

Change is Inevitable. Progress is a Choice.

Marion Terenzio, Ph.D.

Co-Chair, Mohawk Valley Regional Economic Development Council

President, SUNY Cobleskill

An aerial photograph of a town situated along a river. The town features several large, modern buildings and a parking lot. The river flows through the foreground, and the background shows rolling hills under a clear sky. The image is overlaid with three lines of white text, each separated by a thin orange horizontal line.

Recovery is difficult but brings opportunity

Ecosystem approach to shared vitality

Rising waters lift all boats

Vision of transformative vitalization

What makes a community vibrant?

Cultural common ground

Challenges answered through collaboration

An outdated binary lens

Building an interconnected society

An aerial photograph of a valley. In the foreground, a river flows through a wooded area. In the middle ground, there are several large, modern buildings and a large parking lot. In the background, there are rolling hills and more buildings. The overall scene is a mix of nature and urban development.

Economic development ecosystem

Agriculture's place in Tech Valley

“It takes a village”

Transdisciplinary partnerships

Bi-directional influence

Intersection of agriculture and technology

Meet demands of Industry 4.0

Operate beyond our four walls

Change is inevitable. Progress is a choice.

Future defined by transformative vitalization

Entrepreneurship at the heart of innovation

Thank you.

Marion Terenzio, Ph.D.

terenzma@cobleskill.edu

518.255.5111

"A Pivotal Moment" –
Our New Reality is Upon Us

2021 White Paper