

PARIAH

Winterstate

Here I stand, repentant
What do you want?
What do you need?

Take it as an offering,
And do what you want
Do as you please...

Attention is power

If I can't be the one to save you, make me your pariah
So desperate and shallow
If I can't be your savior, make me your pariah

Revelers and revenant
Rise from your sleep
Awake from your dreams

And take it as an offering,
To do what you want
Do as you please...

Attention is power

If I can't be the one to save you, make me your pariah
So desperate and shallow
If I can't be your savior, make me your pariah

*Cut off the loose ends, I don't care what it takes to keep me in the narrative,
I'll be what you need. I don't care what you think, as long as you still think of me...*

Attention is power

If I can't be the one to save you, make me your pariah
So desperate and shallow
If I can't be your savior, make me your pariah
