public and private, personal, and professional, may be blurred. Remember, you are an ambassador for Bendigo Baseball Association Inc.

6.2 Protecting your privacy.

Be smart about protecting yourself and your privacy.

6.2.1 When posting content online there is potential for that content to become publicly available through a variety of means, even if it was intended to be shared privately. Therefore, you should refrain from posting any content online that you would not be happy for anyone to see, even if you feel confident that a particular individual would never see it.

6.2.2 Where possible, privacy settings on social media platforms should be set to limit access. You should also be cautious about disclosing your personal details.

6.3 Honesty

Your honesty, or dishonesty, may be quickly noticed in the social media environment. Do not say anything that is dishonest, untrue, or misleading. If you are unsure, check the source and the facts before uploading or posting anything. The BBA Inc. recommends erring on the side of caution, if in doubt, do not post or upload.

6.3.1 Do not post anonymously, using pseudonyms or false screen names. Be transparent and honest. Use your real name, be clear about who you are and identify any affiliations you have.

6.4 Use of disclaimers.

Wherever practical, include a prominent disclaimer stating who you work for or are affiliated with (e.g. member of Bendigo Baseball Association Inc) and that anything you publish is your personal opinion and that you are not speaking officially. This is good practice and is encouraged, but don't count on it to avoid trouble – it may not have legal effect.
