

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG)

HOMES AND COMMUNITY RENEWAL (HCR)

Deadline July 28th 4PM

TYPES OF PROGRAMS

- Community Planning
- Economic Development and Small Business
- Public Infrastructure & Public Facilities
- Microenterprise Assistance (Open Round)

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

- Cities, towns, and villages with populations under 50,000
- counties with an area Population under 200,000,

FUNDING AMOUNTS

- Vary per project

CDBG OBJECTIVES

- Support a mix of rehabilitation and conversion activities to preserve and increase affordable housing for homeowners and renters
- Encourage investment in communities by assisting local governments in devising and implementing economic development strategies to revitalize viable communities and provide economic opportunities that principally benefit low- and moderate-income persons
- Revitalize the vibrancy of New York's communities and enhance the quality of life
- Develop and implement strategies that facilitate the coordination of CDBG funding with other Federal, State, and local community development resources.

2023 New York State CDBG funding for Public Infrastructure, Public Facilities and Community Planning applications will be accepted beginning Monday May 1, 2023. Applications will be accepted through the Consolidated Funding Application (CFA) system until 4:00 PM, EST, Friday, July 28, 2023.

T2023 New York State CDBG housing applications will be accepted beginning Wednesday, May 10, 2023. Applications will be accepted through the Community Development Online (CDOL) system until 4:00 PM, EST, Friday, August 25, 2023.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

- REDC Website
- 2023 Available CFA Resources
- CFA Program Questions

OCR will provide technical assistance regarding the application, proposed projects, and program regulations to applicants upon request.

Applicants can contact OCR staff at HCR_CFA@hcr.ny.gov or 518-474-2057 for assistance.

Mohawk Valley Economic Development District, Inc

For more info visit mvedd.org/cfa-information

