

BILLS MAFIA LEGEND PIZZA PETE LIVE AT DAM DAY!

Yes... that Pizza Pete.

We're talking about "Pizza Pete" (Pete Papagelis)—the legendary Bills Mafia tailgater who's been slinging pies since 1995 out of a repurposed metal filing cabinet at Hammer's Lot. Not kidding. Filing cabinet. Charcoal-fired. Totally legit.

A staple of the Buffalo tailgate scene, Pizza Pete has built a cult following with his one-of-a-kind setup—cooking pizzas with charcoal heat (top and bottom), cutting them with garden shears, and somehow turning it all into a thing of beauty. His signature pies—made with homemade sauce, Wegmans dough, and a special cheese blend are award winning!

In other words... this guy isn't just making pizza. He's performing.

WHAT TO EXPECT

- A true Bills Mafia experience—right at Rushford Lake
- Pizza made the wildest (and most entertaining) way you've ever seen
- A chance to meet a tailgating legend
- Stories, laughs, and maybe a few "how is this even working?" moments.

Whether you're a diehard Bills fan or just appreciate someone who takes their craft to the next level (and then some), Pizza Pete is a must-see.

Dam Day
Aug 8
at the Dam Park
7860 Mill St
10AM - 7PM

BONUS: MEET & GREET OPPORTUNITY

Stop by, say hello, grab a photo, and witness the magic up close. Because let's be honest... how often do you get pizza out of a filing cabinet?

Come for the dam... stay for the pizza.
