Special Offering for May

Holston United Methodist Home
for Children Sunday, May 31

“Holston Home is the place to be,” says Jim, who now has a beautiful family and owns a small business. Jim was 16 when he came to Holston Home from an abusive situation. “It wasn’t fun growing up in my house,” stated Jim, “I felt more like a slave than a kid.” Today, Jim believes that Holston played a key role in helping him get where he needed to be. With your help, children like Jim can experience hope. Please pray for the ministry of Holston Home, and give generously during May for this Special Day Offering.

Your gifts may be mailed, included in your on-line giving, or dropped off at the office. Please call before you come by to be sure someone is there.
