The Flame

From the Pastor's Study:

March has arrived, and as winter gives way to spring, we continue our Lenten journey together. As you know, Lent is a unique time in the life of the church, where we set aside 40 days to intentionally deepen our relationship with God. This could occur through adding spiritual practices or even doing acts of mission/service in Christ's name. You could also deepen your relationship with God by "fasting" from things that might get in the way of that connection. This could mean taking a long break from social media in order to pray, or turning off the TV at night to search the scriptures before you sleep. Overall, Lent provides us (as Christ's disciples) with the opportunity to grow in the faith. Even if you didn't begin a Lenten practice in February, you can still jump in and participate this month. There are many opportunities to be in service, but also fellowship, study, and prayer together.

As this month comes to a close, the season of Lent will come to an end with Palm Sunday worship on March 24th. We will then enter Holy Week, which is one of the most sacred seasons in the church year. This is a time where we will intentionally seek to contemplate the days leading up to the passion and death of our Lord. It is a week meant for prayer, fellowship, scripture meditation, and participation in the story of our Savior. Below is a schedule of all the ways we are planning to move through Holy Week, as a community.

- * Sunday, March 25th: Palm Sunday Worship at 10:30 a.m. in the Sanctuary.
- * Wednesday, March 27th: Pastor's Weekly Bible Study at 10:30 a.m. in the Sanctuary.
- * Wednesday, March 27th Midweek Communion at Noon in the Sanctuary.
- * Thursday, March 28th at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary we will have our annual Maundy Thursday Communion Service with Tenebrae.
- * Friday, March 29th Good Friday Way of the Cross Prayer Walk with Pastor Chris at 11:00 a.m. We will meet and depart from our sanctuary.
- * Saturday, March 30th Community-Wide Easter Egg Hunt at 11:00 a.m. at Houston Park in Downtown Madisonville.
- * Sunday, March 31st -Easter Sunday Worship Sunrise Service at 7:00 a.m. at the home of Don and Kris Browder Address: 645 W. Crestview Dr., Madisonville, TN 34354
 - Fellowship time begins at 10:00 a.m. in the Gathering Area.
 - Easter Worship Service at 10:30 a.m. in our Sanctuary. (Don't forget to bring flowers for the flowering of the Cross outside!)

I hope and pray that you will find ways to participate in some (if not all) of the discipleship opportunities we have planned for you during this sacred season of the year. I look forward to seeing you around the church this month!

Lots of Hope!

Sue's News - March 2024

March!!! Can you believe it! 2024 is flying by. It seems like just yesterday we were celebrating Christmas. Now we are almost 2 weeks into the Lenten season rushing toward Easter Sunday on March 31st. As you read through the newsletter, you can see that we have many exciting events and services coming up during the month of March and during the weeks of Eastertide that follow the actual Easter Sunday. There are eggs to be stuffed and palms to be ordered. There are sermons and lessons to be prepared. There is an Easter cantata to be learned. There are many opportunities to be together and study and prepare for the Easter season. Read and hang on to your March newsletter, watch for emails and texts and check our website 1umcm.com during March so you won't miss any exciting opportunities taking place.

Read Together for March

This year Rev. Chris Black invites you to join him in participating in the Holston Conference's "Read Together" initiative. This opportunity challenges us to read through the whole Bible in one year. In 2024, we will be reading the Bible chronologically using a path laid out in J. Ellsworth Kalas's "The Grand Sweep: 365 Days from Genesis through Revelation". This reading plan asks us to read only 2-3 chapters a day which will be much less burdensome than previous years studies.

Participating in this initiative as a whole congregation can uniquely bind us together as Christ's disciples all while rooting us more deeply in God's word. Even if you didn't read every assigned readings in January or February, you are welcome to jump back in! There are schedules available in the welcome center with each month's readings. As always if you have a question about a passage or verse you are reading, then please call (or text) Pastor Chris or stop by the church office.

