

HOW TO IDENTIFY CYANOBACTERIA BLOOMS AND THE ROLE OF PUBLIC HEALTH TRAINING WEBINAR

In Collaboration with the Tri-Town Health District, the Southern Berkshire Public Health Collaborative, and the Department of Public Health Bureau of Climate and Environmental Health

Webinar Highlights

- What are cyanobacteria and cyanotoxins?
- Which water bodies in Berkshire County have reported cyanoHABs from 2008-2025?
- Which genera/species of cyanobacteria are most common in Berkshire County?
- Health outcomes from cyanoHAB exposure
- MDPH guidelines and local healths' role for cyanoHAB response and management
- Bloom warning approaches and available tools/resources for monitoring

RACHEL GLADSTONE
ENVIRONMENTAL ANALYST II,
DIVISION OF ENVIRONMENTAL TOXICOLOGY

JAMES J. WILUSZ
RS, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, TRI-
TOWN HEALTH DEPARTMENT

MARCH 4TH 2026

11AM-12:15pm on Zoom

<https://us06web.zoom.us/j/87325114355>

Meeting ID: 873 2511 4355