

MAGAZINE

WINTERSTATE

VERSE

You, I know you think you're so cool
And your thoughts are so original and new You've got everybody talking but not the way you want them to...

They say,
You'll do anything it takes to get a follow
You can play the role but you're no fing model
Or homegrown celebrity

If you're asking me...

CHORUS:

They oughta put you on a magazine, magazine
Oh you, they oughta put you on a magazine,
'Cause tabloids need covergirls too

(Someone just like you...)

VERSE:

I know,
You never used to be this shallow
Now you're picking fights so you can strike a pose
When the camera's off do you feel underexposed?

Just you wait and see...

CHORUS:

They oughta put you on a magazine, magazine
Oh you, they oughta put you on a magazine,
'Cause tabloids need covergirls... too