Pastor's Weekly Bible Study Continues:

Throughout March Rev. Chris Black will continue to host a weekly home style Bible study class on Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. in our Sanctuary. Pastor Chris is offering a study on Adam Hamilton's book called the "The Walk: 5 Essential Practices of the Christian Life". Even if you haven't attended one of Pastor Chris's studies you are welcome to join this class. Books will be available for sale in the church office for $12.00, or you can order one from Amazon. However, a book isn't essential for attendance. It doesn't matter if you're new to the Christian faith, or have studied the Bible for years you are welcome to be part of this unique study. If you have any questions about the upcoming class please email Pastor Chris at cblack@firstumcmadisonville.org

Maundy Thursday Worship with Tenebrae

On Thursday, March 28th, at 7:00 p.m., our church will have a special evening service marking Holy Thursday. On this night we will remember and celebrate the final supper Jesus shared with his disciples.

Then, through scripture, prayer, light, sound, and darkness, we will also remember what led up to the death and crucifixion of Jesus with a service of Tenebrae.

This service of worship will be a powerful way for us to participate in Holy Week as a community. It will mark the beginning of a vigil of prayer before we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord and Savior on Easter Sunday. We hope you will join us for this unique and powerful worship experience.

Good Friday Stations of the Cross

STATIONS of the CROSS

On Friday, March 29th, at 11:00 a.m. Pastor Chris Black will lead the Way of the Cross through our downtown area. This will be a time for us to intentionally mark Good Friday as a faith community and to consider the full story of Christ's passion. We will meet in the sanctuary of the church and then begin our contemplative walk through downtown, and arrive back at the church once we are done.

As we go we will stop at various places to hear scriptures read and offer prayer together. If you would like to participate, please wear comfortable shoes. If it is raining that day, we will do our prayer walk within the church. We hope to have folks from other churches join us in the walk!

Community Easter Egg Hunt 2024

The excitement is building! It is almost time for our 2024 Community Easter Egg Hunt that will take place on Saturday March 30th at 11:00 AM at Houston Park in downtown Madisonville. Last year's event was a huge success and we need the assistance of the entire church to make this year's event even more spectacular.

This year our friends at Madisonville Presbyterian Church will be helping us put together this very special event. We did the hunt together for several years, and we are going to put our efforts together again this year. Our United Methodist Men will again be serving hot dogs from our command post—Volunteer Federal's Weiner Wagon which we have already reserved. Our United Women in Faith group is going to provide cookies. The plan is for the Presbyterian Church to provide chips and drinks. We'll work out all the details. Our youth group always stuffs and hides the eggs and we'll invite Presbyterian youth to help. We need lots of individually wrapped candy and lots of plastic Easter eggs. We will have a collection tote in the gathering area beginning Sunday March 3rd or you can bring items to the office during the week. The Presbyterians will also provide eggs and candy.

This is a fantastic community outreach opportunity for our church and a good opportunity for us to partner with Madisonville Presbyterian Church. We have done a joint Bible School with them for many years now. We hope that everyone will participate in some way. It is always a fun morning. Make plans right now to bring your children, grandchildren, neighborhood children or any other children you know! Everyone is invited!

A Beginners Guide to General Conference

(Taken from UMC.org)

The United Methodist Church has no pope. But it does have a General Conference — the only body that can set official policy and speak for the international denomination. General Conference brings together lay and clergy delegates from four continents whose decisions will affect how millions of United Methodists do church for years to come. Think of the two-week gathering as a combination of a United Nations General Assembly, a U.S. congressional session and a time of rousing Christian worship. The coming General Conference, now scheduled for April 23-May 3 in Charlotte, North Carolina, comes at a particularly momentous time.

General Conference typically gathers every four years. But because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the assembly could not meet in 2020. That means the last regular session was in May 2016 — nearly eight years ago. In the interim, the denomination has seen a quarter of its U.S. churches depart under a disaffiliation policy that began in 2019 and expired at the end of 2023. What comes next for the international denomination will be largely up to the General Conference itself

Here are answers to frequently asked questions about the big event.

What does General Conference do?

General Conference is the denomination's highest legislative body. As such, it has the authority to make revisions to the denomination's Book of Discipline and Book of Resolutions. The Discipline is the denomination's governing document that contains its doctrine, constitution, church law, rules of organization and procedures. The Book of Resolutions contains the denomination's positions on current social issues. Resolutions expire after eight years unless the General Conference readopts them. General Conference also can approve: theological statements on various subjects, four year budgets for various UMC entities and jurisdictions, the election of members to the judicial council, etc.

Who can propose legislation to General Conference?

The Book of Discipline states that any United Methodist organization, clergy member or lay member may submit a General Conference petition — basically the United Methodist equivalent of a bill before a legislature. All told, the coming General Conference has received 1,099 total valid petitions — including 352 new petitions submitted since the General Conference's delay in 2020.

Where can people see what legislation is under consideration?

The Advance Daily Christian Advocate contains the petitions and reports that will be before delegates. The Advance Daily Christian Advocate is available in PDF form. People also can subscribe online to the Daily Christian Advocate at DailyChristianAdvocate.org. The website includes the proposed legislation and will include the daily proceedings.

Who votes at General Conference?

The coming General Conference plans to have 862 voting delegates — half clergy and half lay. Of the elected delegates, 55.9% are from the U.S., 32% from Africa, 6% from the Philippines, 4.6% from Europe (including Russia) and the remainder from concordat churches that have close ties to The United Methodist Church.

How are the delegates chosen?

Annual conferences — the denomination's regional bodies consisting of lay and clergy voters from multiple churches each elect an allotment of delegates. The United Methodist Church's constitution requires that laity elect the lay delegates, and clergy elect their fellow clergy. The denomination currently has 53 annual conferences in the U.S., and 80 annual conferences in Africa, Europe and the Philippines.

What is the role of bishops at General Conference?

United Methodist bishops have a limited role during the assembly. They preside at General Conference sessions but do not have voice or vote. This means they cannot make motions or advocate for positions from the floor.

How does legislation become church law?

The first step for legislation under consideration at the coming General Conference is one of 14 legislative committees or the Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters. The standing committee is a permanent General Conference committee that deals with matters pertaining to church regions in Africa, Europe and the Philippines. Petitions approved by committee then move on to the full body of delegates for possible further revision and a vote.

What percentage of votes does legislation need to pass?

Most legislation requires only a simple majority of General Conference delegates to pass. Amendments to the denomination's constitution require a two-thirds vote of the General Conference followed by a two-thirds aggregate vote of the lay and clergy members present and voting in the annual conferences.

Changes to the denomination's doctrinal standards, which includes basic Christian tenets such as belief in Christ's resurrection and the Trinity, require at least a two-thirds vote of the General Conference followed by three-fourths aggregate vote of the lay and clergy members present and voting in the annual conferences. The United Methodist Church has never altered its doctrinal standards before, and no proposals before the coming General Conference seek to alter them.

When does newly passed legislation take effect?

Legislation approved by the coming General Conference will become effective Jan. 1 next year, unless otherwise specified

However, amendments to the denomination's constitution only take effect after the Council of Bishops certifies their ratification. In practice, that means any new amendment will not take effect until the bishops meet in spring 2026.

Peter Alliman shares a wonderful story of the Madisonville Community coming together to meet a need:

It started out as it has for more than 20 years on the Wednesday before the Christmas break for the Madisonville, Tennessee schools. Our local Kiwanis Club, with the help of teachers, churches, businesses and especially the employees and patients of Smiley Chiropractic Clinic, were ready to help the parents of more than 80 children receive bags of gifts to make Christmas a little brighter and merrier.

She was the second parent to arrive, shortly after noon that day. Her first words were, "I hope the car is big enough for all these bags." It turned out her vehicle had broken down and she had to get a neighbor, in a small car, to transport her for the pick-up. "I'm so thankful you all are doing this," she said, "I don't have money to buy presents for my kids this year. Without these gifts, my kids wouldn't get anything." There were four youngsters ranging in age from 13 to 2. She was thrilled and so obviously, appreciative of all the gifts. But the word we most remembered from our brief encounter with her was that she said she was a "widow". She was a widow with four kids, little money, and no means of transportation over the Christmas holidays. Yet, she had asked us for nothing and only expressed her gratitude for our relatively minor efforts of providing presents for her kids. It wasn't long before we decided we had to do something more. So, we did!

We announced the situation at First United Methodist Church, which was having holiday dinner that night, and raised several hundred dollars. We also made calls to a few friends and businesses and raised several hundred more. We also learned that her vehicle was at the dealership, but that the warranty company was "dragging their feet" in determining whether they would pay to repair the transmission. So, at best, they would have no transportation for the next couple of weeks.

So, here's what happened on Sunday, December 24, 2023, several of our Kiwanis Club members drove out to her home. We were met in the driveway by this single mother, as her young children scurried around us and their makeshift "playground." As we talked about her family, faith, and circumstances, we learned she had lost her husband only a year before to pancreatic cancer at Christmas time. As a result, they had lost their home and were living in this small, but well-kept, mobile home that was "a little crowded at times." Second, one of our member's had a granddaughter in college who didn't need her car during the Christmas break, so we presented her with the key to a 2010 Toyota Corolla to use for transportation during the holidays and afterward, if necessary. Third, we gave her a Christmas card from the Madisonville Kiwanis Club and others wishing her a very special Merry Christmas and money that eventually totaled $3,036.00. Fourth, one of our Club members, who is a lawyer, volunteered to help her with the warranty coverage problem.

After we said our goodbyes and wished her Merry Christmas, we received this email from her later that day. "I am stunned and in awe of your gift to us. It is exactly how much I needed for the deductible fee, bills, and glasses for my boys. I don't have words to thank you guys for this amazing and generous gift."

On Christmas Day, we received this email from her: "I am holding on to every dime of my blessing to ensure we have our van back first but knowing God has shown us so much favor is a huge gift. Most importantly, thanks to God's people this is a peaceful and calm Christmas. We can just focus on Jesus' birth, family, and not worry."

Later Christmas Day, we received this email: "I was putting my boys' car seats in the car so we could get groceries. My four-year-old says, 'Oh mom, this car is magic!' It's safe to say we all appreciate this blessing. I wish I could repay you all and the granddaughter's kindness. Merry Christmas to you and yours."

Several days later, on December 27th, our lawyer member received this email: "The dealership is demanding more maintenance records and, I assume, not fixing the van until they get them."

Our lawyer member told her to tell the dealership she had contacted a lawyer about the situation and the lawyer would contact them after the holidays. Later, on the 27th we received the following email: "Looks like the dealership tried to work it out with the warranty company so a lawyer wouldn't have to get involved. They may have succeeded. Fingers crossed."

The next day we received this: "I just got a call!!! The warranty company is doing it! It's been covered! Thank you so much for everything you have done. They even gave me a loaner care. I can't thank you enough for all you and everyone else involved have done for me and my boys."

Thanks to everyone for your help.

Peter

TWU Dental Clinic Returns to FUMC on April 15

The FUMC United Women in Faith (UWF) will host the Tennessee Wesleyan University Dental Clinic again on April 15 from 10 am to 2 pm. We are asking for donations of small mouthwash and small dental floss to provide to participants who attend the dental clinic. If you would like to donate these items, please put them in the bin labeled UWF in the Gathering Area.

This next dental clinic will include dental cleanings and referrals as needed. Services provided at the dental care clinic are free to participants.

Monroe County community health assessments have previously noted that access to dental care is one of the most significant health needs in the county and regular dental care can be associated with preventing other chronic diseases. The TWU dental hygiene program was originally founded at Hiwassee College and moved to Tennessee Wesleyan University when Hiwassee closed. The program leads to a bachelor's degree and is accredited by the American Dental Association. The Director of the TWU dental hygiene program is Dr. Randa Colbert, Ed.D., RDH, who also supervises the free dental clinic.

The Madisonville UWF hopes to continue this partnership with the TWU Dental Hygiene program and thanks Dr. Colbert and her students for their work. Watch for more information on free dental hygiene clinics at FUMC at 143 College St in Madisonville.

It's Church Pictorial Directory Time!

May 4th from 10:00 AM to 8:00 PM is the day for our photography session. There is a sitting fee of $10.00 per family. The sign up sheet is located on the coffee bar. You don't want to miss out on this opportunity, so please sign up right away!

If you have any questions, please contact Carol McKenzie at (423) 836-7161.

Easter Cantata

On Sunday morning April 14th our chancel choir will present Russell's Mauldin's cantata AMAZING LOVE at our 10:30 AM morning worship service. The choir has been working on the music for several weeks now. This is a beautiful Easter cantata. It's not too late to join the choir and be a part of this presentation. Choir practice is at 6:00 PM on Wednesday evenings in the sanctuary. If you have any questions, get in touch with Sue.
